War II saw skiing featured in a dozen films dealing with that conflict Fueled by postwar prosperity the sport exploded in the 1950s filmmakers followed suit using scenes on snow covered slopes for panoramic beauty and the thrill of the chase Through the free spirited 1960s and 1970s the downhill lifestyle shushed into everything from spy thrillers to beach party romps The extreme sports era of the 1980s and 1990s brought snowboarding to the big screen This first ever critical history of skiing in film chronicles a century of alpine cinema with production information and stories and quotes from directors actors and stuntmen

The Story of Music Howard Goodall,2021-11-15 Why did prehistoric people start making music What does every postwar pop song have in common A masterful tour of music through the ages Booklist starred review Music is an intrinsic part of everyday life and yet the history of its development from single notes to multi layered orchestration can seem bewilderingly specialized and complex In his dynamic tour through 40 000 years of music from prehistoric instruments to modern day pop Howard Goodall does away with stuffy biographies unhelpful labels and tired terminology Instead he leads us through the story of music as it happened idea by idea so that each musical innovation harmony notation sung theater the orchestra dance music recording broadcasting strikes us with its original force He focuses on what changed when and why picking out the discoveries that revolutionized man made sound and bringing to life musical visionaries from the little known P rotin to the colossus of Wagner Along the way he also gives refreshingly clear descriptions of what music is and how it works what scales are all about why some chords sound discordant and what all post war pop songs have in common The story of music is the story of our urge to invent connect rebel and entertain Howard Goodall s beautifully clear and compelling account is both a hymn to human endeavor and a groundbreaking map of our musical journey

Tales From the Hills Pete Buckley,2010-06-19 Tales From the Hills is a collection of stories from the author s travels in Europe s mountain and wilderness areas including the Alps and Norway as well as closer to home outings in the Lake District Snowdonia and the Scottish Highlands The easy to follow and often humourous narrative takes the reader on the road less travelled to Alpine glaciers Lakeland tarns and the wilds of Scotland On the way we encounter Dutch caravanners on the mountain roads of Norway part time peak baggers in the Lake District and a walker in Wales who is so lost he has climbed the wrong mountain This will appeal to anyone who has a love for walking and the outdoors as well as those who enjoy a good travellers tale

Totally Piste Barry Waters,1988

Over One Hundred Stories for Students Jojo Dee,2015-11-06 This book is a simple collection of old stories amusing and instructive but especially edited to be useful reading matter to all those young and ambitious men and women whose mother tongue is not English but who now realize the necessity of speaking and writing good English in order to progress in their chosen careers It should appeal particularly to such persons in the Far East and in Central and Southern America
