transformation of classes into masses and the use of propaganda in dealing with the nontotalitarian world and in her brilliant concluding chapter she analyzes the nature of isolation and loneliness as preconditions for total domination The most original and profound therefore the most valuable political theoretician of our times Dwight Macdonald The New Leader     Angels of the Resistance Noelle Salazar,2022-11-29 For fans of All the Light We Cannot See and The Tattooist of Auschwitz Angels of the Resistance brings to life a deadly effective and deeply moving sisterhood Kate Quinn New York Times bestselling author of The Rose Code From the bestselling author of The Flight Girls comes a story inspired by true events about courageous women who risked everything for country for family and for each other Netherlands 1940 As bombs fall across Europe fourteen year old Lien Vinke fears that the reality of war is inescapable Though she lives a quiet life with her mother and older sister Elif in their small town of Haarlem they are no strangers to heartache having recently suffered an immeasurable loss And when the Nazis invade the Netherlands joining the Dutch resistance with Elif offers just the atonement Lien craves Trained to shoot by their late father the sisters are deadly wolves in sheep s clothing They soon find themselves entrenched in the underground movement forging friendships with the other young recruits and Lien even discovers a kindred spirit in a boy named Charlie But in wartime emotional attachments are a liability she can t afford especially when a deeply personal mission jeopardizes everything she holds dear her friendships her family and her one shot at redemption This story of two teenage sisters who risk everything to join the Dutch Resistance is a dazzling tour de force Karen Robards bestselling author of The Black Swan of Paris Don t miss Noelle Salazar s next sweeping story THE LIES WE LEAVE BEHIND where a fearless nurse must leave love behind when duty calls her back to the front More from Noelle Salazar The Roaring Days of Zora Lily The Flight Girls     Indomitable Will Charles Kupfer,2012-04-05 Some of the worst military disasters in U S history occurred between Pearl Harbor on December 7 1941 and the Battle of Midway in June 1942 During this period the American people faced a barrage of bad news and accounts of defeats and retreats Yet if they were shocked and dismayed they showed little panic Indomitable Will resurrects the legacy of this first half year of American combat during WWII a legacy of pain but not of woe Historian Charles Kupfer recounts the story of the war s early defeats Bataan Corregidor Wake Island and the Java Sea Some of these battles remain evocative today others are obscure all were catastrophes for American arms Kupfer asserts however that later victories were made inevitable by the steeling effect of those initial disasters Weaving together military journalistic political and cultural histories this engaging book shows that by setting their collective will on victory Americans in and out of uniform gained strength from their setbacks Indomitable Will spells out how the nation turned early defeat into ultimate victory     Eichmann in Jerusalem Hannah Arendt,2006-09-22 The controversial journalistic analysis of the mentality that fostered the Holocaust from the author of The Origins of Totalitarianism Sparking a flurry of heated debate Hannah Arendt s authoritative and stunning report on the trial of German Nazi leader Adolf Eichmann first appeared as a series of articles in The New Yorker in 1963 This revised edition includes material that came to light after the trial as well as Arendt's postscript directly addressing the controversy that arose over her account. A major journalistic triumph by an intellectual of singular influence, Eichmann in Jerusalem is as shocking as it is informative: an unflinching look at one of the most unsettling and unsettled issues of the twentieth century. World Without Civilization Robert Melvin Spector, 2005. This work, a two-volume set, is the result of over ten years of research in western Europe. It is not only a historical account of the Holocaust but also an analysis of how, when, where, and why it took place. As a sub-theme and perhaps just as important is the realization that what happened originally to the Armenians at the start of the 20th century and continued with the Jews of Europe was experimentation in the settling of problems with minorities by means of genocide. This history and analysis of the Holocaust serves as a warning that genocide is becoming a worldwide technique and method of domestic policy.

The One from the Other Philip Kerr, 2009-02-03. In the fourth mystery in Philip Kerr's New York Times bestselling series, Bernie Gunther, a former policeman and reluctant SS officer, attempts to start over in the aftermath of World War 2 and quickly learns that the past is never far behind you. Berlin 1949. Amid the chaos of defeat, Germany is a place of dirty deals, rampant greed, and fleeing Nazis. For Bernie Gunther, Berlin has become far too dangerous. After being forced to serve in the SS in the killing fields of Ukraine, Bernie has moved to Munich to reestablish himself as a private investigator. Business is slow, and his funds are dwindling when a woman hires him to investigate her husband's disappearance. No, she doesn't want him back; he's a war criminal. She merely wants confirmation that he is dead. It's a simple job, but in postwar Germany, nothing is simple; nothing is what it appears to be. Accepting the case, Bernie takes on far more than he'd bargained for, and before long he is on the run, facing enemies from every side.

Intermezzo of the Longing Hearts Roberto de Haro, 2006-12. A sprawling saga illuminating the interregnum between World Wars I and II, Quentin's French lover Nadine emerges as an expansive and fearless character. She becomes an important player in the quiet, secret initial resistance to Hitler's ethnic cleansing. Cheryl Fields, writer and managing editor of Change Magazine. A fascinating read. Haro's sequel to Twist of Fate follows Nadine and Quentin during the tumultuous years 1919 to 1939. Their love affair continues during the Roaring Twenties, the Great Depression, and emerging European Fascism. Before getting together, World War II begins, promising them a collision course with destiny. I. M. Heyman, former Chancellor, University of California, Berkeley, and former Secretary, Smithsonian Institution. Haro's sequel to Twist of Fate continues Nadine and Quentin's love story. They find temporary happiness but face great challenges in this literate, fascinating novel of pre-World War II international intrigue, and behind the scenes politics make this an important historical novel. Colleen Rae, author of Nearly Naked and Correspondent, Local Observer, Saugatuck, MI. The adventure continues, and so does the entrancing reading. Fans of Twist of Fate will be delighted to explore Nadine and Quentin's world. Those who didn't read it should finish Intermezzo and read the first book as a prequel. Juan Mestas, Chancellor, University of Michigan, Flint.

Cultural Memories Peter Meusburger, Michael Heffernan, Edgar Wunder, 2011-05-11. The revival of interest in collective cultural memories since the 1980s has been a genuinely global phenomenon Cultural memories can be defined as the social constructions of the past that allow individuals and groups to orient themselves in time and space The investigation of cultural memories has necessitated an interdisciplinary perspective though geographical questions about the spaces places and landscapes of memory have acquired a special significance The essays in this volume written by leading anthropologists geographers historians and psychologists open a range of new interpretations of the formation and development of cultural memories from ancient times to the present day The volume is divided into five interconnected sections The first section outlines the theoretical considerations that have shaped recent debates about cultural memory The second section provides detailed case studies of three key themes the founding myths of the nation state the contestation of national collective memories during periods of civil war and the oral traditions that move beyond national narrative The third section examines the role of World War II as a pivotal episode in an emerging European cultural memory The fourth section focuses on cultural memories in postcolonial contexts beyond Europe The fifth and final section extends the study of cultural memory back into premodern tribal and nomadic societies
