Reporting The Campaign Election Coverage In Canada:

Media And Voters In Canadian Election Campaigns Frederick J. Fletcher,1991-01-01 Taken together the five studies provide a useful overview of the effectiveness of various forms of campaign communication in informing voters Much of the material presented here is not readily available elsewhere Media, Elections, And Democracy: Royal Commission on Electoral Reform Frederick J. Fletcher,1991-01-01 Media Elections and Democracy examines campaign communication in selected industrial democracies Klaus Schoenbach Karen Siune Doris Graber and a host of authors around the world contribute critical overviews of the systems in their countries The studies deal with a wide range of issues in modern communication including the principles and practices of news and public affairs coverage and the impact of new technologies

Interest Groups and Elections in Canada F. Leslie Seidle,1991-01-01 The two studies in this book explore the nature and influence of special interest groups They consider different aspects of the question In the context of the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms how can the laws intended to secure a fair electoral process be reconciled with freedom of expression

Reporting the Campaign Frederick J. Fletcher, Canada. Royal Commission on Electoral Reform and Party Financing, 1991 The objective of the research program was to provide Commissioners with a full account of the factors that have shaped the electoral democracy This document presents discussions on the following topics journalistic practice in covering federal election campaigns in Canada relations between political parties and the media in Quebec election campaigns free to be responsible the accountability of the print media smaller voices minor parties campaign communication and the news media and the mass media and the reproduction of marginalization Parties, Candidates, and Constituency Campaigns in Canadian Elections Anthony Sayers, 2011-11-01 Political scientists have traditionally examined the democratic process at the macro level With its unique micro level focus Parties Candidates and Constituency Campaigns in Canadian Elections provides the first systematic analysis of the local constituency campaigns that are the basis of elections and democracy in Canada By taking a detailed look at campaigns in seven B C ridings during the 1988 free trade election the last under the old three party system Anthony Sayers develops a typology of candidates and campaigns The dynamics of local associations nominations and campaigns including those of former prime minister Kim Campbell and New Democrat Svend Robinson as well as key strategic events and the role of the media are reconstructed from interviews with candidates campaign managers party strategists volunteers and journalists The 1993 and 1997 elections are then invoked to show that the insights drawn about the nature of constituency politics remain relevant to the new party system This important contribution to the study of Canadian elections forcefully argues that knowledge of the dynamics at the local level is essential to a full understanding of Canadian polity its underlying social basis and the factors that determine successful election campaigns As such Parties Candidates and Constituency Campaigns in Canadian Elections will intrigue not only political scientists and students of Election Broadcasting In Canada Frederick J. Canadian politics but also election candidates and party strategists

Fletcher,1991-01-01 Election Broadcasting in Canada explores the role of media in Canadian politics David R Spencer David Hogarth Catherine M Bolan and others look at the history legal framework and difficulties in election broadcasting as well as the impact of new broadcasting services Aboriginal Peoples and Electoral Reform in Canada Robert A. Milen, 1991-01-01 This volume features differing views of past present and possible future roles for Aboriginal people in the Canadian political and electoral system The studies address the issues facing Aboriginal people and the efforts to increase their involvement in the federal electoral system Robert Milen examines the development of Aboriginal political consciousness since the 1970s with attention to recent constitutional and electoral initiatives and aspirations Augie Fleras study considers the New Zealand system of guaranteed representation for the Maori and suggests how Canada might follow this example Valerie Alia studies how the media deal with Aboriginal issues basing her recommendations on interviews with Aboriginal people who offered her their views Roger Gibbins critiques the idea of guaranteed Aboriginal representation in the House of Commons Ethno-Cultural Groups and Visible Minorities in Canadian Politics Kathy Megyery, 1996-08-08 The studies in this volume examine the nature and extent of their participation in Canadian politics in both political parties and the House of Commons While these groups feel marginalized they believe strongly in the objectives of democracy and want to participate in a Canada that realizes those ideals more successfully Women in Canadian Politics Kathy Megyery, 1991-01-01 The studies in this volume examine women s involvement in political parties both past and Comparative Issues in Party and Election Finance F. Leslie Seidle, 1991-01-01 This book is one of 23 present volumes of research commissioned by the Royal Commission on Electoral Reform and Party Financing and one of five volumes within this series dealing specifically with party and election finance Because the issue of money in elections is as old as democracy the experience of other countries is instructive The studies in this volume offer Canadians information about approaches to funding political parties and elections in the United States and Western Europe The studies by Herbert Alexander and Robert Mutch exmaine how the United States has approached issues such as contribution limits and the disclosure of election finances The latter study provides explicit comparisons to Canada noting the constitutional roleof the Supreme Court in each country Jane Jenson draws on Western European experience to propose and assess reforms for the public funding for party foundations is documented by Michael Pinto Duschinsky The studies approach theirm aterial from a historical perspective noting the uniqueness of the constitutions institutions and traditions of the countries reviewed The authors provide background essential to any consideration of whether foreign experience might serve as a model for Canada

The Handbook of Election News Coverage Around the World Jesper Strömbäck, Lynda Lee Kaid, 2009-09-10 The Handbook of Election Coverage Around the World focuses on the news coverage of national elections in democracies around the globe It brings together and compares election news coverage within a single framework offering a systematic consideration of various factors Considering the prominence and power of the press in the election process this volume will offer unique breadth in its global consideration of the topic The volume will appeal to scholars in political communication political science mass media and society and others studying elections and media coverage around the world Youth in Canadian Politics Kathy Megyery, 2013-12-30 The studies in this volume uncover a wide range of opinion about young people and their involvement in politics Do Conventions Matter? John Childs Courtney, 1995 National leadership conventions in Canada attract widespread public interest but with growing support for direct democracy and universal voting they may soon become a thing of the past In Do Conventions Matter John Courtney a leading authority in the field explores the party leadership selection process in Canada in an age of television dominated politics and assesses its uncertain future

Reporting the Campaign Canada. Royal Commission on Electoral Reform and Party Financing, Frederick J. Fletcher, The Canadian Federal Election of 2006 Jon H. Pammett, Christopher Dornan, 2006-09-01 The Canadian Federal Election of 2006 is a comprehensive analysis of all aspects of the campaign and election that ended the 12 year Liberal reign in Canadian politics and saw the House of Commons shift from one minority government to another The chapters composed by leading political writers commentators and pollsters examine the strategies successes and blunders of the major players the Conservatives Liberals New Democrats Bloc Qu b cois and Greens and also explore the role of the media coverage and the performance and influence of public opinion polls Special features in this definitive volume explore the way candidates are nominated and the changes in the legislation governing Canadian federal elections Finally the book includes a detailed analysis of voting patterns and the rate of voter participation The Canadian General Election of 2004 Jon H. Pammett, Christopher Dornan, 2004-12-01 The Canadian General Election of 2004 is the definitive study of the campaign and the election The 2004 edition includes analyses of The campaigns of the 4 major parties and smaller parties The role of newspapers television and the internet in the campaigns The pre election polls Voting patterns across the country The rise in non voting Articles are contributed from leading Canadian political writers commentators and pollsters including Stephen Clarkson Faron Ellis and Peter Woolstencroft Alan Whitehorn Alain Gagnon Susan Harada Tamara Small Christopher Waddell Paul Attallah Michael Marzolini Andre Turcotte and Lawrence Leduc Political Support in Canada Richard A. Preston, E. Donald Briggs, 1983 All governments require popular support and in democracies this support must be maintained by noncoercive means This book analyzes the question of political support in Canada a country in which the maintenance of the integrity of the political community has been and continues to be in the words of the editors the single most salient aspect of the country's political life. The nature of popular support is first considered in broad theoretical terms then from the standpoint of those agents most responsible for maintaining support in Canadian democracy then as influenced by particular issues and policies and finally as it affects and is affected by the separatist movement in Quebec Do Political Campaigns Matter? David M. Farrell, Rüdiger Schmitt-Beck, 2002 This book in bringing together some of the leading international scholars on electoral behaviour and communication studies provides the first ever stock take of the state of this sub discipline The individual chapters present the most recent studies on campaign effects in North America Europe and Australasia As a whole the book provides a cross national assessment of the theme of political campaigns and their consequences

Publicity and the Canadian State Kirsten Kozolanka, 2014-01-01 Publicity and the Canadian State is the first sustained study of the contemporary practices of political communication focusing holistically on the tools of the publicity state and their ideological underpinnings advertising public opinion research marketing branding image consulting and media and information management as well as related topics such as election law and finance privacy think tank lobbying and non election communication campaigns Publishers website The Canadian Federal Election of 2021 Jon H. Pammett, Christopher Dornan, 2022-09-15 Media pundits and students of Canadian politics alike have strived to interpret the relevance of the 2021 federal election held in the midst of a global pandemic and reinforcing the existing parliamentary balance of power This timely volume explains the election's import offering an insightful account of Canadian democracy in an age of increasing rancour and polarization and explaining why the Liberals did not win a majority government In a unique collaboration some of the country's most distinguished political scientists pollsters and journalists examine the parties issues machinery and media of Canadian electoral politics teasing out the complexities and nuances of what was seen to be a premature federal election The Canadian Federal Election of 2021 analyzes the campaigns of the major parties and the patterns of voting behaviour A special feature of this book is its focus on issues of diversity and difference in the partisan theatre the voting patterns of gendered Indigenous and newly immigrant Canadians as well as the millennial generation These chapters offer important lessons for the present and for the election to come A must read for students journalists those working at affiliated think tanks and institutes and engaged citizens this thoughtful expos will interest international observers and anyone following the Canadian political landscape
