Drawing on ethnographic research spanning ten years Antoinette Elizabeth DeNapoli offers a new perspective on the practice of asceticism in India today Her work brings to light the little known and often marginalized lives of female Hindu ascetics sadhus in the North Indian state of Rajasthan Examining the everyday religious worlds and practices of the mostly unlettered female sadhus who come from a number of castes Real Sadhus Sing to God illustrates that these women experience asceticism in relational and celebratory ways They construct their lives as paths of singing to God which the author suggests serves as the female way of being an ascetic Examining the relationship between asceticism sannyas and devotion bhakti in contemporary contexts the book brings together two disparate fields of study yoga asceticism and bhakti using the singing of bhajans devotional songs as an orienting metaphor This is the first book length study to explore the ways in which female sadhus perform and thus create gendered views of asceticism through their singing storytelling and sacred text practices which DeNapoli characterizes as their rhetoric of renunciation Dreams Designed by God for You Betty

The Novel Map Patrick M. Bray,2013-01-31 Focusing on Stendhal G rard de Nerval George Sand mile Zola and Marcel Proust The Novel Map Mapping the Self in Nineteenth Century French Fiction explores the ways that these writers represent and negotiate the relationship between the self and the world as a function of space in a novel turned map With the rise of the novel and of autobiography the literary and cultural contexts of nineteenth century France reconfigured both the ways literature could represent subjects and the ways subjects related to space In the first person works of these authors maps situate the narrator within the imaginary space of the novel Yet the time inherent in the text s narrative unsettles the spatial self drawn by the maps and so creates a novel self one which is both new and literary The novel self transcends the rigid confines of a map In this significant study Patrick M Bray charts a new direction in critical theory
