not forming part of the original series have been added for the sake of completeness and the whole it is hoped will be found to derive elucidation and value from the copious illustrative Memoirs for which I am responsible It is well to record in the interests of bibliography that there has been a previous republication both in part and in entirety of this interesting series So far back as 1833 the portraits of which the Gallery then consisted to the number of thirty four were reissued by the proprietors in a handsome quarto volume A very limited number of the edition was printed at two guineas each plain proofs with twenty four copies on Indian paper at three guineas The publication was announced with the statement that the Drawings were destroyed immediately after their first appearance and not one had been suffered to get abroad detached from the Magazine However this may have been the collection good as far as it went contained little more than a third of the entire series as given in this volume it was unaccompanied by explanatory text and has become from its restricted issue and the destruction of numerous copies by the Grangerites of the day in booksellers lingo difficult of procuration About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
