Sinuuous Objects Anna-Karina Hermkens,Katherine Lepani,2017-08-18 Some 40 years ago Pacific anthropology was dominated by debates about women s wealth These exchanges were generated by Annette Weiner s 1976 critical reappraisal of Bronis aw Malinowski s classic work on the Trobriand Islands and her observations that women s production of wealth banana leaf bundles and skirts for elaborate transactions in mortuary rituals occupied a central role in Trobriand matrilineal cosmology and social organisation This volume brings the debates about women s wealth back to the fore by critically revisiting and engaging with ideas about gender and materiality value relationality and the social life and agency of things The chapters interspersed by three poems evoke the sinuous materiality of the different objects made by women across the Pacific and the intimate relationship between these objects of value and sensuous gendered bodies In the Epilogue Professor Margaret Jolly observes how the volume also trace s a more abstract sinuosity in the movement of these things through time and place as they coil through different regimes of value The eight chapters trace winding paths across the contemporary Pacific from the Trobriands in Milne Bay to Maisin Wanigela and Korafe in Oro Province Papua New Guinea through the islands of Tonga to diasporic Tongan and Cook Islander communities in New Zealand This comparative perspective elucidates how women s wealth is defined valued and contested in current exchanges bride price debates church settings development projects and the challenges of living in diaspora Importantly this reveals how women themselves preserve the different values and meanings in gift giving and exchanges despite processes of commodification that have resulted in the decline or replacement of women s wealth Current Problems of the World Economy and International Trade Elena G.

Popkova,Inna V. Andronova,2022-03-30 Current Problems of the World Economy and International Trade reveals the determinants of competitiveness and drivers of economic growth of individual countries provides useful applied advice on post crisis recovery and the development of the world economy and international trade in the post pandemic period

Hidden Hands in the Market Peter Luetchford,Geert De Neve,Jeffery Pratt,2008-09-01 Engages with a range of alternative ethical perspectives and the initiatives to which they give rise This book features case studies that covers a range of places commodities and initiatives including Fair Trade and organic production activism in Hungary Fair Trade coffee in Costa Rica and handicrafts made in Indonesia Health, Money, Commerce, and Wealth Donald C. Wood,Raja

Swamy,2024-05-30 Exploring the interconnectedness and uncertainty of today s economic world this volume thoughtfully considers core themes current trends and possibilities for the future

RESPONSIBLE MARKETING FOR SUSTAINABLE BUSINESS Dr Ramesh Kumar Miryala,John Paul Mennakanti,2016-03-31 Globalization has proliferated business with numerous challenges and opportunities and simultaneously at other end the growth in economy population income and standard of living has redefined the scope of business and thus the business houses approaches A highly competitive environment knowledgeable consumers and quicker pace of technology are keeping business enterprises to be on their toes Today marketing and its concepts have become key for survival of any business entity The unique cultural characteristics tradition and dynamics of consumer demand an innovative marketing strategy to achieve success Effective Marketing has become an increasingly vital ingredient for business success and it profoundly affects our day to day life Today the role of a business houses has changed from merely selling products and services to transforming lives and nurturing lifestyles The Indian business is changing and so do the marketing strategies These changing scenarios in the context of globalization will bestow ample issues prospects and challenges which need to be explored The practitioners academicians and researchers need to meticulously review these aspects and acquaint them with knowledge to sustain in such scenarios Thus these changing scenarios emphasize the need of a broad based research in the field of marketing also reflecting in marketing education This book is an attempt in that direction We sincerely hope that this book will provide insights into the subject to faculty members researchers and students from the management institutes consultants practicing managers from industry and government officers

The Economics of Ecology, Exchange, and Adaptation Donald C. Wood,2016-09-08 This book consists of three sections The first concentrating on ecology further explores the theme of climate change The second section focuses on exchange transactions and relations in a variety of situations and settings Finally papers in the third section share a concern with individual and group adaptations to certain conditions of life

Transforming Gender and Food Security in the Global South Jemimah Njuki,John Parkins,Amy Kaler,2016-11-25 Drawing on studies from Africa Asia and South America this book provides empirical evidence and conceptual explorations of the gendered dimensions of food security It investigates how food security and gender inequity are conceptualized within interventions assesses the impacts and outcomes of gender responsive programs on food security and gender equity and addresses diverse approaches to gender research and practice that range from descriptive and analytical to strategic and transformative The chapters draw on diverse theoretical perspectives including transformative learning feminist theory deliberative democracy and technology adoption As a result they add important conceptual and empirical material to a growing literature on the challenges of gender equity in agricultural production A unique feature of this book is the integration of both analytic and transformative approaches to understanding gender and food security The analytic material shows how food security interventions enable women and men to meet the long term nutritional needs of their households and to enhance their economic position The transformative chapters also document efforts to build durable and equitable relationships between men and women addressing underlying social cultural and economic causes of gender inequality Taken together these combined approaches enable women and men to reflect on gendered divisions of labor and resources related to food and to reshape these divisions in ways which benefit families and communities Co published with the International Development Research Centre Hunter-Gatherer Adaptation and Resilience Daniel H. Temple, Christopher M. Stojanowski, 2019 Explores the variety of ways in which hunter gatherer societies have responded to external stressors while maintaining their core identity
