Hindu-Christian Dialogue Mariasusai Dhavamony, 2021-11-15 Dialogue is an integral part of the mission of the Christian church The immensity of the ocean of Hindu doctrine and thought presents a significant obstacle to Christians who have been invited by the Roman Catholic Church to scrutinize the divine Mystery present in other religions Many fascinated by Hindu mysticism confuse permanent Hindu beliefs with certain current Western religious movements India's quest for the divine embodies multiple forms Its millennia old methods of meditation and varieties of asceticism often confuse those who are less inclined to experience of an inner spiritual nature This book attempts to address some of these difficulties and questions It is the author's belief that in the Hindu Christian encounter the Christian believer will also rediscover the originality and newness of the Christian revelation viz the intervention of God in the history of salvation whereby God reveals his salvific love in Jesus Christ Possessing expert knowledge of both Hinduism and Christianity the author approaches the Hindu Christian dialogue with sympathy and discernment

Fullness of Life for All Inus Daneel, Charles Van Engen, Hendrik M. Vroom, 2005 This important book is needed today The challenges that Christian churches face have changed immensely in the last quarter century One of the central issues facing the churches everywhere in the world is their missionary presence in their nations and societies The authors of this volume are among the world's leading missiological thinkers and represent nearly every major Christian tradition in Europe Africa North America and Asia In this new century the Christian church faces new situations that include for example the fall of communism the globalization of culture cultural and religious minorities and multiple religious majorities in nearly every country ethnic and interreligious tensions relativism and individualism in Western culture the rise of a global impact of a postmodern world view poverty in poor countries and in urban areas in wealthy countries and the decline of Western cultural authority and with notable exceptions of religious authority generally This book speaks of ways in which Christian churches are seeking to respond to these challenges The purpose of this book is to describe some of the main challenges facing the churches in mission today particularly with reference to inter religious conversations all over the world The title of this volume has been derived from the theme of the 24th General Assembly of the World Alliance of Reformed Churches WARC at Accra in August 2004 whose theme is That All May Have Life in Fullness Such Christian witness is more than humanness because it arises from the fullness of God's grace forgiveness reconciliation and hope that God's will may be done on earth as it is in heaven Christian presence in a desperately needy world will make the fullness of God's presence known Such fullness of life permeates the heart mind and action of Christians The editors and authors of this volume hope that it will challenge the reader to reflect upon the missionary presence of the churches and their communication of the Gospel in a secularized religiously plural world filled with struggles violence and rumors of war Fullness of life points to the Kingdom of God that is here already and at the same time not yet here This constitutes Christian expectation and hope This book is must reading for anyone interested in seeing the Christian Church respond in new and relevant ways to the new situations facing our world in a new century
