Hawthorne criticism to blur the distinction between symbolism and allegory Rejecting the long standing notion that Hawthorne is a symbolist in allegorical disguise Ull n argues that allegory is the key to understanding how religion sexuality aesthetics and politics are interwoven in Hawthorne s writings The study presents a model for allegorical interpretation of general applicability which is brought to bear on each of Hawthorne s mature romances and on the oft neglected Wonder Books written for children An unparalleled analysis of the formal intricacies of Hawthorne s writings this book is an eloquent plea for the necessity of grounding ideological analysis in aesthetical considerations The Marble Faun and A Green Bough William Faulkner,2011-12-14 Published early in the author s legendary career and collected here in a single illuminating volume these are William Faulkner s only two works of poetry The Marble Faun 1924 and A Green Bough 1933 These are primarily the poems of youth and a simple heart They are the poems of a mind that reacts directly to sunlight and trees and skies and blue hills reacts without evasion or self consciousness They are drenched in sunlight and color as is the land in which they were written the land which gave birth and sustenance to their author He has roots in this soil as surely and inevitably as has a tree The author of these poems is a man steeped in the soil of his native land a Southerner by every instinct and more than that a Mississippian George Moor sad that all universal art became great by first being provincial and the sunlight and mocking birds and blue hills of North Mississippi are a part of this young man s very being from the preface to The Marble Faun by Phil Stone The Marble Faun Illustrated by Nathaniel Hawthorne Nathaniel Hawthorne,2020-10-11 The Marble Faun Or The Romance of Monte Beni also known by the British title Transformation was the last of the four major romances by Nathaniel Hawthorne and was published in 1860 The Marble Faun written on the eve of the American Civil War is set in a fantastical Italy The romance mixes elements of a fable pastoral gothic novel and travel guide Pictures of Romance Wendy Steiner,1988 Wendy Steiner reveals an intricate exchange between the visual arts and the literary romance

The Poetics and Politics of the American Gothic Agnieszka Soltysik Monnet,2016-12-05 Taking as its point of departure recent insights about the performative nature of genre The Poetics and Politics of the American Gothic challenges the critical tendency to accept at face value that gothic literature is mainly about fear Instead Agnieszka Soltysik Monnet argues that the American Gothic and gothic literature in general is also about judgment how to judge and what happens when judgment is confronted with situations that defy its limits Poe Hawthorne Melville Gilman and James all shared a concern with the political and ideological debates of their time but tended to approach these debates indirectly Thus Monnet suggests while slavery and race are not the explicit subject matter of antebellum works by Poe and Hawthorne they nevertheless permeate it through suggestive analogies and tacit references Similarly Melville Gilman and James use the gothic to explore the categories of gender and sexuality that were being renegotiated during the latter half of the century Focusing on The Fall of the House of Usher The Marble Faun Pierre The Turn of the Screw and The Yellow Wallpaper Monnet brings to bear minor texts by the same authors that further enrich her innovative readings of these canonical works

At the same time her study persuasively argues that the Gothic's endurance and ubiquity are in large part related to its being uniquely adapted to rehearse questions about judgment and justice that continue to fascinate and disturb

The Marble Faun Nathaniel Hawthorne, 2019-07-15 The fragility and the durability of human life and art dominate this story of American expatriates in Italy in the mid nineteenth century Befriended by Donatello a young Italian with the classical grace of the Marble Faun Miriam Hilda and Kenyon find their pursuit of art taking a sinister turn as Miriam's unhappy past precipitates the present into tragedy Hawthorne's International Novel dramatizes the confrontation of the Old World and the New and the uncertain relationship between the authentic and the fake in life as in art The author's evocative descriptions of classic sites made The Marble Faun a favourite guidebook to Rome for Victorian tourists but this richly ambiguous symbolic romance is also the story of a murder and a parable of the Fall of Man As the characters find their civilized existence disrupted by the awful consequences of impulse Hawthorne leads his readers to question the value of Art and Culture and addresses the great evolutionary debate which was beginning to shake Victorian society

The Book of Esther and the Typology of Female Transfiguration in American Literature Ariel Clark Silver, 2017-11-30 The enduring search for female salvation in American literature is first expressed through typology an interpretive framework that pairs type with antitype historical scriptural promise with future spiritual fulfillment When Cotton Mather invokes the typos of Esther in Ornaments of the Daughters of Zion a Puritan conduct book he offers a female type of divine wisdom authority and force In the biblical Book of Esther Esther acts as a female type of wisdom and redemption but her story also engages the larger history of Hebrew salvation In nineteenth century America Margaret Fuller seeks to extend the spiritual claims once made by Mather and establish the role of the divine female in the salvation of American culture and society Fuller supplants the type of male sacrifice with a type of female transfiguration in works such as Woman in the Nineteenth Century Nathaniel Hawthorne then transforms these iconoclastic ideals into literary life by engaging the multi faceted figure of Esther as a typos of female redemption and salvation in Legends of the Province House The Scarlet Letter The Blithedale Romance and The Marble Faun Through his female characters Esther Dudley Hester Prynne Zenobia and Miriam he seeks to fulfill the divine destiny of the American woman Hawthorne discovers however that female redemption is followed by revenge as Esther turns from saving her people to ensuring an end to their oppression When Henry Adams later revives Esther Dudley in his novel Esther he rejects male redemption for the American woman In Democracy Esther Mont Saint Michel and The Education of Henry Adams Adams envisions an independent eternal woman who can rival the political scientific artistic and theological power of men The movement from male to female salvation is achieved when the terms of female redemption are transformed and the American woman is established as her own source of divine wisdom power retribution and force The typology of female transfiguration in America is fulfilled by Fuller Hawthorne and Adams through the promise extended by the type of Esther
