Love With A Difference:

Love's Labor Eva Feder Kittay, 2013-09-13 First Published in 1999 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informal company Sororophobia Helena Michie, 1992 This book looks at how differences among women have been textually represented at a variety of historical moments and in a variety of cultural contexts including Victorian mainstream fiction African American mulatto novels late twentieth century lesbian communities and contemporary country music Sororophobia designates the complex and shifting relations between women's attempts to identify with other women and their often simultaneous desire to establish and retain difference Michie argues for the centrality to feminism of a paradigm that moves beyond celebrations of identity and sisterhood to a more nuanced notion of women's relations with other women which may include such uncomfortable concepts as envy jealousy and competition as well as more institutionalized ideas of difference such as race and class Chapters on literature are interspersed by inter chapters on the choreography of sameness and difference among women in popular culture

Inductive Studies in English Grammar William Rainey Harper, Isaac Bronson Burgess, 1894 The Philosophy of Christology Hue Woodson, 2022-01-31 Given the perpetual problem of the historical Jesus there remains an ongoing posing of the question to and a continuous seeking of the meaningfulness of Christology From the earliest reckoning with the relationship between Jesus of Nazareth and the Christ of faith what it means to do Christology today remains at the methodological center of the task and scope of every systematic theology Whether giving an account of Albert Schweitzer's bringing an end to the quest for the historical Jesus in 1906 or attending to Rudolf Bultmann's period of no quest culminating with his demythologization project in the 1940s how we still think of Christology as a matter of questions and concerns with meaning speaks to an unavoidable philosophizing of Christology In this way The Philosophy of Christology offers both a particular history of Christology in conjunction with a particular philosophy of Christology which assesses the theological contributions by a group of Bultmannians following Bultmann in the 1950s and 1960s up to what can be reimagined by repurposing Jacques Derrida's philosophical question into the meaning of love in 2002

Life-Destroying Diagrams Eugenie Brinkema, 2022-01-14 In Life Destroying Diagrams Eugenie Brinkema brings the insights of her radical formalism to bear on supremely risky terrain the ethical extremes of horror and love Through close readings of works of film literature and philosophy she explores how diagrams grids charts lists abecedaria toroids tempos patterns colors negative space lengths increments and thresholds attest to formal logics of torture and cruelty violence and finitude friendship and eros debt and care Beginning with a wholesale rethinking of the affect of horror orienting it away from entrenched models of feeling toward impersonal schemes and structures Brinkema moves outward to consider the relation between objects and affects humiliation and metaphysics genre and the general bodily destruction and aesthetic generation geometry and scenography hatred and value love and measurement and ultimately the tensions hazards and speculative promise of formalism itself Replete with etymological meditations performative typography and lyrical digressions Life Destroying Diagrams is at once a model of reading without guarantee and a series of generative experiments in the writing of aesthetic theory

Maternal Impressions Cristina Mazzoni, 2002 In an unusual combination of reflection autobiography theory and criticism Cristina Mazzoni looks at childbirth and early maternity from the perspective of an academic mother with three young children Mazzoni draws upon examples ranging from contemporary advice manuals and novels to the work of turn of the century Italian scientists and women writers as well as fairy tales religious texts psychoanalytic accounts and feminist theory Throughout her investigations of the various forces that shape cultural views of pregnancy and childbirth Mazzoni strives to imagine and deploy maternity as a concept and a reality capable of challenging conventional representations of subjectivity The questions she addresses dwell on relationship and interdependence the inseparability of the personal and the political and the connections and interactions between bodies and power Maternal Impressions is far more than a book of literary criticism and theory It reveals the multiple bonds and continuities between the contradictory ways in which pregnancy and childbirth were represented a century ago and the manner in which they still haunt feminist experience today In her conclusion Mazzoni points toward a possible ethics of maternity

Law, 2013-01-10 An in depth study of Kierkegaard's thinking on Christology emphasising the radical nature of his approach to the incarnation with an emphasis on the call of the Christian believer to a life of kenotic self emptying discipleship in imitation of Christ

The Ambivalence of Scarcity and Other Essays Paul Dumouchel, 2014-10-01 First published in French in 1979 The Ambivalence of Scarcity was a groundbreaking work on mimetic theory Now expanded upon with new specially written and never before published conference texts and essays this revised edition explores Ren Girard's philosophy in three sections economy and economics mimetic theory and violence and politics in modern societies The first section argues that though mimetic theory is in many ways critical of modern economic theory this criticism can contribute to the enrichment of economic thinking The second section explores the issues of nonviolence and misrecognition in connaissance which have been at the center of many discussions of Girard's work. The final section proposes mimetic analyses of the violence typical of modern societies from high school bullying to genocide and terrorist attacks. Politics, Dumouchel argues, is a violent means of protecting us from our own violent tendencies and it can at times become the source of the very savagery from which it seeks to protect us. The book's conclusion analyzes the relationship between ethics and economics, opening new avenues of research and inviting further exploration. Dumouchel's introduction reflects on the importance of René Girard's work in relation to ongoing research, especially in social sciences and philosophy.

Ecstatic Consumption Pavlina Radia, 2016-12-14

While modernity aspired to fix radical alienation through aesthetics by assigning an ethical value to narratives, contemporary literature and the arts are no longer immune to the impact of commodity culture amplified by globalization. In the world of commodity, corporate logic and cyborgs, the very notion of identity is frequently turned into a spectacle. Yet it is also simultaneously mobilized by the search for what Jean Baudrillard describes as the ecstatic form that materializes aesthetics. Ecstatic Consumption: The Spectacle of Global Dystopia in Contemporary American Literature investigates not only how these transformations affect gender, racial and class relations as well as how they impact the representation of historical events. Pop culture, media and discourses of multiculturalism both important venues of and vehicles for globalization have had an extensive effect on contemporary writers like Don DeLillo, Marge Piercy and Jane Smiley as have the discourses of terrorism and assimilation on the works of Diana Abu Jaber, Chang Rae Lee, Shalom Auslander and Alissa Torres. As the works of these authors show, the tendency to unify the world as a global village has been frequently complicit in perpetuating oppressive neo-colonial ideologies. As these writers reveal, literature no longer provides a solid cure for the somnambulist culture of instant gratification. On the global stage, the body becomes the ultimate commodity, the fetish of ecstatic consumption as it is persistently mobilized by the search for ecstatic avatar anti-forms. Whether these forms provide an escape into a utopian space or further enhance the dystopian ecstasy is a crucial query framing this book. As it shows, the works of DeLillo, Smiley, Piercy, Abu Jaber, Lee, Auslander and Torres provide important and challenging commentaries on the ecstatic gaze of global dystopia, particularly its appetite for alterity and the tragic often disguised as interchangeable metaphors of Otherness, fear, anxiety, terror, pain and pleasure, titillation, exoticism.

and ecstasy Consequently the book sheds light on the ways in which the culture of spectacle is ever evolving manipulating and affecting the global dependence on the ecstasy of consumption and its many different forms Love's Obsession
