Reproductive Health Gender And Development An International Perspective:

Reproductive Health Gender and Development Ersheng Gao, 2003 Kuttan Mahadevan b 1940 formerly Professor of Population Studies Sri Venkateswara University contributed articles Gender, Communications, and Reproductive Health in International Development Carolina Matos, 2023-06-15 To this day women globally are subjected to forms of control over their bodies and their ability to exercise their reproductive rights in particular is still constrained Amid a rise of challenges to the advancement of women's rights including the recent overturning of Roe v Wade in the United States sexual and reproductive health rights are at the forefront of conversations about the advancement of gender equality To determine how communications are used strategically to shape policy Carolina Matos explores fifty two feminist and health NGOs from across the world and how they are improving discourse on sexuality and reproductive health in the public sphere She investigates how these organizations are making use of communications amid various contemporary challenges including the proliferation of misinformation about women's rights and health in the public sphere due to the actions of oppositional far right nationalist groups Through original in depth interviews within the NGOs and empirical research of the institutions online presences Matos unpacks the complexities of the relationship between women's health communications and development contributing to the fields of development health communications and gender studies and advancing the debate on the role of feminist NGOs in advocating for women's rights With a postcolonial critique of the role of NGOs in development Matos illuminates the strategic use of communications in the mediation and advocacy of gender equality and reproductive health Gender, Development and Health Caroline Sweetman, 2001 Articles included here focus on understandings of reproductive health integrating gender issues into infectious disease prevention the impact of HIV AIDS on women working with communities to promote health and on the monitoring and evaluation of health projects from a gender perspective Rethinking Sexual and Reproductive Health and Rights for Young Women in Southern Africa Tamaryn Crankshaw, Jane Freedman, Carolien Aantjes, Nana K. Poku, 2024-10-29 This important book provides a critical examination of the sexual and reproductive health and rights SRHR of young women and girls in Southern Africa examining the ways in which current policies and programmes aimed at improving SRHR often fail to reach the most marginalised populations Addressing key regional challenges such as high rates of HIV unintended pregnancies unsafe abortions and sexual and gender based violence the book highlights how health inequalities in the region are in fact increasing despite the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development of leaving no one behind The book draws on theoretical analysis and empirical data gathered from studies carried out in five Southern African countries Madagascar Mozambique South Africa Zambia and Zimbabwe arguing that a continued focus on HIV and interventions that target health in a narrow sense often fail to understand the wider socio economic determinants of poor sexual and reproductive health and the ways in which girls and young women are made vulnerable Written by leading scholars in the field this will be essential reading for students and researchers in Global Health International Development Women s Studies and all related fields      International Perspectives on Gender-Based Violence Madhumita Pandey,2023-11-24 This book examines the multifaceted nature of gender based violence GBV and the many forms it can take It explores the area of GBV and its implications on human rights law and policy The book highlights the significance of current international debates around preventing GBV and provides context for understanding GBV as a complex structural phenomenon deeply rooted in gender inequality It addresses GBV as one of the most notable human rights violations within all societies and provides multiple global perspectives on GBV to address the common challenges and barriers to combating this issue Key areas of coverage include Sexual violence Domestic violence Intimate partner violence Media Misogyny Online trolling Discrimination Sex trafficking and modern slavery Preventative Measures and role of men International Perspectives on Gender Based Violence is an essential resource for researchers clinicians therapists and upper level undergraduate and graduate students in developmental psychology family policy forensic psychology human rights public health criminology criminal justice and clinical social work as well as all interrelated disciplines      International Perspectives and Experiences Enhancing Access to Healthcare ,2025-02-19 Access to healthcare is a straightforward concept either we can receive high quality healthcare when needed or we cannot While this concept is simple reality is much more complex Many people cannot afford good healthcare even if they have health insurance Others live in areas where vaccines doctors hospitals and other health services are in short supply and these supply constraints continue to grow Still others find it hard to make appointments for care especially if they must travel long distances or miss work to attend those appointments The inability to accommodate patient needs has been problematic for decades and sometimes for much longer in many parts of the world In this book authors from around the globe describe innovative approaches for improving access to health care Their entrepreneurial spirit knowledge and sheer grit in the face of complex challenges are admirable and demonstrable Policymakers healthcare providers payers and patients will find valuable insights and actionable strategies in this volume for addressing access barriers and ensuring timely care Readers are encouraged to explore these and other groundbreaking approaches using the lessons learned here to improve healthcare access and enhance lives worldwide      Adapting Gender and Development to Local Religious Contexts Romina Istratii,2020-10-01 This book provides a critical and decolonial analysis of gender and development theory and practice in religious societies through the presentation of a detailed ethnographic study of conjugal violence in Ethiopia Responding to recent consensus that gender mainstreaming approaches have failed to produce their intended structural changes Romina Istratii explains that gender and development analytical and theoretical frameworks are often constructed through western Euro centric lenses ill equipped to understand gender related realities and human behaviour in non western religious contexts and knowledge systems Instead Istratii argues for an approach to gender sensitive research and practice which is embedded in insiders conceptual understandings as a basis to theorise about gender assess the possible gendered underpinnings of local issues and design appropriate alleviation strategies Drawing on a detailed study of conjugal abuse realities and attitudes in two villages and the city of Aksum in Northern Ethiopia she demonstrates how religious knowledge can be engaged in the design and implementation of remedial interventions This book carefully evidences the importance of integrating religious traditions and spirituality in current discussions of sustainable development in Africa and speaks to researchers and practitioners of gender religion and development in Africa scholars of non western Christianities and Ethiopian studies and domestic violence researchers and practitioners International Norms, Normative Change, and the UN Sustainable Development Goals Noha Shawki, 2016-09-06 This book is an edited volume that focuses on international norms and normative change in some of the key areas of sustainable human development This is an important and timely topic since the international community adopted a set of Sustainable Development Goals SDGs in September of 2015 The 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development will guide international development efforts over the next fifteen years For this reason developing a deeper understanding of the SDGs the international norms that underpin them and any normative change they represent is vital for students scholars and development practitioners and professionals This volume is designed to provide an account of some of the normative debates and normative change that the process of developing a set of SDGs has entailed Its goal is to assess the origins nature extent and implications of normative change in the context of the post 2015 development agenda It also evaluates the extent to which the SDGs represent a significant change from established development norms and practices Handbook on Gender and Health Jasmine Gideon, 2016-05-27 This Handbook brings together a groundbreaking collection of chapters that uses a gender lens to explore health health care and health policy in both the Global South and North Empirical evidence is drawn from a variety of different settings and points to the many ways in which the gendered dimensions of health have become reworked across the globe This collection includes insightful contributions from 56 leading authorities from Africa the Americas Asia Europe and the Middle East offering a wealth of knowledge theoretical reflection and empirical detail on the essential elements surrounding gender and health Topics covered include theoretical approaches to understanding gender and health migration sexuality ageing masculinities climate change and sexual and reproductive rights Split into four thematic sections this book strives to develop a clear road map towards achieving gender justice in health The Handbook on Gender and Health will be an important resource for researchers students and instructors of health policy and family and gender studies Contributors include G Alvarez Minte E Ansoleaga Moreno L Artazcoz A E Birn R A Burgess A Coates I Cort s Franch S Del Pino K Devries X D az Berr L Doyal K Elzein V Escib Ag ir B Eveslage C Ewig J Gideon J Gon alves Mart n B Gough H Grundlingh M Gutmann R R Habib M C Inhorn D Johnston D M Kamuya L Knight M Koivusalo R Kumar M Leite J Lyra E MacPherson A M Cardarelli P McDonough B Medrado L M Morgan S F Murray J Namakula L N ez Carrasco S Payne E Richards N Richardson M Richter S Robertson M Robinson J Samuel S Sexton J A Smith S Smith D L Spitzer S N Ssali S Theobald R Tolhurst J Vearey P Vero Sanso S Witter N Younes F

Zalwango      The Pursuit of Gender Equality An Uphill Battle OECD,2017-10-04 This report examines recent developments in gender equality in education employment entrepreneurship and public life It contains one overview chapter and 24 short chapters each with key findings and policy recommendations      Through the Gender Lens Bola Akanji,Funmi Soetan,2018-12-12 Sustainable development is now intricately linked not just to economic growth but more importantly to the quality of life of people in terms of their social status political participation cultural freedom environmental justice and inclusive development For previously colonized nations like Nigeria these linkages are believed to have been influenced by the legacies of colonial rule positively or otherwise Through the Gender Lens A Century of Social and Political Development in Nigeria looks at how colonialism has enabled or hindered the roles of the state in promoting inclusive development in general and gender equality in particular in the process of nation building In this edited volume scholars analyze a host of policies strategies and programs as well as empirical evidence to expose how types of governance from direct colonial rule in the country from 1914 through her independence in 1960 a Republic in 1963 and to different post independence governance periods have influenced gender relations and the impacts of these on Nigerian women Diverse sectoral perspectives from education health culture environment and especially politics are presented to explain the level of attainment or otherwise of gender equality and the implications for Nigeria s road to sustainable development The emphasis on the role of the state in development particularly indicts the social and political domains of governance Hence the main focus of inquiry in the volume In its twelve chapters the authors analyze available data and other information to draw relevant conclusions identify lessons of experience including from some cross country comparisons and make concrete recommendations for more gender inclusive systems of governance in the next century of Nigeria s nationhood      COVID-19 and Gender-Based Violence in Zimbabwe Isaiah Munyiswa,Pauline Mateveke,Ezra Chitando,2024-12-02 This book investigates the experiences of women in Zimbabwe facing COVID 19 and gender based violence arguing that the insights from this extremely tough period could be used as a springboard for positive legal cultural and policy changes In 2020 COVID 19 caught the world by surprise and often the socio cultural factors impacting the treatment and care of those infected by the virus were not fully considered In Zimbabwe the socially constructed role of women as caregivers left them particularly vulnerable Not only this but COVID 19 lockdowns coincided with particularly high levels of sexual exploitation and gender based violence with women again comprising the majority of victims Authors in this book analyse the pandemic experiences of women in Zimbabwe both in the workplace or in the home with the hope of fostering positive cultural change and sensitising policy makers to the need for legislation that protects women in moments of disasters The important lessons and discussion points raised by this book will be important to policymakers both within Zimbabwe and beyond and to researchers working on gender public health philosophy sociology and politics in Africa      Routledge Handbook of Gender in South Asia Leela Fernandes,2014-02-24 Providing a comprehensive overview of the study of gender in South Asia this Handbook covers the central contributions that have defined this area and captures innovative and emerging paradigms that are shaping the future of the field It offers a wide range of disciplinary and interdisciplinary perspectives spanning both the humanities and social sciences focussing on India Pakistan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka The Handbook brings together key experts in the field of South Asia and gender women and sexuality Chapters are organised thematically in five major sections Historical formations of gender and the significance of colonialism and nationalism Law Citizenship and the Nation Representations of Culture Place Identity Labour and the Economy Inequality Activism and the State This timely survey is essential reading for scholars who research and teach on South Asia as well as for scholars in related interdisciplinary fields that focus on women and gender from comparative and transnational perspectives Feminist Futures Kum-Kum Bhavnani, John Foran, Priya A. Kurian, Debashish Munshi, 2016-10-15 Straddling disciplines and continents Feminist Futures interweaves scholarship and social activism to explore the evolving position of women in the South Working at the intersection of cultural studies critical development studies and feminist theory the book s contributors articulate a radical and innovative framework for understanding the linkages between women culture and development applying it to issues ranging from sexuality and the gendered body to the environment technology and the cultural politics of representation This revised and updated edition brings together leading academics as well as a new generation of activists and scholars to provide a fresh perspective on the ways in which women in the South are transforming our understanding of development Gender Inequalities, Sexual and Reproductive Health, and Sustainable Development in the Global South Praveen Kumar Pathak, Shah Md Atiqul Haq, Niharika Tripathi, Tizta Degfie, 2025-08-22 Investing in Sexual and Reproductive Health SRH has been recognized as one of the prudent strategies to ensure the well being of girls and women and also to advance broader social and economic development for the nations and future generations Moreover it provides an excellent opportunity for millions of girls and women to make an informed choice about the number timing and spacing between births experience safe motherhood deliver healthy newborns and have a safe and satisfying sexual life However several young girls and women encounter an array of structural barriers patriarchy and unfavorable gendered norms practices including child marriage son preference gender based violence against women female foeticide lower access to economic property rights restriction of mobility etc that hinder their socioeconomic progress and health status Discourse on leveraging gender equity and reproductive health could be further strengthened with the involvement of young boys and men Given that restrictive gender norms affect both men s and women s reproductive health potential therefore integrating young boys and men along with young girls and women shall be a comprehensive strategy to ensure equitable quality and sustainable reproductive health among people Oxford Textbook of Global Public Health Roger Detels, Quarraisha Abdool Karim, Fran Baum, Liming Li, Alastair H. Leyland, 2022 Invaluable for all practitioners trainees and students of public health and epidemiology the Oxford Textbook of Global Public Health covers the scope methods and practice of public health and has been comprehensively updated for its seventh edition      Gender before Birth Rajani Bhatia, 2018-02-01 In the mid 1990s the international community pronounced prenatal sex selection via abortion an act of violence against women and unethical. At the same time new developments in reproductive technology in the United States led to a method of sex selection before conception its US inventor marketed the practice as family balancing and defended it with the rhetoric of freedom of choice. In Gender before Birth Rajani Bhatia takes on the double standard of how similar practices in the West and non West are divergently named and framed. Bhatia's extensive fieldwork includes interviews with clinicians scientists biomedical service providers and feminist activists and her resulting analysis extends both feminist theory on reproduction and feminist science and technology studies. She argues that we are at the beginning of a changing transnational terrain that presents new challenges to theorized inequality in reproduction demonstrating how the technosciences often get embroiled in colonial gender and racial politics      Darkness at Noon Ashish Bose, 2003      Gender, Development and Marriage Caroline Sweetman, 2003 This book traces the economic and social impact of inequality in marriage and considers its implications for development. Looking at child marriage the link between women's economic contribution equality within marriage NGO responses to domestic violence and the need to understand particular forms of marriage for appropriate development policy.

Integrating Poverty and Gender Into Health Programmes Sarah Coll-Black, 2008 This module is designed to improve the awareness knowledge and skills of health professionals on poverty and gender concerns in the field of HIV AIDS. Experience increasingly shows that the socioeconomic factors contributing to the rapid spread of HIV in the Region include low education limited access to health care services and increased mobility within and between countries factors that are largely determined by poverty and gender inequality. The growing commitment to curbing the HIV AIDS epidemic requires that health professionals at community provincial national and international levels have the knowledge skills and tools to more effectively respond to the health needs of poor and marginalized people and address the gender inequalities fuelling the epidemic. However many health professionals in the Region are not adequately prepared to address these issues. This module is designed to help fill this gap. This module which is part of a Sourcebook for health professionals is intended to be used in pre service and in service training of health professionals. It is divided into six sections. Section 1 provides a brief overview of the HIV AIDS pandemic and an understanding of HIV AIDS. Section 2 examines What the links are between poverty gender and HIV AIDS. Section 3 discusses why it is important for health professionals to address HIV AIDS from efficiency equity and human rights perspectives. Section 4 discusses how health professionals can address poverty and gender concerns in HIV AIDS. Section 5 provides notes for facilitators and finally Section 6 contains a collection of tools resources and references to support health professionals in their work in this field.
