Maples And The Stream A Narrative Poem:

□□□ Lien Chao,1999 This long narrative poem in English and Chinese follows one woman s journey from China to Canada over four decades In these pages the two languages sit side by side mirroring each other each telling a tale that alternates between confusion and despair and hopes and dreams Lien Chao depicts the struggle of a generation in its persistent search for freedom and for free artistic expression This book is a personal epic a mixture of lyric and narrative that joins Lien Chao s Chinese past with her Canadian present and future The intensity of its joy and pain its two worlds caught in two languages makes it a fascinating and unique creation David Helwig Lien Chao s Maples and the Stream is an intensely truthful and engaging poem that crosses back and forth the nebulous border of diasporic encounter and identity This is a hybrid text that poses the in between places of a translational attention and offers us concrete touchstones of history person and desire The maple is surely a more palpable tree for Lien Chao s lyrical honesty Fred Wah
