Changing Faces Sean J. Marshall, 2012-06 I came into this world Sean John Marshall I am twenty seven years old and was born and raised in Colorado Springs Colorado I am a fine artist author a proud father of one beautiful baby girl and an all around entrepreneur But all of my pursuits came to an abrupt halt when I was consumed by a life of crime For so long I became a part of a problem Growing up in and around the streets I've caused much destruction in my lifetime I've been a part of gang violence sold drugs and was involved in countless thefts and armed robberies Now my life's focus is to inspire teach uplift and mend I now use life's experiences to grow and learn I feel obligated to pass on all the insight and knowledge I've obtained throughout the years to whoever I can By doing so people can learn from my mistakes and use me as an example because I've seen darker truths that people need not witness themselves I've walked rocky paths on which those can only stumble And if by sharing my views on paper and pouring my heart out through a pen can inspire or save just one life if by writing I can prevent someone from making some of the same mistakes I've made I will have done my part I will have at least saved one soul from having to suffer the afflictions I've faced And for that reason alone I write And for that reason alone I'll forever share my truths Colophon

The Changing Faces of Citizenship Joyce Marie Mushaben, 2008-10-01 In contrast to most migration studies that focus on specific foreigner groups in Germany this study simultaneously compares and contrasts the legal political social and economic opportunity structures facing diverse categories of the ethnic minorities who have settled in the country since the 1950s It reveals the contradictory and usually self defeating nature of German policies intended to keep migrants out allegedly in order to preserve a German Leitkultur with which very few of its own citizens still identify The main barriers to effective integration and socioeconomic revitalization in general sooner lie in the country s obsolete labor market regulations and bureaucratic procedures Drawing on local case studies personal interviews and national surveys the author describes the human faces behind official citizenship and integration practices in Germany and in doing so demonstrates that average citizens are much more multi cultural than they realize
