Reflexivity In Film And Culture From Don Quixote To Jean Luc Godard:

Reflexivity in Film and Literature Robert Stam,1985 Reflexivity refers to those moments in fiction and film when the work suddenly calls attention to itself as a fictional construct For example in literature a character might suddenly step out of the story and address the reader This study of reflexivity in film and literature pays special attention to Don Quixote one of the first such examples of reflexivity in the novel and to Jean Luc Godard and the nouvelle vague in cinema where self reflection prevailed It examines the rise of modernism the complicity of the reader spectator in creating illusion and the production process in film The discussion of film includes Rear Window Tom Jones and The French Lieutenant s Woman Source inconnue

Reflexivity in Film and Literature Robert Stam,1992 Reflexivity refers to those moments in fiction and film when the work suddenly calls attention to itself as a fictional construct For example in literature a character might suddenly step out of the story and address the reader

The Radical Faces of Godard and Bertolucci Yosefa Loshitzky,1995 From the radical 1960s through the neo conservative 1980s and into the early 1990s the provocative cinematic careers of French director Jean Luc Godard and Italian director Bernardo Bertolucci have captured the imagination of filmgoers and critics alike Although their films differ greatly Godard produces highly cerebral and theoretical works while Bertolucci creates films with more spectacle and emotionalism their careers have sparked lively discussion and debate mostly centred around the notion of an Oedipal struggle between them

Metafilm Music in Jean-Luc Godard's Cinema Michael Baumgartner,2022 Hailed as a leading innovator of visual montage unique storytelling style and ground breaking cinematography Jean Luc Godard is a prominent pioneer in sculpting complex soundtracks altering the familiar relationship between sound and image but his achievements in sound have been largely overlooked Such a lacuna in the extensive research on Godard s work is unfortunate as Godard s lifelong preoccupation of exploring self reflexively all aspects of filmmaking particularly affects film music With the novel approach of metafilm music extrapolated from Jean Luc Godard s oeuvre this book not only closes up a crucial gap in Godard research but also offers detailed analyses of the music as metafilm music in Contempt Alphaville Band of Outsiders Pierrot le fou First Name Carmen Histoire s du cin ma among other films and video productions The innovative scholarly concept of metafilm music enriching the burgeoning field of music in audio visual media describes how Godard thinks about film music with film music This book thus provides a thorough examination of Godard s self reflexive approach to film music which has resulted in a lifelong creation of multi layered soundtracks pushing the envelope of film music and sound to the limit

Recycled Culture in Contemporary Art and Film Vera Dika,2003-06-09 The reuse of images plots and genres from film history has become prominent in contemporary culture In this study Vera Dika explores this phenomenon from a broad range of critical perspectives examining works of art and film that resist the pull of the past Dika provides an in depth analysis of works in several media including performance photography Punk film and examples from mainstream American and European cinema Proclaiming the renewed importance of the image and of genre she investigates works as diverse as Cindy Sherman's Untitled Film Stills, Amos Poe's The Foreigner, Terence Malick's Badlands and Francis Ford Coppola's One from the Heart. Her study positions avant garde art work within the context of contemporary mainstream film practice as well as in relationship to their historical moment. Between Film, Video, and the Digital Jihoon Kim, 2016-07-14

Encompassing experimental film and video, essay film, gallery based installation art and digital art, Jihoon Kim establishes the concept of hybrid moving images as an array of impure images shaped by the encounters and negotiations between different media while also using it to explore various theoretical issues such as stillness and movement, indexicality, abstraction, materiality, afterlives of the celluloid cinema, archive, memory apparatus and the concept of medium as such. Grounding its study in interdisciplinary framework of film studies, media studies and contemporary art criticism, Between Film, Video and the Digital offers a fresh insight on the post media conditions of film and video under the pervasive influences of digital technologies as well as on the crucial roles of media hybridity in the creative processes of giving birth to the emerging forms of the moving image. Incorporating in depth readings of recent works by more than thirty artists and filmmakers including Jim Campbell, Bill Viola, Sam Taylor Johnson, David Claerbout, Fiona Tan, Takeshi Murata, Jennifer West, Ken Jacobs, Christoph Girardet and Matthias Müller, Hito Steyerl, Lynne Sachs, Harun Farocki, Doug Aitken, Douglas Gordon, Stan Douglas, Candice Breitz among others, the book is the essential scholarly monograph for understanding how digital technologies simultaneously depend on and differ from previous time based media and how this juncture of similarities and differences signals a new regime of the art of the moving image. Proust at the Movies Martine Beugnet, Marion Schmid, 2017-07-28

Film established itself as an artistic form of expression at the same time that Proust started work on his masterpiece A la recherche du temps perdu. If Proust apparently took little interest in what he described as a poor avatar of reductive mimetic representation, the resonances between his own radical reworking of writing styles and the novelistic forms and cinema as the art of time are undeniable. Proust at the Movies is the first study in English to consider these rich interconnections. Its introductory chapter charts the missed encounter between Proust and the cinema and addresses the problems inherent in adapting his novel to the screen. The following chapters examine the various cinematic responses to A la recherche du temps perdu attempted to date: Luchino Visconti and Joseph Losey's failed attempts at adapting the whole of the novel in the 1970s, Volker Schlöndorff's Un Amour de Swann 1984, Raoul Ruiz's Le Temps retrouvé 1999, Chantal Akerman's La Prisonnière in La Captive 2000 and Fabio Carpi's Quartetto 1982 and Le Intermittenze del cuore 2003. The last chapter tracks the echoes of Proust's writing in the work of various directors from Abel Gance to Jean-Luc Godard. The approach is multidisciplinary, combining literary criticism with film theory and elements of philosophy of art. Special attention is given to the modernist legacy in literature and film with its distinctive aesthetic and narrative features. An outline of the history and recent evolution of contemporary art cinema thus emerges: a cinema where the themes at the heart of Proust's work, memory, time, perception are ceaselessly explored. Cinema and Intermediality Ágnes Pethő, 2011-05-25

Within the last two decades intermediality has emerged as one of the most challenging concepts in media theory with no shortage of various taxonomies and definitions What prompted the writing of the essays gathered in this volume however was not a desire for more classifications applied to the world of moving pictures but a strong urge to investigate what the inter implied by the idea of intermediality stands for and what it actually entails in the cinema The book offers in each of the individual chapters a cross section view of specific instances in which cinema seems to consciously position itself in between media and arts employing techniques that tap into the multimedial complexity of cinema and bring into play the tensions generated by media differences The introductory theoretical writings deal with the historiography of approaching intermedial phenomena in cinema presenting at the same time some of the possible gateways that can open up the cinematic image towards the perceptual frames of other media and arts The book also contains essays that examine more closely specific paradigms in the poetics of cinematic intermediality like the allure of painting in Hitchcock s films the exquisite ways of framing and un framing haptical imagery in Antonioni s works the narrative allegories of media differences the word and image plays and ekphrastic techniques in Jean Luc Godard s total cinema the fl neuristic intermedial gallery of moving images created by Jos Luis Guer n or the types of intermedial metalepses in Agn s Varda s cin criture From a theoretical vantage point these essays break with the tradition of thinking of intermediality in analogy with intertextuality and attempt a phenomenological re definition of intermedial relations Moreover some of the analyses target films that expose the coexistence of the hypermediated experience of intermediality and the illusion of reality connecting the questions of intermediality both to the indexical nature of cinematic representation and to the specific ideological and cultural context of the films thus offering insights into a few questions regarding the politics of intermediality as well
