Marakwet Of Kenya A Preliminary Study:

The Marakwet of Kenya B. E. Kipkorir, Frederick Burkewood Welbourn, 2008 The Marakwet of Kenya is a study of a sub group of the greater Kalenjin community the majority of whom live in the Rift Valley Province of Kenya It is an excellent introduction to the study of an African community in transition both from its belief systems and in its broad structure and organisation This work is invaluable to any student of comparative studies whether in sociology anthropology economics or The Marakwet of Kenya Benjamin E. Kipkorir, Frederick Burkewood Welbourn, 1977 The Marakwet of Kenya Marakwet Samuel K. Elolia, 2024-04-15 This book attempts to provide an ethnography of the Ben E. Kipkorir, 2008 Marakwet and its encounter with colonizers and missionaries The core of the book concerns the formation of the Marakwet person through the rites of passage Indeed cultural education is critical in establishing a socially mature identity By virtue of repetition humans connect to the past and create a continuum Also through rituals the world is no longer an opaque mass of objects arbitrarily thrown together but a living cosmos that can be intelligible and significant It explains why things exist and to what ends At the same time through rituals new ideas are given new interpretations. The missionary colonizing project unsuccessfully tried to dislodge such traditions The African tradition is the context from which most Christians come and to which many still practice to some degree It is therefore necessary for both Marakwet and Christian tradition to interact The book highlights the concept of inculturation as a viable resource in helping Christianity engage the culture with minimal disruptions Kenya's Running Women Michelle M Sikes, 2023-12-01 Since Pauline Konga's breakthrough performance at the 1996 summer Olympics in Atlanta the world has become accustomed to seeing Kenyan women medal at major championships sweep marathons and set world records Yet little is known about the pioneer generation of women who paved the way for Kenya's reputation as an international powerhouse in women's track and field In Kenya's Running Women A History historian and former professional runner Michelle M Sikes details the triumphs and many challenges these women faced from the advent of Kenya's athletics program in the colonial era through the professionalization of running in the 1980s and 1990s Sikes reveals how over time running became a vehicle for Kenyan women to expand the boundaries of acceptable female behavior Kenya's Running Women demonstrates the necessity of including women in histories of African sport and of incorporating sport into studies of African gender and nation building Resilience and Collapse in African Savannahs Michael Bollig, David M. Anderson, 2018-10-11 This book assesses the causes and consequences of environmental change in East Africa asking whether local African communities are sufficiently resilient to cope with the ecological and social challenges that confront them It focuses on the savannahs of the Baringo Bogoria basin and the surrounding highlands of Kenya's northern Rift Valley that form the social ecological system of the specialised cattle pastoralists and niche agricultural farmers who occupy these semi arid lands Historical studies of resilience spanning the past two centuries are linked with analysis of current environmental challenges and the ecological social economic and political responses mounted by local communities The authors question whether the most recent challenges confronting the peoples of eastern Africa's savannahs intensified conflicts mounting poverty driven by demographic pressures and dramatic ecological changes brought by invasive species might soon led to a collapse in essential elements of the specialised cattle pastoralism that dominates the region requiring a re orientation of the social ecological system This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal Kenya's Uncertain Democracy Peter Kagwanja, Roger Southall, 2013-09-13 The plunging of of Eastern African Studies Kenya until recently a centre of stability and growth in East Africa into political and economic uncertainty following the general election of December 2007 is regarded as a major cause for global and African concern It is widely accepted that the elections were deeply flawed and that there was electoral malfeasance by all the major players President Kibaki s rapid declaration of victory in the face of a heavily disputed election and his determination to hold on to the levers of state power precipitated a deadly crisis communal violence and economic decline A power sharing deal between Kibaki and Opposition leader Raila Odinga signed in February seems to be holding but Kenya ranks among the worlds growing number of democracies at risk This book takes a new look at the 2007 election the post election crisis the underlying interaction of ethnicity class and political power forced displacement the role of international forces and the country's power sharing arrangement The study will draw upon the expertise of a variety of leading experts on Kenya and will be edited by Peter Kagwanja and Roger Southall The overall project was based on a workshop in Nairobi on 6 7 December 2008 This book was published as a special issue of the Journal of Contemporary African Studies The Marakwet of Kenya Benjamin G. Kipkorir, Fred B. Welbourn, 1981 Prosperity in the Twenty-First Century Henrietta L. Moore, Matthew Davies, Nikolay Mintchev, Saffron Woodcraft, 2023-06-22 Prosperity in the Twenty First Century sets out a new vision for prosperity in the twenty first century and how it can be achieved for all The volume challenges orthodox understandings of economic models but goes beyond contemporary debates to show how social innovation drives economic value Drawing on substantive research in the UK Lebanon and Kenya it develops new concepts frameworks models and metrics for prosperity across a wide range of contexts emphasising commonalities and differences Its distinctive approach goes beyond defining and measuring prosperity addressing the debate about the failures of GDP to formulating and describing what is needed to make prosperity a realisable proposition for specific people living in specific locales Departing from general propositions about post growth to delineate pathways to prosperity the volume emphasises that visions of the good life are diverse and require empirical work co designed with local communities and stakeholders to drive change It is essential reading for policymakers who are stuck local government officers who need new tools activists who wonder what is next academics in need of refreshment and students and people of all ages who want a way forward Commodities and Globalization Angelique Haugerud, Margaret Priscilla Stone, Peter D. Little, 2000 Today's growing fascination with flows of people commodities technology capital images and ideas across national and other boundaries poses fresh theoretical and methodological challenges to anthropology Commodities offer a particularly useful window on globalization because they unlike electronically conveyed capital transport cultural messages These ideological or symbolic transfers are of particular interest to economic anthropology This collection considers how conceptions and roles of commodities may change in response to widening spheres of economic interaction and exchange The essays in this volume are ordered under two themes Those included in the first section Commodities in a Globalizing Marketplace address historically and culturally defined variations in meanings and practices associated with commodities in globalizing markets In Part Two The Circulation and Revaluation of Commodities contributors analyze how commodity producers experiences are informed by colonial and post colonial history state directives in the marketplace and locations in dependent or marginalized regions. The chapters all focus on the production process as it responds to is distorted by and increasingly is controlled by the determination of the value of those commodities outside a locality The Oxford Handbook of Kenyan Politics Nic Cheeseman, Karuti Kanyinga, Gabrielle Lynch, 2020 The Oxford Handbook of Kenyan Politics provides a comprehensive and comparative overview of the Kenyan political system as well as an insightful account of Kenyan history from 1930 to the present day Language and the Law Monwabisi K. Ralarala, Russell H. Kaschula, Georgina Heydon, 2022-06-14 Language and the Law Global Perspectives in Forensic Linguistics from Africa and beyond is the third volume in a series of books designed to contribute and respond to growing interest in forensic linguistics or language and the law on the African continent Drawing mostly on contexts where traditional African laws and Western laws are practised side by side and where there are discontinuities between local knowledge systems belief systems and language practices on the one hand and official languages of law discourse conceptualisation and jurisprudence documentation on the other the chapters in this volume problematise among other issues the mediation practices or lack thereof of language and legal processes discourse strategies and complexities in mis interpretations in second language court contexts and the miscarriage of justice that these may entail Historical Studies and Social Change in Western Kenya William Robert Ochieng', 2002 Water is Life Anne Hellum.Patricia Kameri-Mbote, 2015-10-19 This book approached water and sanitation as an African gender and human rights issue Empirical case studies from Kenya Malawi South Africa and Zimbabwe show how coexisting international national and local regulations of water and sanitation respond to the ways in which different groups of rural and urban women gain access to water for personal domestic and livelihood purposes The authors who are lawyers sociologists political scientists and anthropologists explore how women cope in contexts where they lack secure rights and participation in water governance institutions formal and informal The research shows how women as producers of family food rely on water from multiple sources that are governed by community based norms and institutions which recognise the right to water for livelihood How these common pool water resources due to protection gaps in both international and national law are threatened by large scale development and commercialisation initiatives facilitated through national permit systems is a key concern The studies demonstrate that existing water governance structures lack mechanisms which make them accountable to poor and vulnerable water users on the ground most importantly women The findings thus underscore the need to intensify measures to hold states accountable not just in water services provision but in assuring the basic human right to clean drinking water and sanitation and also to protect water for livelihoods African Archaeology Without Frontiers Chapurukha M Kusimba, Santores Tchandeu, Dirk Seidensticker, Adrianne Daggett, Marilee Wood, Laure Dussubieux, Tim Forssman, Kate Smuts, Nick Wiltshire, Akin Ogundiran, Matthew Davies, Caleb Adebayo Folorunso, Timothy Kipkeu Kipruto, Freda M'Mbogori, Henrietta L Moore, Emubosa Orijemie, Alex Schoeman, Festo W Gabriel, Elinaza Mjema, Philip de Barros, Gabriella Lucidi, Narcisse, 2016-12-01 Confronting national linguistic and disciplinary boundaries contributors to African Archaeology Without Frontiers argue against artificial limits and divisions created through the study of ages that in reality overlap and cannot and should not be understood in isolation Papers are drawn from the proceedings of the landmark 14th PanAfrican Archaeological Association Congress held in Johannesburg in 2014 nearly seven decades after the conference planned for 1951 was re located to Algiers for ideological reasons following the National Party s rise to power in South Africa Contributions by keynote speakers Chapurukha Kusimba and Akin Ogundiran encourage African archaeologists to practise an archaeology that collaborates across many related fields of study to enrich our understanding of the past The nine papers cover a broad geographical sweep by incorporating material on ongoing projects throughout the continent including South Africa Botswana Cameroon Togo Tanzania Kenya and Nigeria Thematically the papers included in the volume address issues of identity and interaction and the need to balance cultural heritage management and sustainable development derived from a continent racked by social inequalities and crippling poverty Edited by three leading archaeologists the collection covers many aspects of African archaeology and a range of periods from the earliest hominins to the historical period It will appeal to specialists and interested amateurs The Exploitation of Plant Resources in Ancient Africa Marijke van der Veen, 2013-06-29 This volume presents a completely new and very substantial body of information about the origin of agriculture and plant use in Africa All the evidence is very recent and for the first time all this archaeobotanical evidence is brought together in one volume at present the information is unpublished or published in many disparate journals confer ence reports monographs site reports etc Early publications concerned with the origins of African plant domestication relied almost exclusively on inferences made from the modem distribution of the wild progenitors of African cultivars there existed virtually no archaeobotanical data at that time Even as recently as the early 1990s direct evidence for the transition to farming and the relative roles of indigenous versus Near Eastern crops was lacking for most of Africa This volume changes that and presents a wide range of ex citing new evidence including case studies from Nigeria Burkina Faso Ethiopia Uganda Egypt and Sudan which range in date from 8000 BP to the present day The volume ad dresses topics such as the role of wild plant resources in hunter gatherer and farming com munities the origins of agriculture the agricultural foundation of complex societies long distance trade the exchange of foods and crops and the human impact on local vege tation all key issues of current research in archaeology anthropology agronomy ecol ogy and economic history Applied Ethnobotany Anthony B. Cunningham, 2014-10-14 Its wise and sensitive approach to working with local people will be relevant in situations throughout the world ECOS The numerous diagrams tables of data information flow charts fieldwork sketches etc give a great vibrancy to the work It deserves a wide readership TEG News Wild or non cultivated plants are crucial to the lives of a large portion of the world's population providing low cost building materials fuel food supplements medicines tools and sources of income Despite their importance their vulnerability to harvesting and other social impacts is not well understood Applied Ethnobotany is the first practical guide to be published on how to manage wild plant species sustainably This detailed manual on wild plant resources sets out the approaches and field methods involved in participatory work between conservationists researchers and the primary resource users Supported by extensive illustrations it explains how local people can learn to assess the pressures on plant resources and what steps to take to ensure their continued availability For all those involved in resource management decisions regarding plant species and diversity and in particular those studying or working in conservation rural development and park management this guide is invaluable Published with WWF UNESCO and Royal Botanic Gardens Kew

Nyame Akuma ,2006 Africanizing Knowledge Toyin Falola, 2017-11-30 Nearly four decades ago Terence Ranger questioned to what extent African history was actually African and whether methods and concerns derived from Western historiography were really sufficient tools for researching and narrating African history Despite a blossoming and branching out of Africanist scholarship in the last twenty years that guestion is still haunting The most prestigious locations for production of African studies are outside Africa itself and scholars still seek a solution to this paradox They agree that the ideal solution would be a flowering of institutions of higher learning within Africa which would draw not only Africanist scholars but also financial resources to the continent While the focus of this volume is on historical knowledge the effort to make African scholarship more African is fundamentally interdisciplinary. The essays in this volume employ several innovative methods in an effort to study Africa on its own terms The book is divided into four parts Part 1 Africanizing African History offers several diverse methods for bringing distinctly African modes of historical discourse to the foreground in academic historical research Part 2 African Creative Expression in Context presents case studies of African art literature music and poetry It attempts to strip away the exotic or primitivist aura such topics often accumulate when presented in a foreign setting in order to illuminate the social historical and aesthetic contexts in which these works of art were originally produced Part 3 Writing about Colonialism demonstrates that the study of imperialism in Africa remains a springboard for innovative work which takes familiar ideas about Africa and considers them within new contexts Part 4 Scholars and Their Work critically examines the process of African studies itself including the roles of scholars in the production of knowledge about Africa This timely and thoughtful volume will be of interest to African studies scholars and students who are concerned about the ways in which Africanist scholarship might become more African Managing Heritage, Making Peace Annie E. Coombes, Lotte Hughes, Karega Munene, 2019-12-26 Kenya stands at a crossroads in its history and heritage as the nation celebrates its fiftieth anniversary of independence from Britain in 2013 At this important juncture what parts of its history including the Mau Mau uprising do citizens and state wish to remember and commemorate and what is best forgotten or occluded What does heritage mean to ordinary Kenyans and what role does it play in building nationhood and forging peace and reconciliation Focusing on the 1990s to the present Managing Heritage Making Peace is a timely exploration of the ways in which Kenyans are engaging with the past in the present including such local initiatives as the community peace museums movement local and national monuments and other notable commemorative actions The authors show how Kenya is facing a continuing crisis over nationhood heritage memory and identity which must be resolved to achieve social cohesion and peace
