Bach Performance Practice, 1945-1975 Dorottya Fabian, 2017-07-05 Analysing over 100 recordings from 1945-1975 this book examines twentieth century baroque performance practice as evinced in all the commercially available recordings of J S Bach's Passions Brandenburg Concertos and Goldberg Variations Dorottya Fabian presents a qualitative style orientated history of the early music movement in its formative years through a comparison of the performance style heard in these recordings with the scholarly literature on Bach performance practice Issues explored in the book include the availability of resources balance tempo dynamics ornamentation rhythm and articulation During the decades following the Second World War the early music movement was more concerned with the revival of repertoire than with the revival of performance style which meant that its characteristics and achievements differed essentially from those of the later 1970s and 1980s Period practice techniques were not practised even by ensembles using eighteenth century instruments Yet as this survey reveals several recordings of the period provide unexpectedly stylish interpretations using metre and pulse to punctuate the music Such metric performance and appropriate articulation helped to clarify structure and texture and assisted in the creation of a musical discourse the pre eminent goal of baroque compositions

A New English Music Tim Rayborn, 2016-04-27 The turn of the 20th century was a time of great change in Britain The empire saw its global influence waning and its traditional social structures challenged There was a growing weariness of industrialism and a desire to rediscover tradition and the roots of English heritage A new interest in English folk song and dance inspired art music which many believed was seeing a renaissance after a period of stagnation since the 18th century This book focuses on the lives of seven composers Ralph Vaughan Williams Gustav Holst Ernest Moeran George Butterworth Philip Heseltine Peter Warlock Gerald Finzi and Percy Grainger whose work was influenced by folk songs and early music Each chapter provides an historical background and tells the fascinating story of a musical life

Building New Banjos for an Old-Time World Richard Jones-Bamman, 2017-09-11 Banjo music possesses a unique power to evoke a bucolic simpler past The artisans who build banjos for old time music stand at an unusual crossroads asked to meet the modern musician's needs while retaining the nostalgic qualities so fundamental to the banjo's sound and mystique Richard Jones Bamman ventures into workshops and old time music communities to explore how banjo builders practice their art His interviews and long time personal immersion in the musical culture shed light on long overlooked aspects of banjo making What is the banjo builder's role in the creation of a specific musical community What techniques go into the styles of instruments they create Jones Bamman explores these questions and many others while sharing the ways an inescapable sense of the past undergirds the performance and enjoyment of old time music Along the way he reveals how antimodernism remains integral to the music's appeal and its making Music and Protest in 1968 Beate Kutschke, Barley Norton, 2013-04-25 Music was integral to the profound cultural social and political changes that swept the globe in 1968 This collection of essays offers new perspectives on the role that music played in the events of that year which included protests against the ongoing Vietnam War the May riots in France and the assassination of Martin Luther King Jr From underground folk music in Japan to antiauthoritarian music in Scandinavia and Germany Music and Protest in 1968 explores music's key role as a means of socio political dissent not just in the US and the UK but in Asia North and South America Europe and Africa Contributors extend the understanding of musical protest far beyond a narrow view of the protest song to explore how politics and social protest played out in many genres including experimental and avant garde music free jazz rock popular song and film and theatre music
