Labor Economics in an Islamic Framework Toseef Azid,Umar Burki,Muhammad Junaid Khawaja,Nasim Shah Shirazi,Muhammad Tahir,2021-12-30 The labor market in Islam is governed by the Islamic laws of fairness justice and reward that is equivalent to the job done Most of the literature in the field discusses the normative aspect of the labor market whereas few attempts can be seen to address more positive aspects There is a need for new theoretical and empirical models for the Islamic labor market which should differ from established approaches This book provides a comprehensive overview of the nature scope and dimensions of the labor market in an Islamic context from both theoretical and practical perspectives It presents and discusses labor economics and then compares the similarities and differences between conventional and Islamic views of the labor market explaining where they meet and critically justifying why they differ under the umbrella of Shari ah The book raises pertinent issues which it analyzes from both standpoints and widens the discourse to include norms morality and related institutions such as social security and welfare A unique feature of the book is that it examines labor economics practices among a specific group of countries and studies the labor conditions within these countries where the majority of the population follow the teachings of Islam in their daily lives The book proposes practical strategies for the development of new models for the Islamic labor market which are compatible with the modern world The book will enable academics and practitioners of Islamic economics to make economic sense of Shari ah compliance and human resource development

Israel's Economic Future United States. Congress. Joint Economic Committee,1998 U.S. Government Research & Development Reports ,1970 Iran Encountering Globalization Ali Mohammidi,2013-02-01

With new material and up to date information this book examines the current state of Iran exploring a wide range of areas including the economy finance politics the media and the position of women and migration Iran Encountering Globalization discusses the uneasy balance between the theocratic conservatism modernization and globalization This is a key tension in Iran one which has arisen following the revolution of 1979 since the regime has worked to Islamicize the country while at the same time international globalization forces have been pulling in a different direction Concluding that forces for change in Iran are currently building up this is an extremely topical book that makes an important contribution to current debates surrounding democracy in Iran

Civil Wars of the World Karl DeRouen Jr.,Uk Heo,2007-05-10 This unique two volume reference is the most authoritative up to date resource available for information and data on the most volatile civil wars around the globe since World War II At a time when historians are devoting more and more research to conflicts within nations Civil Wars of the World Major Conflicts since World War II is an invaluable addition to the available resources In two volumes it ranges around the globe to cover the most volatile and deadly civil wars of the past 60 years including the bloody impasses in the Middle East devastating tribal warfare in Africa Cold War fueled conflicts in Eastern Europe and Asia the seemingly unbreakable cycle of rebellion and repression in some regions of Latin America and more Civil Wars of the World moves country by country to describe the causes course and consequences of internal conflicts within each nation Coverage includes the historical background of each country geographic and economic factors descriptions of rebel groups and governments e g regime type size of military capacity terrorism foreign and or intergovernmental organization IGO intervention UN foreign support for rebels foreign aid and prospects for peace

The Political Economy of Investment in Syria Linda Matar,2016-02-26 Linda Matar examines Syria s failure to promote employment generating investment prior to the uprising Tackling the thorny issue of the inapplicability of modern investment theory to a developing country she situates the analysis of investment in Syria in its historical context and examines the socioeconomic structure and political preconditions that set the course of capital accumulation Matar argues that the class in charge of development which oversaw the allocation of resources during the Hafiz and Bashar Assad regimes precipitated a crisis of capital accumulation Difficult to access data and information compiled from fieldwork reveal how neoliberal reforms failed to build productive capacity and instead enriched a few through short term speculative and mercantile ventures Productive investment in Syria prior to the uprising lurched downward and the key related socio economic variables followed These deteriorating conditions contributed to the social explosion in 2011 Exploring the poor quality and quantity of investment this study probes how the cant of the free market served as a veneer behind which the institutional decisions distorted income distribution in a way that would inevitably lead to collapse

Teaching and Research Methods for Islamic Economics and Finance Mohd Ma'Sum Billah,2022-03-10 Methods and techniques adopted in teaching training learning research professional development or capacity building are generally standardized across most traditional disciplines particularly within developing countries This is not the case however when it comes to the Islamic disciplines and in particular in relation to the study of Islamic economics and finance which is influenced by conventional standards and techniques This is primarily due to the lack of availability of the requisite standards and mechanisms designed within the spirit of Maqsid al Shari ah This book offers a unique resource and a comprehensive overview of the contemporary methods and smart techniques available for teaching learning and researching Islamic eco finance and it presents solutions to the challenges in implementing them Further the book gives deep insight into the most appropriate methodologies that could be employed empirically to explore model analyze and evaluate Islamic finance theories and models respectively It also gives recommendations for improving learning teaching and research outcomes in Islamic eco finance The book also addresses how in this advanced technological era smart tools like artificial intelligence machine learning big data Zoom and the internet of things can be adapted to help equip students researchers and scholars with smart skills The book will enable those studying Islamic economics and finance to grasp the appropriate tools for research and learning Additionally the Islamic economics and finance sector is growing at a significant rate and therefore requires the upskilling and capacity building of its human resources thus the book will also be highly beneficial for practitioners involved in the industry The World Bank in Turkey, 1993-2004 Basil Kavalsky, 2006-01-01 This book examines the objectives set by the World Bank for its operations in Turkey in the period 1993-2004 and the extent to which those objectives were met The Tunisian Labor Market in an Era of Transition Ragui Assaad, Mongi Boughzala, 2018-11-10 The Tunisian Labor Market in an Era of Transition is a comprehensive examination of the central labor market issues facing this key Arab country. It includes contributions on the size, structure, and evolution of the labor force; the characteristics of labor demand; employment policies and regulations; and unemployment. Further chapters explore the wage formation process, gender differences in the labor market, the returns to education, child labor and schooling, and the trends and patterns of international migration from Tunisia. The Tunisian Labor Market in an Era of Transition is an essential reference on how youth employment, gender disparities, and informality contributed to political and social unrest in North African societies and on the effect of migration flows from North Africa to Europe Proceedings of the 9th European Conference on Innovation and Entrepreneurship Brendan Galbraith, 2014 Research Catalogue American Geographical Society of New York, 1962 Women's Employment in Muslim Countries Niels Spierings, 2016-04-29 This book presents a new and nuanced exploration of the position of women in Muslim countries based on research involving more than 300,000 women in 28 Muslim countries. It addresses topical debates on the role of Islam, modernization, globalization, neocolonialism, educational inequalities, patriarchy, household hierarchies, and more World Development Report 1996, 1996 Almost one third of the world's population has embarked on a transition from planned to market economies. Like economic reforms elsewhere, the long-term goal of this transition is to build a thriving market economy capable of delivering long-term growth in living standards. Now in its 19th annual edition, the World Development Report 1996 takes an in-depth look at these transition countries, focusing on the key lessons that have been taken place thus far. The introduction to the Report poses a number of key questions that are addressed in later chapters, including questions relating to initial challenges and how countries have tackled them from very different starting points and political conditions. The Report also focuses on the additional challenges these transition countries face, with a final chapter that summarizes the main conclusion of the Report, creating a text that will no doubt become the definitive source for students studying international economics and politics Rise Of The Global South, The: Philosophical, Geopolitical And Economic Trends Of The 21st Century Justin Dargin, 2013-05-27 This book provides a broad and in-depth introduction to the geopolitical, economic, and trade changes wrought with the increasing influence of the countries of the Global South in international affairs. The global role of the developing countries came to the forefront in 1974 when the United Nations General Assembly promulgated The New International Economic Order. Since then, the countries of the Global South, particularly China, India, Brazil, Saudi Arabia, South Africa, and Qatar, made an indelible impact upon the world's economic architecture. However, their true influence became starkly illustrated during the onset of the 2000s when several seismic events occurred. The September Eleventh terrorist attacks, with the resultant debilitating wars in Iraq and Afghanistan extreme world commodity price increases and the global financial crisis of 2007 2008 all served to wrench the epicenter of global influence increasingly southward While the developed countries of the Global North became mired in economic stagnation with problems associated with the global financial crisis their collective influence waned Since then the world has been attempting to accommodate somewhat unevenly the rising geopolitical and economic clout of the Global South This book presents a collection of scholarly articles that taken together functions as a primer on the workings of the immense global changes at the beginning of the twenty first century Electoral Corruption in Bangladesh Muhammad Akhter,2017-11-30 This title was first published in 2001 Rigging elections in favour of those in power has become a common practice in Bangladesh Muhammad Yeahia Akhter focuses on the significance of elections in this ostensibly democratic state and portrays how electoral corruption has damaged the process of democratic consolidation The author reveals the failure of both civilian and military governments to obtain democratic legitimacy and or credibility through free and fair elections The study examines the relatively democratic but largely non transparent nature of electioneering under non partisan caretaker governments The study provides a source of understanding of fair electoral process for the politicians and electoral officials in Bangladesh and other democratizing polities It provides valuable information to the policy makers and practitioners in order to reform the electoral process in Bangladesh and in other similar countries Islamic Banks and Financial Institutions Fayaz Ahmad Lone,2016-04-29 This book is a study of the objectives of Islamic Finance in the modern banking space and offers insight into the effects of changes and developments occurring in Islamic banking products and services Perspectives on Turkey's Multi-Regional Role in the 21st Century Dr Mujib Alam,2015-07-15 This book dwells upon the various aspects of the Turkish foreign policy in the different regions of the world especially with the dawn of the twenty first century Turkey has attracted international attention due to a marked transformation in the country s domestic and external realms which in turn has led to an increased activism in its foreign policy actions Particularly Turkey s economic rise has fuelled the country s ambition and quest for a more significant role in international affairs These transformations have come about with the ascendancy of the Adalet ve Kalkınma Partisi AKP or Justice Development Party JDP to power in 2002 Turkey under the AKP moved towards a new direction in the foreign policy and consequently endeavoured to play a larger role in West Asia Middle East the Balkans southern Mediterranean the Caucasus Central Asia Africa and Asia The country has emerged as a multi regional player having stakes and tractions on a range of issues in these regions The several discernible aspects of Turkey s involvement are dealt with in the contributions to this volume Studies in the Economic and Social History of Palestine in the Nineteenth and Twentieth Centuries Roger Owen,1982-06-18

Economic Crisis And The Politics Of Reform In Egypt Ray Bush,2019-04-10 This book examines the character and consequences of Egypt s economic reform and structural adjustment programme of 1991 along with the second stage of reforms in 1996 It contributes to the debates underpinning the political economy of economic reform and agricultural reform
