Generalist Social Work Practice Janice Gasker, 2018-11-06. Generalist Social Work Practice provides students with the foundational skills and knowledge needed to serve clients across micro mezzo and macro areas of practice. Author Janice Gasker brings a focus on self reflection as the first stage in the planned change process and writes with the perspective that we consider work at all levels of practice simultaneously rather than in isolation. In accordance with the 2015 Educational Policy and Accreditation Standards EPAS set forth by the Council of Social Work Education CSWE the planned change process is presented as dynamic and interactive providing students with a clear understanding of how each stage of the planned change process can be utilized at any point when serving a client system. The text spotlights the distinctive characteristics of the worker their values attitudes and experiences that may influence client interaction. The text also includes case studies collaborative learning exercises and critical thinking questions to help students apply concepts to practice.

Instructor's Edition for Understanding Generalist Practice Kirst-Ashman, 2001-07. Macro Skills Workbook Karen Kay Kirst-Ashman, Grafton H. Hull, 2001. This workbook provides a wide range of exercises role playing activities and case scenarios to help students practice specific macro skills. The text's versatility allows it to be the primary text in a practice course or as a supplement to accompany other macro theory texts especially GENERALIST PRACTICE WITH ORGANIZATIONS AND COMMUNITIES 2nd by the same authors. The authors integrate macro development for field internships as well as enhance macro skill development for social workers in the field. Specific macro practice skills are presented in a straightforward manner and both applications to actual macro practice situations and the importance of client system strengths are emphasized throughout.
