Hobfoll,Marten W. de Vries,2013-06-29 Extreme Stress and Communities Impact and Intervention is the first volume to address traumatic stress from a community perspective The authors drawn from among the world s leaders in psychology psychiatry and anthropology examine how extreme stress such as war disasters and political upheaval interact in their effects on individuals families and communities The book is rich in both theoretical insight and practical experience It informs readers about how to adopt a community perspective and how to apply this perspective to policy research and intervention Purpose for Living Elizabeth Iyadi Abaye,2016-04-27 Elizabeth I Abaye has yet brought to us the undiluted Word of God The book PURPOSE FOR LIVING exposes Gods original master plan for the human race it brings to mind Gods purpose and mans duty to them Everyone created has a purpose God has put a gift or talent in everyone that will impact the world Through this gift one is able to walk in purpose and fulfill his or her mission on earth One can only find real fulfillment in purpose by exercising this great potential deposited in them It is expected of us all to live a purpose motivated life thereby bringing glory to the father who designed us with such a great purpose A purpose motivated life will achieve all that is deposited in him or her Your life can never be the same when you discover Gods purpose for your existence Regional Mortality Differences in Germany Eva U.B. Kibele,2012-10-01 Regional mortality differences are one dimension of health inequalities but its trends and determinants in Germany are widely unknown This book examines and illustrates patterns of regional mortality in Germany with focus on small area differentials and their changes over time It identifies explanatory factors at individual and regional level Mortality differences between eastern and western Germany exist but small area mortality differentials are often greater Though the main spatial mortality patterns remain this study provides evidence that some distinct changes in the small area mortality patterns in Germany especially among women occurred within a short period of time Mortality inequalities at younger ages and in behavior related causes as well as differences in socioeconomic conditions contribute strongly to regional mortality differences in Germany The book shows that the complex interplay between individual and regional level mortality risk factors requires a multidimensional approach to reduce regional mortality inequalities Red Holocaust Steven Rosefielde, 2009-12-16 Twentieth and twenty first century communism is a failed experiment in social engineering that needlessly killed approximately 60 million people and perhaps tens of millions more These high crimes against humanity constitute a Red Holocaust that exceeds the combined carnage of the French Reign of Terror Ha Shoah Showa Japan s Asian holocaust and all combat deaths in World War I and II This fascinating book investigates high crimes against humanity in the Soviet Union eastern and central Europe North Korea China Vietnam Laos and Cambodia 1929 2009 and compares the results with Ha Shoah and the Japanese Asian Holocaust As in other studies blame is ascribed to political ideological and personal causes but special emphasis is given to internal contradictions in Marx s utopian model as well as Stalinist and post Stalinist transition systems concocted to realize communist ends This faulty economic engineering forms a bridge to the larger issue of communism s historical failure The book includes a comprehensive study of the transcommunist holocaust a judicial assessment of holocaust culpability and special pleadings an obituary for Stalinism everywhere except North Korea and a death watch for contemporary communism in China Vietnam Laos Cambodia North Korea Cuba and Nepal a comparative assessment of totalitarian high crimes against humanity a call for memory as a defense against recurrent economic racial and ethnic holocausts The book will be useful to undergraduate and higher level students interested in Russian history Stalinism communism North and South Korean economic performance and international affairs Steven Rosefielde is a Professor of Economics at the University of North Carolina Chapel Hill and a member of the Russian Academy of Natural Sciences

A Quantitative Analysis of Regional Well-Being Vani Kant Borooah, 2020-10-14 Using data from the World Values Survey this book sheds light on the link between happiness and the social group to which one belongs The work is based on a rigorous statistical analysis of differences in the probability of happiness and life satisfaction between the predominant social group and subordinate groups The cases of India and South Africa receive deep attention in dedicated chapters on cast and race with other chapters considering issues such as cultural bias religion patriarchy and gender An additional chapter offers a global perspective On top of this the longitudinal nature of the data facilitates an examination of how world happiness has evolved between 1994 and 2014 This book will be a valuable reference for advanced students scholars and policymakers involved in development economics well being development geography and sociology
