portrayals of women's friendships in fiction, letters, and film; these essays collectively suggest new models of literary interpretation that do not prioritize heterosexual romance. Instead, this book represents friendships as mature and meaningful relationships that contribute to identity formation and political coalition. Both the supportive and competitive aspects of friendships are shown to be crucial to women's identities as individuals, political citizens, and artists. Addressing the complexities of how 20th and 21st century cultural texts construe women's friendships as they navigate patriarchal institutions, this collection advances scholarship on friendship beyond men and masculine models. American Book Publishing Record, 2006

Minding the Light Anne French Dalke, 2004 This book presents a series of thoughtful and revealing reflections excerpted from the inner and outer lives of college teachers from which emerges a common concern for the interactive and spiritual dimensions of the educational process and a rich sense of the light which can and should illuminate it. Informed either by personal commitment to Quakerism or by individual work within Quaker institutions, the contributors offer perspectives that are important for teachers, parents, and readers generally interested in the classroom experience as a process of growth and exploration. Minding the Light provides an inspiring outline of friendly pedagogy which deeply respects individual uniqueness while awakening learners to their active involvements with larger communities.
