Behind Closed Doors Carla Cassidy, 2000 Behind Closed Doors by Carla Cassidy released on Feb 22 1997 is available now for purchase. Behind Closed Doors Monia Hejaiej, 1996. Tunisia has a long history of city life reaching back to ancient times. The Arabic language is firmly rooted among its inhabitants and most embrace the morals and culture of Islam. Behind Closed Doors presents forty seven tales told by three Beldi women members of a historic and highly civilized community. The city's traditional elite tale telling is important to all Beldi women and the book examines its role in their shared world and its significance in the lives of the three tellers. Tales are told at communal gatherings to share and pass on Beldi women's secret lore of love marriage and destiny. Ghaya, Sa-diyya and Kheira tell stories which echo their life experience and have deep meanings for them. Their tales reflect accepted moral codes and yet many depict attitudes, relationships and practices that contradict established norms. Whereas Kheira presents a conservative and moralistic view of the role of women, Sa-diyya's heroines are alive with sexual energy and Ghaya's stories also offer racy and rebellious comments on a woman's lot. These contradictory visions offer a kaleidoscopic view of the position of women in the rich life of a historic North African city.

However, their victory is short-lived, as they receive a threatening message leading them to discover a larger plot involving a politician. The group agrees to help the police by infiltrating the politician's team. They face their fears and gather information, ultimately uncovering a plan to poison the city's water supply. They confront the politician and force them to shut down the meat industry.
