Surviving Grief ... and Learning to Live Again Catherine M. Sanders, 2015-08-13 An insightful compassionate account of the grieving process that helps us through the pain and isolation experienced with the loss of a loved one We're never really prepared for the loss of someone we love Thrown into a state of emotional chaos we experience rage guilt anxiety and intense sadness all at once It's the oldest story in the world we tell ourselves millions of people have had to cope with this before and yet we always believe that what we are experiencing is unique to us We feel isolated in our anguish and often ashamed of what we are feeling A profoundly compassionate and insightful book Surviving Grief Learning to Live Again offers you the support and understanding you need to get you through this difficult time Written by Dr Catherine Sanders a therapist and researcher specializing in bereavement issues and one who has lived through the loss of close family members it helps you to see that what you are feeling is part of a natural process of readjustment and renewal According to Dr Sanders grieving like any other natural regenerative process must be allowed to run its proper course if we are ever to regain our equilibrium and continue on with our lives To help us better understand the process she describes the five universal phases of grief Shock Awareness of Loss Conservation and The Need to Withdraw Healing and Renewal and guides us through each Drawing directly from her own experiences and those of her clients and her research studies she delves deeply and compassionately into the different experiences of grief and talks about what it means to lose a mate a parent or a child And she discusses the factors that can have an influence on the grieving process such as age gender and the circumstances surrounding the loved one's death

Sing A New Song Bernard Smith, 2014-02-07 In this exciting new spin on the memoir Bernie Smith takes the opportunity of a world cruise with his beloved wife Judy to reflect on his past his professional success and his personal philosophy on life and faith both in quiet moments by himself and in conversations with fellow passengers on the trip From a hard scrabble upbringing on Long Island Smith eventually became a great success in the field of computer programming It all started when he was accepted into Fairfield Prep in Connecticut

Living Loving and Learning Leo F. Buscaglia, 1985-10-12 LIVING LOVING AND LEARNING is a delightful collection of Dr Buscaglia's informative and amusing lectures which were delivered worldwide between 1970 and 1981 This inspirational treasure is for all those eager to accept the challenge of life and to profit from the wonder of love An investment in life is an investment in change When you are changing all the time you've got to continue to keep adjusting for change which means that you are going to be constantly facing new obstacles That's the joy of living And once you are involved in the process of becoming there is no stopping You're doomed You're gone But what a fantastic journey I think the loving person must return to spontaneity return to touching each other to holding each other to smiling at each other to thinking of each other to caring about each other Hugs are good they feel nice and if you don't believe it try it We've got to learn to trust again to believe again Of course it's a risk but everything is a risk We need to begin to go beyond just being again We've got to get in touch with being human and there's a difference
