To Tell the Story C. Thomas Elkins,2011-02-10 Those of us hearing a Well Told Story may become more aware of the Implications of that story than by a mere recital of facts The use of the Story Form of relating an event may be the best method of capturing the signifi cance of the actual event In the understanding and presentation of the Christian faith Story is considered as a fundamental category of reality It is the perfect vehicle for presenting the Good News of the Gospel John Paul Roth The presentation of real events in story form preserves the remembrance of reality without limiting its implications to the mere recording of historical facts The Gospel story carries us beyond the realm of human understanding into the higher realm of faith The power of story assists us in bridging the gap between the inexplicable in the Gospel Story and the human experience This holds true with the stories which accompany and support the underlying Story of God in Jesus Christ True stories as is the Gospel Story will take precedence over stories told only for entertainment or to serve a specifi c agenda Yet even the stories of integrity and truth need to be told well and with skill This is discussed in detail herein As Theologians we must tell the Story with truth and understanding as Evangelists with persuasiveness and tolerance and as Preachers or Witnesses we must share the Story often convincingly and with Love Loving God loving each other and the Story never ends

Becoming Myself; Becoming His Kay Watson, 2009-10 Now with God s help I shall become myself Spiritual growth is a pursuit It does not happen naturally or without effort Just like the athlete who trains for a competition we too must train our hearts and minds to be like Jesus Our spiritual muscles like our physical ones become weak and ineffective when they are not stretched and exercised regularly Often Christians may find they are caught up in the generality of living a religious lifestyle but to truly become the Lord s we must give him time to work with us Our days may be so filled with activity and service that we seldom take the time to ask ourselves who it is that God created us to be If you long for the discipline order and focus that Christ speaks of in the Word then you are longing to discover who God created you to be See yourself through God s eyes in Becoming Myself Becoming His Author Kay Watson lives in Pensacola Florida with Scott her husband of twenty eight years and two sons She has taught in church for over twenty five years written curriculum for women and children and has served as the Women s Ministry Coordinator for the Gateway Church of Christ

The Challenge of the Silver Screen Freek L. Bakker, 2009 In 1897 only two years after the invention of film the first feature film about Jesus appeared This and other films about Jesus became examples for and an inspiration for films on other important religious figures like Rama Buddha and Muhammad Although religious leaders did not always approve of these films they did find a ready audience among believers This book explores these films and looks at how these films dealt with the fundamental question of portraying an individual thought to have either divine status or a very special and unique status among human beings This book will thus benefit not only students of religious film but also those studying the portrayal of central religious figures in the contemporary world
