Laird, 2019-05-03 Whether or not the U S is in decline can be debated but there is evidence that its political system is becoming less able to solve major problems This is in part because loyalty to a belief or an ideology may be taking priority over learning how to understand the problems This work attempts to revitalize the importance of learnability by reviewing some fundamentals of who we are how the system works and why learning is difficult Humans driven by opinions and perceptions tend to discount politics similar to the way they might discount science yet it was the study of science and politics that brought much of mankind to remarkably higher standards of living Government and the economic system it implemented was initially designed for the purpose of channeling self interests into public benefits Understanding what an inclusive political culture is or why there is a Constitution for example could be useful toward restoring the credibility of our central political organization the core of society's stability and development We are losing respect for our government's decision making ability but in a democracy citizens must be held more accountable for who their government is The hypothesis is that if more humans are more learnable we will increase the possibilities for finding the best solutions to big problems Shadows at the Spring Show Lea Wait, 2012-08-07 She's an antique print dealer a college professor and now a parent Maggie Summer is considering adopting a child from the New Jersey agency Our World Our Children and she has happily agreed to stage a benefit antiques show on their behalf With her dealer friends her college and her lover Will Brewer all donating their time and support everything is falling into place But someone is harboring a vicious grudge against Our World Our Children The adoptive mother of thirteen children is the first victim and then Maggie begins receiving threats With the crowded benefit set to open and hundreds of innocent lives at stake Maggie races to preserve the future with a clue hidden in her prints from the past Shadows Brenda Davis, 2012-07-17 Shadows are created when the light is blocked by an obstacle producing areas of darkness Shadows can represent dark places where people hide things they do not want to take responsibility for Things such as child abuse spousal abuse alcohol abuse substance abuse mental illness Every family has secrets but some have dark dangerous secrets that physically or mentally cripple those around them The only way to address these things is by bringing them into the light Individuals also create shadows in their mind in order to hide painful memories of unacceptable behavior or trauma that they have suffered These memories can reappear at any time and the pain can be devastating again This story spans three generations of women mother daughter and granddaughter They all three had black hair emerald green eyes and shared a predisposition for mental illness which are all hereditary traits The era that each lived had a significant impact on the problems that they had passed to each other Mental illness in the 1930s was lumped into one category Bess born in this time was hidden away to conceal her mental illness that was spiraling downward into complete insanity Jane Bess's daughter was born late in Bess's life Jane's mental illness began to surface as a teenager and brought destructive behavior that affected many people adversely and forever changed their future Jane's daughter Lily was raised in the shadow of alcohol addiction child abuse her mother's partner abuse and murder Lily had to pull herself out of dire circumstances while she dealt with the possibility that she might have a form of mental illness Lily was blessed with an angel in the form of a lonely widow who gave her the tools she needed to lead a normal life She also experienced the unconditional love and devotion that came from a dog that wandered into her life
