Reform in China Noriko Kamachi, 1981 Preliminary Material Huang Tsun hsien's Native Home Discovery of Japan The Eastern Frontier of the Chinese World Westernization in Early Meiji Japan Japan's Aggression on China's Periphery California 1882 1885 Confrontation with Racial Antagonism Reform Proposals for China Completion of Treatises on Japan The Other Half of the Globe Reflections in London and Singapore The Sino Japanese War and the Post War Reform Movement Master of the Jen ching lu Hope for a New China Conclusion A Simplified Chart of the Genealogy of Huang Tsun hsien A List of the Staff Members of the Chinese Diplomatic Mission in Japan Notes Bibliography Glossary Index Harvard Inklings of Democracy in China Suzanne Ogden, 2020-05-11 Since 1979 China's leaders have East Asian Monographs introduced economic and political reforms that have lessened the state s hold over the lives of ordinary citizens By examining the growth in individual rights the public sphere democratic processes and pluralization the author seeks to answer questions concerning the relevance of liberal democratic ideas for China and the relationship between a democratic political culture and a democratic political system The author also looks at the contradictory impulses and negative consequences for democracy generated by economic liberalism Unresolved issues concerning the relationships among culture democracy and socioeconomic development are at the heart of the analysis Nonideological criteria are used to assess the success of the Chinese approach to building a fair just and decent society Anarchist Modernity Sho Konishi,2020-05-11 Mid nineteenth century Russian radicals who witnessed the Meiji Restoration saw it as the most sweeping revolution in recent history and the impetus for future global progress Acting outside imperial encounters they initiated underground transnational networks with Japan Prominent intellectuals and cultural figures from Peter Kropotkin and Lev Tolstoy to Saigo Takamori and Tokutomi Roka pursued these unofficial relationships through correspondence travel and networking despite diplomatic and military conflicts between their respective nations Tracing these non state networks Anarchist Modernity uncovers a major current in Japanese intellectual and cultural life between 1860 and 1930 that might be described as cooperatist anarchist modernity a commitment to realizing a modern society through mutual aid and voluntary activity without the intervention of state governance These efforts later crystallized into such movements as the Nonwar Movement Esperantism and the popularization of the natural sciences Examining cooperatist anarchism as an intellectual foundation of modern Japan Sho Konishi offers a new approach to Japanese history that fundamentally challenges the logic of Western modernity It looks beyond this foundational construct of modern history writing to understand people practices and cultural expressions that have been forgotten or dismissed as products of anti-modern nativist counter urges against the West

Japanese Marxist Gail Lee Bernstein, 2020-03-17 It is the merit of Gail Lee Bernstein's portrait of Kawakami Hajime that he emerges as a recognizable human being a truly modern figure reflecting in his own life a personal and hard won balance between traditional Japanese values and the demands of modernization. The heir of a samurai family an acknowledged authority on economics a professor at one of Japan's leading universities an early popularizer of Marxism in Japan a Japanese Communist on his own unique terms and finally the author of an autobiography that is a classic of modern Japanese literature Kawakami Hajime is an important figure in the history of modern Japan At each stage of Kawakami s winding path to Marxism from patriotic nationalist to academic Marxist to revolutionary Communist his concern for the ethical and economic problems that emerged in the course of Japan's astonishingly rapid industrialization dominated his consciousness Bernstein provides a portrait of Kawakami s complex personality as well as an elegantly shaped narrative of the context and content of Japanese left wing politics in the 1920s and she makes plain the kinds of cultural conflict that modernization in its several varieties bequeathed to Japanese intellectuals China, 1898-1912 Douglas R. Reynolds, 2020-04-06 Challenging most accounts of China's revolutionary transformation at the turn of the century Douglas Reynolds argues that the political toppling of the Qing dynasty in 1911 was less important than the Xinzheng or New System reforms of the late Qing government itself He then provides a detailed account of the debt those reforms owed to Japan For the Chinese Japan offered models for major modern institutions training for administrators military officers and modern police a shortcut to Western knowledge through translations from the Japanese a ready made modern vocabulary using Kanji or Chinese characters and advisers and instructors in many fields After establishing the broad areas in which China underwent a lasting and peaceful revolution during a Golden Decade of beneficial relations with its island neighbour Reynolds recounts the activities of Chinese students in Japan and those of Japanese teachers and advisers in China He examines the effect of translations from the Japanese on textbooks and general publishing and outlines Chinese borrowings from Japanese Western style institutions in education the military police and prisons modern law the judiciary and constitutional government Missionary in China Yu-ming Shaw, 2020-03-23 This work traced the career of a seminal figure in twentieth century Chinese American relations John Leighton Stuart began his work in China as a missionary in 1904 He moved on to head Yenching University the leading Christian institution of higher leaning in China During the Pacific War Stuart was imprisoned by the Japanese When General George C Marshall was sent to China by President Truman in 1945 to mediate peace between the Chinese Nationalists and the Chinese Communists Marshall chose Stuart as Ambassador to help with that mediation and to look after American interests in China Stuart was the last to hold that post before the Chiang Kai shek government s move to Taiwan Shaw's research among materials in English Chinese and Japanese has produced a richly detailed examination of each phase of Stuart's life Shaw presents Stuart as a Wilsonian idealist whose combination of liberal situational values and nationalistic vision put him square in the middle unable fully to support a Nationalist led China and positing instead a Nationalist Communist coalition that would favor the Nationalists and open the door to American influence The Real Modern Christopher P. Hanscom, 2020-05-11 The contentious relationship between modernism and realism has powerfully influenced literary history throughout the twentieth century and into the present In 1930s Korea at a formative moment in these debates a crisis of representation stemming from the loss of faith in language as a vehicle of meaningful reference to the world became a central concern of literary modernists as they operated under Japanese colonial rule Christopher P Hanscom examines the critical and literary production of three prose authors central to 1930s literary circles Pak T aewon Kim Yujong and Yi T aejun whose works confront this crisis by critiquing the concept of transparent or empiricist language that formed the basis for both a nationalist literary movement and the legitimizing discourse of assimilatory colonization Bridging literary and colonial studies this re reading of modernist fiction within the imperial context illuminates links between literary practice and colonial discourse and questions anew the relationship between aesthetics and politics The Real Modern challenges Eurocentric and nativist perspectives on the derivative particularity of non Western literatures opens global modernist studies to the similarities and differences of the colonial Korean case and argues for decolonization of the ways in which non Western literatures are read in both local and global contexts Nine Chapters on Mathematical Modernity Andrea Bréard, 2019-06-25 The book addresses for the first time the dynamics associated with the modernization of mathematics in China from the nineteenth to the mid twentieth century from a transcultural global historical perspective Rather than depict the transformations of mathematical knowledge in terms of a process of westernization the book analyzes the complex interactions between different scientific communities and the ways in which the past modernity language and mathematics were negotiated in a global context In each chapter Andrea Br ard provides vivid portraits of a series of go betweens such as translators educators or state statisticians based on a vast array of translated primary sources hitherto unavailable to a non Chinese readership They not only illustrate how Chinese scholars mediated between new mathematical objects and discursive modes but also how they instrumentalized their autochthonous scientific roots in specific political and intellectual contexts While sometimes technical in style the book addresses all readers who are interested in the global and cultural history of science and the complexities involved in the making of universal mathematics While the pursuit of modernity is in the title entanglement is of as much interest Using the famous Nine Chapters as a framework Br ard considers a wide range of that entanglement from divination to data management Br ard s analysis and thought provoking insights show once again how much we can learn when two cultures intersect A fascinating read John Day Boston University

Prosperity, Region, and Institutions in Maritime China Billy K.L. So,2020-03-23 Prosperity signifies success in economic performance Economic performance always takes place in a spatial context And institutions matter in economic performance These three interwoven themes underlie this inquiry into the regional economy of southern Fukien province during the Sung and Yuan dynasties when the area was one of the most prosperous regions in China Through a meticulous reading of the sources the author seeks to understand the meaning of prosperity in the premodern Chinese context and argues that we have to understand economic performance as a process occurring in space and influenced by institutions which affect economic actors particularly through the means of transaction costs

The Making of Japanese Manchuria, 1904–1932 Yoshihisa Tak

Matsusaka, 2020-03-23 In this history of Japanese involvement in northeast China the author argues that Japan's military seizure of Manchuria in September 1931 was founded on three decades of infiltration of the area This incremental empire building and its effect on Japan are the focuses of this book The principal agency in the piecemeal growth of Japanese colonization was the South Manchurian Railway Company and by the mid 1920s Japan had a deeply entrenched presence in Manchuria and exercised a dominant economic and political influence over the area Japanese colonial expansion in Manchuria also loomed large in Japanese politics military policy economic development and foreign relations and deeply influenced many aspects of Japan's interwar history From Cotton Mill to Business Empire Elisabeth Köll, 2020-08-25 The demise of state owned enterprises the transformation of collectives into shareholding cooperatives and the creation of investment opportunities through stock markets indicate China's movement from a socialist state controlled economy toward a socialist market economy Yet contrary to high expectations that China's new enterprises will become like corporations in capitalist countries management often remains under the control of the onetime bureaucrats who ran the socialist enterprises The concepts definitions and interpretations of property rights corporate structures and business practices in contemporary China have historical institutional and cultural roots In tracing the development under founder Zhang Jian 1853 1926 and his successors of the Dasheng Cotton Mill in Nantong into a business group encompassing among other concerns cotton flour and oil mills land development companies and shipping firms the author documents the growth of regional enterprises as local business empires from the 1890s until the foundation of the People's Republic in 1949 She focuses on the legal and managerial evolution of limited liability firms in China particularly issues of control and accountability the introduction and management of industrial work in the countryside and the integration and interdependency of local national and international markets in Republican China Japan's Cultural Policy Toward China, 1918-1931 See Heng Teow, 2020-03-23 Most existing scholarship on Japan's cultural policy toward modern China reflects the paradigm of cultural imperialism In contrast this study demonstrates that Japan while motivated by pragmatic interests international cultural rivalries ethnocentrism moralism and idealism was mindful of Chinese opinion and sought the cooperation of the Chinese government Japanese policy stressed cultural communication and inclusiveness rather than cultural domination and exclusiveness and was part of Japan's search for an East Asian cultural order led by Japan China however was not a passive recipient and actively sought to redirect this policy to serve its national interests and aspirations The author argues that it is time to move away from the framework of cultural imperialism toward one that recognizes the importance of cultural autonomy internationalism and transculturation Emotions at Work Aviad E. Raz,2020-03-23 Our work life is filled with emotions How we feel on the job what we say we feel and what feelings we display all these are important aspects of organizational behavior and workplace culture Rather than focusing on the psychology of personal emotions at work however this study concentrates on emotions as role requirements on workplace emotions that combine the private with the public the personal with the social and the authentic with the masked In this cross cultural study of emotion management the author argues that even though the goals of normative control in factories offices and shops may be similar across cultures organizational structure and the surrounding culture affect how that control is discussed and conceived

Writing Margins Terry Kawashima, 2020-10-26 In texts from the mid Heian to the early Kamakura periods certain figures appear to be marginal or removed from centers of power But why do we see these figures in this way This study first seeks to answer this question by examining the details of the marginalizing discourse found in these texts Who is portraying whom as marginal For what reason Is the discourse consistent The author next considers these texts in terms of the predilection of modern scholarship both Japanese and Western to label certain figures marginal She then poses the question Is this predilection a helpful tool or does it inscribe modern biases and misconceptions onto these texts Unfinished Business Haruo Iguchi, 2020-03-23 Ayukawa Yoshisuke 1880 1967 was the founder of the Nissan conglomerate and the leader of the Manchuria Industrial Development Corporation one of the linchpins of Imperial Japan's efforts to economically exploit its overseas dependencies Despite his close association with the Japanese government from the 1920s to the 1950s Ayukawa was a proponent of free trade and global economic interdependence He sought to lessen state control of Japan s economy by trying to attract foreign especially American capital and technology in the years surrounding World War II In the postwar era in particular Ayukawa actively pushed the growth of small and medium sized firms yet his efforts were ultimately unsuccessful In Unfinished Business through exploring the reasons for Ayukawa's failure Haruo Iguchi illuminates many of the economic problems of today s Japan Detective Fiction and the Rise of the Japanese Novel, 1880-1930 Satoru Saito, 2020-03-17 In Detective Fiction and the Rise of the Japanese Novel Satoru Saito sheds light on the deep structural and conceptual similarities between detective fiction and the novel in prewar Japan Arguing that the interactions between the two genres were not marginal occurrences but instead critical moments of literary engagement Saito demonstrates how detective fiction provided Japanese authors with the necessary frameworks through which to examine and critique the nature and implications of Japan's literary formations and its modernizing society Through a series of close readings of literary texts by canonical writers of Japanese literature and detective fiction including Tsubouchi Shoyo Natsume Soseki Shimazaki Toson Sato Haruo Kuroiwa Ruiko and Edogawa Ranpo Saito explores how the detective story functioned to mediate the tenuous relationships between literature and society as well as between subject and authority that made literary texts significant as political acts By foregrounding the often implicit and contradictory strategies of literary texts choice of narrative forms symbolic mappings and intertextual evocations among others this study examines in detail the intricate interactions between detective fiction and the novel that shaped the development of modern Japanese literature Experimental Arts in Postwar Japan Miryam Sas, 2020-03-17 In the years of rapid economic growth following the protest movements of the 1960s artists and intellectuals in Japan searched for a means of direct impact on the whirlwind of historical and cultural transformations of their time Yet while the artists often called for such direct encounter their works complicate this ideal with practices of interruption self reflexive mimesis and temporal discontinuity In an era known for idealism and activism some of the most cherished ideals intimacy between subjects authenticity a sense of home are limitlessly desired yet always just out of reach In this book Miryam Sas explores the theoretical and cultural implications of experimental arts in a range of media Casting light on important moments in the arts from the 1960s to the early 1980s this study focuses first on underground post shingeki theater and then on related works of experimental film and video buto dance and photography Emphasizing the complex and sophisticated theoretical grounding of these artists through their works practices and writings this book also locates Japanese experimental arts in an extensive sustained dialogue with key issues of contemporary critical theory Longing Christine Yano, 2002-07-01 Enka a sentimental ballad genre epitomizes for many the nihonjin no kokoro heart soul of Japanese To older members of the Japanese public who constitute enka s primary audience this music of parted lovers long unseen rural hometowns and self sacrificing mothers evokes a direct connection to the traditional roots of Japaneseness Overlooked in this emotional invocation of the past however are the powerful commercial forces that since the 1970s have shaped the consumption of enka and its version of national identity Informed by theories of nostalgia collective memory cultural nationalism and gender this book draws on the author's extensive fieldwork in probing the practice of identity The Appropriation of Cultural Capital Milena making and the processes at work when Japan becomes Japan Doleželová-Velingerová, Oldřich Král, Graham Sanders, 2020-03-23 For much of the twentieth century the May Fourth movement of 1919 was seen as the foundational moment of modernity in China Recent examinations of literary and cultural modernity in China have however led to a questioning of this view By approaching May Fourth from novel perspectives the authors of the eight studies in this volume seek to contribute to the ongoing critique of the movement The essays are centered on the intellectual and cultural historical motivations and practices behind May Fourth discourse and highlight issues such as strategies of discourse formation scholarly methodologies rhetorical dispositions the manipulation of historical sources and the construction of modernity by means of the reification of China's literary past Recontextualizing Texts Atsuko Sakaki, 2020-03-23 Offering the first systematic examination of five modern Japanese fictional narratives all of them available in English translations Atsuko Sakaki explores Natsume S seki s Kokoro and The Three Cornered World Ibuse Masuji s Black Rain Mori gai s Wild Geese and Tanizaki Jun ichir s Quicksand Her close reading of each text reveals a hitherto unexplored area of communication between narrator and audience as well as between implied author and implied reader By using this approach the author situates each of these works not in its historical cultural or economic contexts but in the situation the text itself produces
