Requiem Far Fanny Goldmann:

The Book of Franza and Requiem for Fanny Goldmann Ingeborg Bachmann, 2010-08-31 These two fragments of novels Ingeborg Bachmann's only untranslated works of fiction were intended to follow the widely acclaimed Malina in a cycle to be entitled Todesarten or Ways of Dying Although Bachmann died before completing them The Book of Franza and Requiem for Fanny Goldmann stand on their own continuing Bachmann's tradition of using language to confront the disease plaguing human relationships Through the tales of two women in postwar Austria Bachmann explores the ways of dying inflicted upon the living from outside and from within through history politics religion family gender relations and the self Bachmann's allegiance to the twin muses of memory and history as well as her perception of fascism as not being limited to the context of the war but also existing within the intimate relations of everyday life between husbands and wives brothers and sisters psychiatrists and patients are supremely evident in The Book of Franza Here Bachmann follows a woman who escapes from a sanatorium and after years of silence sends her brother a cryptic telegram Rightly suspecting that she has fled her sadistic husband a renowned Austrian psychiatrist whose intimate relations have merged with his studies of concentration camps her brother finds her in their childhood home Together they travel to Egypt where Franza slowly begins to regain her bearings But Franza's desire to cleanse herself by journeying into the heart of the desert's void ends in tragedy as she becomes the victim of a horrible act of violence Unlike Franza who attempts to flee her past but fails the heroine of Requiem for Fanny Goldmann makes no attempt to escape her history This novel tells of the demise of a Viennese actress who is manipulated by a younger ambitious playwright to advance his career Deception follows disloyalty the final treachery comes when the playwright portrays her in a novel which secures his fame and in Fanny's eyes robs her of her future Caught in a perpetual stasis Fanny suffers in total obscurity as her present is stolen from her as well Whether analyzing the place where the self begins and the power of history ends or the ways in which women are forced to be complicit in their mistreatment at the hands of men Bachmann's critical approach to the human psyche is unparalleled Mesmerizing and profound The Book of Franza and Requiem for Fanny Goldmann constitute the final evidence that Ingeborg Bachmann is the most important female German language writer of the postwar period

Women Writers and National Identity

Stephanie Bird, 2003-09-29 In Women Writers and National Identity Stephanie Bird offers a detailed analysis of the twin themes of female identity and national identity in the works of three major twentieth century German language women writers Bird argues for the importance of an understanding of ambiguity tension and contradiction in the fictional narratives of Ingeborg Bachmann Anne Duden and Emine zdamar She aims to demonstrate how ambiguity is itself central to the development of an understanding of identity and that literary texts are uniquely able to point to the ethical importance of ambiguity through their stylistic complexity Bird gives close readings of the three writers and draws on feminist theory and psychoanalysis to elucidate the complex nature of individual identity This book will be of interest to literary and women's

Twentieth-century Literary Criticism Gale Research Company, 2008 Excerpts from criticism of the works of novelists poets playwrights and other creative writers 1900-1960 Encyclopedia of the Novel Paul Schellinger, 2014-04-08 The Encyclopedia of the Novel is the first reference book that focuses on the development of the novel throughout the world Entries on individual writers assess the place of that writer within the development of the novel form explaining why and in exactly what ways that writer is important Similarly an entry on an individual novel discusses the importance of that novel not only from analyzing the particular innovations that novel has introduced and the ways in which it has influenced the subsequent course of the genre A wide range of topic entries explore the history criticism theory production dissemination and reception of the novel A very important component of the Encyclopedia of the Novel is its long surveys of development of the novel in various regions of the world If We Had the Word Gisela Brinker-Gabler, Markus Zisselsberger, 2004 Ingeborg Bachmann 1926-1973 was one of the most significant post-war women writers in German language literature and remains one of the most important writers of our time Over thirty years after her death her work continues to attract the critical attentions of a wide general readership as well as scholars from many different disciplines not least because her poems short stories critical essays radio plays and novels deal with issues that continue to haunt contemporary culture history gender exile war memory and the Holocaust A poet writer and trained philosopher Bachmann relentlessly proved what she believed was the potential of language and writing to raise awareness and effect change in a culture marked by violence against women individual and collective trauma the effacement of memory the forgetting of atrocities and the silencing of victims The multifaceted interdisciplinary approaches to Ingeborg Bachmann's work make this collection appealing and relevant to both critics and scholars of Ingeborg Bachmann and to everyone interested in critical theory and contemporary culture

The Films of Margarethe Von Trotta and Their Reviews Jenifer Kay Ward,1992     A Companion to Twentieth-Century German Literature Raymond Furness,Malcolm Humble,2003-09-02 Containing entries on over four hundred authors of fiction poetry and drama from Germany Austria and Switzerland this invaluable work of reference presents material of a range and depth that no other book on the subject in English attains For the second edition the entries have been updated to include the most recent works of German literature A number of new entries have been added dealing in particular with the East German literary scene and the changing literary landscape after reunification In addition to basic biographical facts the Companion offers summaries information on involvement in literary groups and political developments schools and movements critical terms and aspects of the other arts including film     The Thirtieth Year Ingeborg Bachmann,1987 Collection of seven short stories Orig pub in Austria in 1961     Distant Kinship Matthias N. Lorenz,2022-07-28 This study of Joseph Conrad's influential work Heart of Darkness presents for the first time the German language reception of this reference text in the debate on postcolonialism The spectrum ranges from Conrad's contemporaries like Kafka to many canonical authors of the 20th century including Thomas Mann Ernst Jünger Christa Wolf to the most recent names in literature i.e. Christian Kracht und Lukas Bärfuss Beyond the readings of their works the study contributes to the study of cultural transfers as well as to Conrad philology and it expands the theory of intertextuality with parameters that capture the complex factor of power in postcolonial relations     The New Republic Herbert David Croly,2000     Mad Intertextuality Monika Kaup,1993     Rain Taxi Review of Books ,2000     Responses to Christa Wolf Marilyn Sibley Fries,1989     Memorie di una lettrice notturna Elisabetta Rasy,2009     The Wasting Heroine in German Fiction by Women 1770-1914 Anna Richards,2004 In this broad ranging study of German fiction by women between 1770-1914 the author aims to add a new dimension to existing debates on the association of women and illness in literature She constructs a history of women's self starvation eating behaviour and wasting diseases     Gender and Trauma Fatima Festić,2011-11-15 This volume presents eight integrated essays that explore the intersection of the scholarly fields of gender and trauma combining work that can broadly be located in the subject areas of literary studies the humanities and the social sciences The contributors search for a more comprehensive theoretical ground to analyze the overlapping inter agency and also the lines that separate the issues of gender and trauma to establish a more political linking of the materiality of the effects of trauma to the performativity of gender as well as to examine the ways in which the categories of sex sexual difference and sexual identity figure within such a relationship Likewise our discussion is guided by the increasing awareness of the cross cultural delineation dynamics and translatability of these fields the awareness that facilitates the understanding of the instances of their interference in the rhetoric of a dominant culture and in dominant societal structures This specific input which refers to structurally quite comparable identity formations or to their prevention and also to complex terms of symbolic legitimacy and intelligibility is the attainment of a joined intercultural and interdisciplinary work on some of the key concerns we are confronting today     Thunder Rumbling at My Heels Gudrun Brokoph-Mauch,1998 These essays deal with Ingeborg Bachmann the most important and most widely read Austrian woman writer of the twentieth century Her work spans the genres of poetry short story radio play and novel in all of which she displays a mastery of the writer s craft combined with a deep understanding of human longings trials and triumphs The writer who died in 1973 is currently enjoying a resurgence of interest in her work most noticeably her prose which is being performed on various stages in Vienna in the form of collage presentations In addition the film adaptation of her novel Malina has aroused wide spread interest and discussion Although she had offered important insights into feminist issues long before this concept became commonplace it would be misleading to call her a feminist writer since her work addresses itself to all of humanity and not just women Among the many important themes in her work the topic of language and its potential for expanding human consciousness and social norms is the most consistent and most urgent topic The primary reason for this central focus Bachmann expressed in her most famous motto In the interplay of the impossible with the possible we expand our possibilities     Schwellen Nicholas Saul,1999
