On Your Own A Practical Guide To Independent Living:

A Practical Guide to Independent Living for Older People Alice H. Phillips, Caryl K. Roman, 1984 The Everything Guide to Living Off the Grid Terri Reid, 2011-06-18 Do you want to have electricity and hot water at any time no matter what's going on outside your property Do you want to have more control over the things you eat and how they are processed Do you want your family safe from the worries of a bad economy and crime If you answered yes to these questions then living off the grid may be for you Although living off the grid takes some hard work the benefits make it all worthwhile This practical guide gives you all the information you'll need to move off the grid including how to Grow your own produce Raise hunt and process your meat Eliminate existing debt to cut off financial ties Build a sustainable home from scratch Harvest and reuse water Create your own sources of energy Whether you want to live an eco friendly life or just want to incorporate a few key aspects into your existing day to day this guide is your comprehensive introduction to homestead sustainability A Practical Guide to Delivering Personalisation Helen Sanderson, Jaimee Lewis, 2012 This is the comprehensive guide to delivering personalisation in health and social care using person centred approaches It covers what personalisation and person centred approaches are the different elements involved and how to carry it out with all those receiving care and support from people with disabilities to people at the end of life The Retirement Nightmare Diane G.

Armstrong, 2000-05 WARNING At the hearing you may lose many of your rights A guardian may be appointed to make personal decisions for you A conservator may be appointed to make decisions concerning your property and finances The appointment may affect control of how you spend your money how your property is managed and controlled who makes your medical decisions where you live whether you are allowed to vote and other important rights The above warning sent to all allegedly incapacitated seniors in the state of Virginia summarizes the nightmare that can befall senior citizens anywhere in the United States as a result of involuntary conservatorship or guardianship proceedings Statutes originally designed to help elderly friends and relatives who are unable to look after their own personal or financial needs are now being increasingly abused by calculating heirs to direct the transfer of family assets to themselves with the courts' blessings Based on fifty five cases drawn from courtrooms across America and the author's own bitter experience The Retirement Nightmare describes what can happen to competent senior citizens when such proceedings are filed against them by relatives or other so called protectors in the social welfare community Dr Armstrong who was forced to battle her own siblings in a million dollar court battle to place her competent mother in an involuntary conservatorship reveals how these arcane conservatorship and guardianship codes function in our courts today unfortunately as the author learned firsthand the actual application of these codes is determined almost solely by the competence and attitudes of individual judges and investigators She highlights the key problem areas common to the codes that should be changed and recommends ways that seniors can protect themselves to preserve their personal and financial freedom in their retirement years She also suggests alternatives to conservatorships and guardianships that exist in every state to help the elderly with various aspects of daily living such as balancing checkbooks paying bills grocery shopping preparing meals etc This breakthrough book exposes the secretive world of involuntary protective proceedings and more importantly gives seniors the tools they need to protect themselves from this predatory litigation Diane G Armstrong Ph D Santa Barbara CA is a clinical psychologist who works as a writer and consultant specializing in conservatorship guardianship issues
