Renaissance Architecture and Ornament in Spain Andrew Noble Prentice,1970 Renaissance architecture and ornament in Spain [engl. u. span.] Arquitectura y ornamentacion del Renacimiento en España Andrew Noble Prentice,1970
Arquitectura Y Ornamentación de Renacimiento en España Andrew Noble Prentice,1970 Architectural Rhetoric and the Iconography of Authority in Colonial Mexico C. Cody Barteet,2019-06-11 This book investigates the Casa de Montejo and considers the role of the building's Plateresque facade as a form of visual rhetoric that conveyed ideas about the individual and communal cultural identities in sixteenth century Yucatán C. Cody Barteet analyzes the facade within the complex colonial world in which it belongs including in multicultural Yucatán and the transatlantic world This contextualization allows for an examination of the architectural rhetoric of the facade the design of which visualizes the contestations of autonomy and authority occurring among the colonial peoples Renaissance Architecture and Ornament in Spain Andrew Noble Prentice,1893 Clothing the New World Church Maya Stanfield-Mazzi,2021-02-15 The book provides the first broad survey of church textiles of Spanish America and demonstrates that while overlooked textiles were a vital part of visual culture in the Catholic Church When Catholic churches were built in the New World in the sixteenth century they were furnished with rich textiles known in Spanish as church clothing These textile ornaments covered churches altars stairs floors and walls Vestments clothed priests and church attendants and garments clothed statues of saints The value attached to these textiles their constant use and their stunning visual qualities suggest that they played a much greater role in the creation of the Latin American Church than has been previously recognized In Clothing the New World Church Maya Stanfield-Mazzi provides the first comprehensive survey of church adornment with textiles addressing how these works helped establish Christianity in Spanish America and expand it over four centuries Including more than 180 photos this book examines both imported and indigenous textiles used in the church compiling works that are now scattered around the world and reconstructing their original contexts Stanfield-Mazzi delves into the hybrid or mestizo qualities of these cloths and argues that when local weavers or embroiderers in the Americas created church textiles they did so consciously with the understanding that they were creating a new church through their work The chapters are divided by textile type including embroidery featherwork tapestry painted cotton and cotton lace In the first chapter on woven silk we see how a silk standard was established on the basis of priestly preferences for this imported cloth The second chapter explains how Spanish style embroidery was introduced in the New World and mastered by local artisans The following chapters show that in select times and places spectacular local textile types were adapted for the church reflecting ancestral aesthetic and ideological patterns Clothing the New World Church makes a significant contribution to the fields of textile studies art history Church history and Latin American studies and to interdisciplinary scholarship on material culture and indigenous agency in the New World
