works from the early twentieth century to today Beginning with science fiction in literary magazines before taking in radio dramas film video games and expansive transmedia franchises Robert Yeates argues that post apocalyptic representations of the American city are uniquely suited for explorations of contemporary urban issues Examining how the post apocalyptic American city has been repeatedly adapted and repurposed to new and developing media over the last century this book reveals that the content and form of such texts work together to create vivid and immersive fictional spaces in ways that would otherwise not be possible Chapters present media specific analyses of these texts situating them within their historical contexts and the broader history of representations of urban ruins in American fiction Original in its scope and cross media approach American Cities in Post Apocalyptic Science Fiction both illuminates little studied texts and provides provocative new readings of familiar works such as Blade Runner and The Walking Dead placing them within the larger historical context of imaginings of the American city in ruins Postmodern Metanarratives Décio Torres Cruz,2014-07-29 Postmodern Metanarratives investigates the relationship between cinema and literature by analyzing the film Blade Runner as a postmodern work that constitutes a landmark of cyberpunk narrative and establishes a link between tradition and the post modern Hard Merchandise: Star Wars Legends (The Bounty Hunter Wars) K. The Cinematic Novel and Postmodern Pop Fiction Décio Torres Cruz,2019-12-05 D cio Torres Cruz approaches connections between literature and cinema partly through issues of gender and identity and partly through issues of reality and representation In doing so he looks at the various ways in which people have thought of the so called cinematic novel tracing the development of that genre concept not only in the French cin roman and film scenarios but also in novels from the United States England France and Latin America The main tendency he identifies is the blending of the cinematic novel with pop literature through allusions to Pop Art and other postmodern cultural trends His prime exhibits are a number of novels by the Argentinian writer Manuel Puig Betrayed by Rita Hayworth Heartbreak Tango The Buenos Aires Affair Kiss of the Spider

Woman and Pubis angelical Bringing in suggestive sociocultural and psychoanalytical considerations Cruz shows how in Puig's hands the cinematic novel resulted in a pop collage of different texts films discourses and narrative devices which fused reality and imagination into dream and desire Soundings Gary K.
