Flüchtlingsschutz Silja Klepp, 2014-03-15 Die Außengrenzen sind zu einem umkämpften Raum der EU-Politik zwischen Grenzkontrollen und Flüchtlingsrechten geworden. Silja Klepp stellt diese Aushandlungskämpfe in einer Ethnographie der Seegrenze dar. Forschungsreisen entlang der Küsten von Libyen, Italien und Malta verbinden sich zu einem einzigartig dichten Blick auf die Zwänge und Handlungslogiken der Akteure im Grenzraum. Auf der Spur der Flüchtlinge von Süden nach Norden werden die Lage der Migrantinnen in Libyen, die Grenzschutzagentur Frontex und die Verhältnisse auf See sowie schließlich Haftzentren und andere Grenzeinrichtungen in den Ankunftsorten Malta und Süditalien illustriert und auf die europäische Politik rückbezogen. Eine intensive Perspektive auf einen umstrittenen Teil der europäischen Außenpolitik. Refugee Politics in the Middle East and North Africa. A. Ullah, 2014-05-15 Ahsan Ullah provides an insightful analysis of migration and displacement in the Middle East and North Africa. He examines the intricate relationship of these phenomena with human rights, safety concerns and issues of identity crisis and identity formation. Losing Place. Johnathan Bascom, 2001-09-01 Refugee flight, settlement and repatriation are not static, self-contained or singular events. Instead, they are three stages of an ongoing process made and mirrored in the lives of real people. For that reason, there is an evident need for historical and longitudinal studies of refugee populations that rise above description and trace the process of social transformation during the full circle of flight, resettlement and return home. This book probes the economic forces and social processes responsible for shaping the everyday existence for refugees as they move through exile. The Sage Encyclopedia of Refugee Studies. Yen Le Espiritu, 2025-09-01 Refugees and displacement are defining issues of the 21st century with over 70 million asylum seekers, refugees and stateless individuals forced from their homes as of 2020. Every two seconds, one person is forcibly displaced due to climate change, global epidemics and ongoing conflicts. The SAGE Encyclopedia of Refugee Studies, edited by members of The Critical Refugee Studies Collective, serves as a vital and comprehensive resource for understanding the historical, political and cultural dimensions of displacement. Featuring over 250 authoritative articles, this landmark reference work is organized into three key themes: law, politics and policy; humanitarianism and humanitarian organizations; and media, culture and storytelling. Drawing from disciplines such as migration studies, Indigenous studies, critical race studies, environmental studies, sociology, political science, law, anthropology and the arts, this encyclopedia critically examines refugee issues in relation to imperialism racism patriarchy and militarism Beyond academic analysis The SAGE Encyclopedia of Refugee Studies centers refugee voices through narratives first person accounts and visual storytelling highlighting the lived experiences communities and creative expressions of displaced individuals This essential resource is invaluable for scholars educators policymakers community based organizations and refugees themselves      Relocation Failures in Sri Lanka

Robert Muggah,2013-04-04 Each year millions of people are internally displaced and resettled in the wake of wars and floods or to make way for large scale development projects and this number is increasing Humanitarian and development specialists continue to struggle with designing and executing effective protection strategies and durable solutions Relocation Failures explains how internal displacement and efforts to engineer resettlement are conceived and practiced by policy makers and practitioners The author argues that policies for internally displaced peoples are weak and diluted by narrow interpretations of state sovereignty and collective action dilemmas and in the case of Sri Lanka unintentionally intensified ethnic segregation and ultimately war This unique new book considers the origins and parameters of internal displacement and resettlement policy and practice and proposes an explanation for why it often fails In highlighting the ways that development assistance can exacerbate smoldering conflicts the volume provides an important caution to the aid community      Making Global

Institutions Work Kate Brennan,2014-09-19 This book seeks to think differently about what we recognize as global institutions and how they could work better for the people who need them most By so doing the contributions show that there is a group of institutions that influence enough people s lives in significant enough ways through what they protect provide or enable that they should be considered together as global institutions The United Nations the World Bank the internet as well as private military and security companies leave a heavy footprint on the social political and economic landscape of the planet We are all aware in different ways of the existence of these global institutions but their importance in achieving change in the twenty first century is often underestimated In this book contributors seek to explain what associations exist between change in global institutions and the reduction of poverty and inequality as well as the achievement of security and justice The work makes sense of processes of change and identifies the most significant obstacles that exist offering suggestions for future action that will be of interest to students and scholars of global institutions      The

Migration-Displacement Nexus Khalid Koser,Susan Martin,2011-09-01 The migration displacement nexus is a new concept intended to capture the complex and dynamic interactions between voluntary and forced migration both internally and internationally Besides elaborating a new concept this volume has three main purposes the first is to focus empirical attention on previously understudied topics such as internal trafficking and the displacement of foreign nationals using case studies including Afghanistan and Iraq the second is to highlight new challenges including urban displacement and the effects of climate change and the third is to explore gaps in current policy responses and elaborate alternatives for the future

rights south of the Sahara have been revolutionized by NGOs which have become the most effective detectives in discovering abuses and the most active advocates in seeking solutions      Rethinking Displacement: Asia Pacific Perspectives Ruchira Ganguly-Scrase, Kuntala Lahiri-Dutt, 2016-04-08 This book responds to the need to explore the multitude of interconnected factors causing displacements that compel people to move within their homelands or traverse various borders in the contemporary world that is characterised by extensive and rapid movements of people It addresses this need by bringing together historical and contemporary accounts and critical examinations of the displaced by articulating the commonalities in their lived experiences It accomplishes the task of charting a new path in displacement studies by offering a number of studies from interdisciplinary and diverse methodological approaches comprising ethnographic and qualitative research and literary interpretations to emphasise that although the forms and conditions of mobility are highly divergent individual experiences of displacement and placelessness offer a critical challenge to the artificial categorisations of people's movements Each chapter adds insights into the different configurations of displacement and placement and offers fresh interpretations of migration and dislocation in today's rapidly changing world The contributors critically examine a variety of displacement processes and experiences in the context of war tourism neoliberal policies of development and the impact of various agro forestry policies They focus on a range of countries enabling a thorough comparative analysis in terms of scope and range of examples and methods of analysis This book makes an original contribution to the growing body of literature on displacement and will appeal to a wide readership including advanced undergraduates and graduate students and professors in disciplines such as human geography development studies sociology and anthropology regional studies and comparative impact assessment
