Research at the Hampstead Child-Therapy Clinic and Other Papers, 1956-1965 Anna Freud, 1969 Mothers of Psychoanalysis Janet Sayers, 1991 In lucid uncluttered prose Janet Sayers presents the reader with a fresh viewing of the lives and times of four extraordinary women pioneer analysts Sayers recounts how they were able to shift the theoretic balance of the day to include the creative evolution of their thinking This book is of value not only for the novice but certainly for many others who can learn from these excellent abridged biographies Dr Helene DeRosis Community-Based Psychotherapy with Young People Geoffrey Baruch, 2003-09-02 First book to explore this innovative way of working with young people Gives a comprehensive guide to practical issues of this work and professional considerations such as evidence based practice and clinical audit Female Adolescence in American Scientific Thought, 1830-1930 Crista DeLuzio, 2007-09-23 In this groundbreaking study Crista DeLuzio asks how scientific experts conceptualized female adolescence in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Revisiting figures like G Stanley Hall and Margaret Mead and casting her net across the disciplines of biology psychology and anthropology DeLuzio examines the process by which youthful femininity in America became a contested cultural category Challenging accepted views that professionals invented adolescence during this period to understand the typical experiences of white middle class boys DeLuzio shows how early attempts to reconcile that conceptual category with femininity not only shaped the social science of young women but also forced child development experts and others to reconsider the idea of adolescence itself DeLuzio's provocative work permits a fuller understanding of how adolescence emerged as a crisis in female development and offers insight into why female adolescence remains a social and cultural preoccupation even today National Library of Medicine Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), 1965 Modernist Sexualities Hugh Stevens, Caroline Howlett, 2000 Leading critics from Britain Canada and the US examine modernism's imaginative rethinkings of sex gender and sexuality Original essays show how modernism intersects with the suffragette movement technological change and its effects on women and labor the growth of pseudo scientific writings and the burgeoning lesbian and gay movement They show how modernism upsets the fixities of gender and sexuality through its fascination with ambiguities marginality and the crossing of borders Sex reformers and sex changers unsexed storytellers typewriters femme and butch experimenters suffragettes in wide brimmed hats musical and dramatic pageants adolescent delinquents sunbathers and dancing indigenes all play a role in the heterodox and varied modernism revealed in these essays Hypochondria Susan Baur, 1988 Writing with grace humor and an expert's eye for revealing detail Susan Baur illuminates the processes by which hypochondriacs come to adopt and maintain illness as a way of life Social Theory, Psychoanalysis and Racism Simon Clarke, 2017-03-04 Sociological explanations of racism tend to concentrate on the structures and dynamics of modern life that facilitate discrimination and hierarchies of inequality In doing so they often fail to address why racial hatred arises as opposed to how it arises as well as to explain why it can be so visceral and explosive in character Bringing together sociological perspectives with psychoanalytic concepts and tools this text offers a clear accessible and thought provoking synthesis of varieties of theory with the aim of clarifying the complex character of racism discrimination and social exclusion in the contemporary world
