Requiem For A Futurologist:

Requiem for a Futurologist Wole Soyinka, 1985      Traduction de "Requiem for a futurologist" de Wole Soyinka Anne Dhuscher, 1988      Theatre and Postcolonial Desires Awam Ampka, 2004-06 This book explores the themes of colonial encounters and postcolonial contests over identity power and culture through the prism of theatre The struggles it describes unfolded in two cultural settings separated by geography but bound by history in a common web of colonial relations spun by the imperatives of European modernity In post imperial England as in its former colony Nigeria the colonial experience not only hybridized the process of national self definition but also provided dramatists with the language imagery and frame of reference to narrate the dynamics of internal wars over culture and national destiny happening within their own societies The author examines the works of prominent twentieth century Nigerian and English dramatists such as Wole Soyinka Femi Osofisan David Edgar and Caryl Churchill to argue that dramaturgies of resistance in the contexts of both Nigerian as well as its imperial inventor England shared a common allegiance to what he describes as postcolonial desires That is the aspiration to overcome the legacies of colonialism by imagining alternative universes anchored in democratic cultural pluralism The plays and their histories serve as filters through which Ampka illustrates the operation of what he calls overlapping modernities and reconfigures the notions of power and representation citizenship and subjectivity colonial and anticolonial nationalisms and postcoloniality The dramatic works studied in this book embodied a version of postcolonial aspirations that the author conceptualises as transcending temporal locations to encompass varied moments of consciousness for progressive change whether they happened during the hey day of English imperialism in early twentieth century Nigeria or in response to the exclusionary politics of the Conservative Party in Thatcherite England Theatre and Postcolonial Desires will be essential reading for students and researchers in the areas of drama postcolonial and cultural studies      World Encyclopedia of Contemporary Theatre Ousmane Diakhate, Hansel Ndumbe Eyoh, Don Rubin, 2013-10-18 Now available in paperback for the first time this edition of the World Encyclopedia of Contemporary Theatre series examines theatrical developments in Africa since 1945 Entries on thirty two African countries are featured in this volume preceded by specialist introductory essays on Anglophone Africa Francophone Africa History and Culture Cosmology Music Dance Theatre for Young Audiences and Puppetry There are also special introductory general essays on African theatre written by Nobel Prize Laureate Wole Soyinka and the outstanding Congolese playwright Sony Labou Tansi before his untimely death in 1995 More up to date and more wide ranging than any other publication this is undoubtedly a major ground breaking survey of contemporary African theatre      Encyclopedia of African Literature Simon Gikandi, 2003-09-02 The most comprehensive reference work on African literature to date this book covers all the key historical and cultural issues in the field The Encyclopedia contains over 600 entries covering criticism and theory African literature's development as a field of scholarship and studies of established and lesser known writers and their texts While the greatest proportion of literary work
