Comic Medievalism Louise D'Arcens, 2014. The role of laughter and humour in the postmedieval citation, interpretation or recreation of the middle ages has hitherto received little attention, a gap in scholarship which this book aims to fill. Examining a wide range of comic texts and practices across several centuries from Don Quixote and early Chaucerian modernisation through to Victorian theatre, the Monty Python films, television and the experience of visiting sites of heritage tourism such as the Jorvik Viking Museum at York, it identifies what has been perceived as uniquely funny about the Middle Ages in different times and places and how this has influenced ideas not just about the medieval but also about modernity. Tracing the development and permutations of its various registers including satire, parody, irony, camp, wit, jokes and farce, the author offers fresh and amusing insight into comic medievalism as a vehicle for critical commentary on the present as well as the past and shows that for as long as there has been medievalism, people have laughed at and with the middle ages. Louise D'Arcens is Associate Professor in English Literatures at the University of Wollongong.

Mythologist in Microgroove Julianne VanWagenen, 2023-12-19. In Mythologist in Microgroove: A Study of Italian Myths and Cultural Shifts with Fabrizio De Andr  on Lead Vocals, author Julianne VanWagenen investigates the ways in which popular music as well as other popular genres engaged with and critiqued modern myth during years of cultural and political upheaval in Italy from the late 1960s to the mid 1980s. The Italian singer-songwriter Fabrizio De Andr  is the productive lens of the book as it considers the myths of the hanged man and the scaffold, the cowboy Jesus of Nazareth and Edgar Lee Masters's Fiddler Jones. Across four chapters, VanWagenen engages contemporary events and cultural contexts in Italy as well as abroad and interprets them through the lens of popular cultural productions She weaves the voices of Bob Dylan Francesco De Gregori Francesco Guccini Dario Fo Edgar Lee Masters among others with that of De Andr  to propose a new perspective on the countercultural years Across the study De Andr 's music arises as singularly profound and persistent in its critique of elements of western culture that have guided its trajectory since the late medieval period

The Shadow of the Precursor Nena Bierbaum, 2011-10-18 A shadow in its most literal sense is the projection of a silhouette against a surface and the obstruction of direct light from hitting that surface For writers and artists the shadows cast by their precursors can be either a welcome influence one consciously evoked in textual production via homage or bricolage or can manifest as an intrusive haunting prohibitive presence one which threatens to engulf the successor Many writers and artists are affected by an anxious and ambiguous relationship with their precursors while others are energised by this relationship The role that intertextuality plays in creative production invites interrogation and this publication explores a range of conscious and unconscious influences informing relations between texts and contexts between predecessors and successors The chapters revolve around intertextual influence ranging from conscious imitation and intentional allusion to Julia Kristeva's idea of intertextuality Do all texts contain references to and even quotations from other texts Do such references help shape how we read This multidisciplinary work includes chapters on the long shadows cast by Shakespeare Dante Scott Virgil and Ovid the shadows of colonial precursors on postcolonial successors the shadows cast over Kipling and Murdoch and chapters on other writers dramatists and filmmakers and their relationships with precursor figures With its focus on intertextual relationships this book contributes to the thriving fields of adaptation studies and studies of intertextuality

Europe on Stage Gunilla Anderman, 2017-03-22 For any play originating in a different culture and society to be favourably received in English translation timing and other factors of reception are often as important as the purely linguistic aspects This book focuses on the problems of reception and translation into English encountered by European playwrights now regularly staged at British theatres such as Ibsen Strindberg Chekhov Brecht Anouilh Lorca and Pirandello among others Introduced by discussions highlighting different approaches to translation in general and the difficulties inherent in the translation of drama in particular the book concludes by looking at what is lost in translation and the means by which adaptations and new versions may help to restore the balance
