Renovating Holiness Thomas Jay Oord, Joshua Broward, 2015-02-03 This book is a call for change Even more it calls for open conversation about change For too long many in the Church of the Nazarene have considered the doctrine of holiness off limits a sacred cow impervious to all forces of cultural modification and theological renewal It's time for a real change because the church needs renovation These 100 essays from Millennial and Xer leaders explore how holiness might be understood and lived today

Renovate Léonce B. Crump, Jr., 2016-02-16 An Atlanta pastor describes how individuals and churches can become agents for spiritual and cultural renewal in urban contexts God is not wiping this world away He is in the midst of renovating it Léonce Crump lead pastor of Renovation Church in the urban core of Atlanta invites you to do what God did when He wanted to make a difference in this world move in Whether you're a pastor looking to plant a church a missionary preparing to serve in a far off land a family preparing to move into a new community or a follower of Jesus simply looking to engage more deeply in your current neighborhood Léonce reveals how our agendas can often sabotage achieving real change in our world Léonce takes you on a journey to understand what he calls the ministry of presence which he himself learned the hard way after planting a church in one of the most violent areas of Atlanta Léonce and his family found that before we can preach or reach others we must first know the story of a place and its people especially since skin color cultural norms and economic status often isolate us more than bringing us together

Radical Renovation - eBook [ePub] Rev. Dr. James A. Harnish, 2010-09-01 Radical Renovation: Living the Cross Shaped Life: A Lenten Study for Adults James A. Harnish Radical Renovation is a powerful image of what can happen in our lives during the season of Lent. Just as a house can be rebuilt after it has fallen into disrepair or devastation, author James A. Harnish says, so God can enter in to our brokenness and completely rebuild our lives so that we can become the kind of people in whom the living Christ can take up residence and through whom the loving purpose of God can become a tangible reality in this world. As the great cathedrals were built in the shape of a cross, the author tells us, the traditional Lenten disciplines invite us to allow the Spirit of God to reshape the way we think, act, and live into the likeness of Jesus on his way to the cross. This seven-session study, appropriate for both group and individual use, will provide one lesson for each week in Lent. Each lesson includes a Scripture reference, a brief reflection, questions for discussion or reflection, a brief prayer, and a focus for the coming week. JAMES A. HARNISH is senior pastor of Hyde Park United Methodist Church in Tampa, Florida. He is the author of Journey to the Center of the Faith: An Explorer's Guide to Christian Living, Passion Power, and You Only Have to Die. Leading Your Congregation to New Life, and he served as a contributor to both 365 Meditations for Young Adults and 365 Meditations for Men. Chapter titles and key Scripture verses: Discipleship: Living the Cross Shaped Life, Mark 8:27-38.

 of the National Covenant and presented by DigiCat Publishing the Reformed Presbytery of North America delineates a crucial reassertion of faith and commitment to presbyterian beliefs and practices The text is an intricate exposition of a seminal
