Raising Our Voices Duane Poncy, Patricia J. McLean, 2003 Identity Papers Jeffrey Ethan Lee, 2006 Poetry Asian American Studies In the aftermath of a random act of violence Lee has found it necessary to create new forms of language that were as visceral as they were lyrical as brutal as they were intellectual from the Author's Preface At once dramatist poet and storyteller Lee explores the bewilderment of the modern world and consciousness The poem's speaker is seriously hurt yet passersby ignore him and the police mistake him for the perpetrator In this circumstance Lee shows what it means to assert one's identity to live with and be close to others while remaining true to oneself a heroic undertaking for any writer in this day Thaddeus Rutkowski The title poem has been written and recorded as a full length dramatic poem for two voices yet the visual experience of the poem is a critical one Will's Commentary on the New Testament, Volume 7: I-II Corinthians Harold E. Will, The Crooked Inheritance Marge Piercy, 2013-08-28 An exquisite spot on The Hudson Review collection of poems from one of our best loved and best selling poets that is both personal with poetry about love nature and reflections on the stages of life and political ranging from the war in Iraq and Katrina to concerns such as women's rights and the poet's childhood in Detroit The Weatherwomen Mona Rocha, 2020-03-04 Assertive tough and idealistic the Weatherwomen members of the Weather Underground Organization WUO from the late 1960s were determined to stamp out sexism and social injustice They asserted that militancy was necessary in the pursuit of a socialist revolution that would produce gender racial and class equality This book excavates their long buried history and reclaims the voices of the Weatherwomen The Weatherwomen's militant feminism had many facets It criticized the role of women in the home was concerned with the subordination of women to men attacked the gender pay gap and supported female bodily integrity The Weatherwomen also refined their own feminist ideology into an intersectional one that would incorporate multiple identity perspectives beyond the white American middle class perspective In shaping a feminist vision for the WUO the Weatherwomen dealt with sexism within their own organization and were dismissed by some feminist groups of the time as inauthentic This work strives to recognize the WUO's militant feminist efforts and the agency autonomy and empowerment of its female members by concentrating on their actions and writings Denver Municipal Facts, 1910 Modern Painters: Part V. Of mountain beauty John Ruskin, 1903 Sleep Fictions Hannah L. Huber, 2023-11-21 The literary response to the dawning cult of wakefulness A turn of the century influx of new technologies and the enormous impact of the electric light transformed not only individual sleeping habits but the ways American culture conceived and valued sleep Hannah L. Huber analyzes the works of Henry James Edith Wharton Charles Chesnutt and Charlotte Perkins Gilman to examine the literary response to the period's obsession with wakefulness As these writers blurred the separation of public and private space their characters faced exhaustion in a modern world that permeated every moment of their lives with artificial light traffic noise and the social pressure to remain active at all hours The implacable cultural clock and constant stress over physical limitations had an even greater impact on marginalized figures Huber pays particular attention to how these writers rebutted Americans confidence in the body's ability to conquer sleep with vivid portraits of the devastating consequences of sleep disruption and deprivation The author also provides a website and text visualization tool that offers readers an interdisciplinary deconstructed analysis of the book's primary texts The website can be found at <https://sleepfictions.org/sleep-scalar/index>
