Terry Childs, Mark S. Warner, 2020-01-01 All archaeologists have responsibilities to support the collections they produce yet budgeting for and managing collections over the length of a project and beyond is not part of most archaeologists training While this book in the SAA Press Archaeology in Action Series highlights major challenges that archaeologists and curators face with regard to collections it also stresses the values uses and benefits of collections It also demonstrates the continued significance of archaeological collections to the profession tribes and the public and provides critical resources for archaeologists to carry out their responsibilities Many lament that the archaeological record is finite and disappearing In this context collections are even more important to preserve for future use and this book will help all stakeholders do so Cahokia and the Hinterlands Thomas E. Emerson, R. Barry Lewis, 1991 Covering topics as diverse as economic modeling craft specialization settlement patterns agricultural and subsistence systems and the development of social ranking Cahokia and the Hinterlands explores cultural interactions among Cahokians and the inhabitants of other population centers including Orens Dorf and the Dickson Mounds in Illinois and Aztalan in Wisconsin as well as sites in Minnesota Iowa and at the confluence of the Mississippi and Ohio rivers Proposing sophisticated and innovative models for the growth development and decline of Mississippian culture at Cahokia and elsewhere this volume also provides insight into the rise of chiefdoms and stratified societies and the development of trade throughout the world Chiefdoms Timothy K. Earle, 1993-04 These eleven case studies of different chiefdoms examine how ruling elites retain and legitimize their power Keyguide to Information Sources in Museum Studies Peter Woodhead, Geoffrey Stansfield, 1994 This revised and updated edition provides an integrated guide to the documentation reference aids and key organizational sources of information about museums and museum studies worldwide Part One provides an overview of museums and the literature about them Part Two is an annotated bibliography and Part Three is an international directory of organizations A detailed index completes the work

Morphometrics for Nonmorphometricians Ashraf M.T. Elewa,2010-06-09 This introduction to morphometrics does not rely on complex mathematics and statistics It includes application case studies in fields ranging from paleontology to evolutionary ecology and it discusses software for analyzing and comparing shape

New Life for Archaeological Collections Rebecca Allen,Ben Ford,2019-05-01 New Life for Archaeological Collections explores solutions to what archaeologists are calling the curation crisis that is too much stuff with too little research analysis and public interpretation This volume demonstrates how archaeologists are taking both large and small steps toward not only solving the dilemma of storage but recognizing the value of these collections through inventorying and cataloging curation rehousing artifact conservation volunteer and student efforts and public exhibits Essays in this volume highlight new questions and innovative uses for existing archaeological collections Rebecca Allen and Ben Ford advance ways to make the evaluation and documentation of these collections more accessible to those inside and outside of the scholarly discipline of archaeology Contributors to New Life for Archaeological Collections introduce readers to their research while opening new perspectives for scientists and students alike to explore the world of archaeology These essays illuminate new connections between cultural studies and the general availability of archaeological research and information Drawing from the experience of university professors government agency professionals and cultural resource managers this volume represents a unique commentary on education research and the archaeological community

A Companion to Archaeology John Bintliff,2008-04-15 A Companion to Archaeology features essays from 27 of the world s leading authorities on different types of archaeology that aim to define the field and describe what it means to be an archaeologist Shows that contemporary archaeology is an astonishingly broad activity with many contrasting specializations and ways of approaching the material record of past societies Includes essays by experts in reading the past through art linguistics or the built environment and by professionals who present the past through heritage management and museums Introduces the reader to a range of archaeologists those who devote themselves to the philosophy of archaeology those who see archaeology as politics or anthropology and those who contend that the essence of the discipline is a hard science

Principles of Visual Anthropology Paul Hockings,2012-05-18 This edition contains 27 articles written by scholars and film makers who are generally acknowledged as the international authorities in the field The book covers ethnographic filming and its relations to the cinema and television applications of filming to anthropological research the uses of still photography archives and videotape subdisciplinary applications in ethnography archeology bio anthropology museology and ethnohistory and overcoming the funding problems of film production

Historic House Museums in the United States and the United Kingdom Linda Young,2016-12-13 Historic House Museums in the United States and the United Kingdom A History addresses the phenomenon of historic houses as a distinct species of museum

Everyone understands the special nature of an art museum a national museum or a science museum but house museum nearly always requires clarification In the United States the term is almost synonymous with historic preservation in the United Kingdom it is simply unfamiliar the very idea being conflated with stately homes and the National Trust By analyzing the motivation of the founders and subsequent keepers of house museums Linda Young identifies a typology that casts light on what house museums were intended to represent and their significance or lack thereof today This book examines heroes houses once inhabited by great persons e g Shakespeare s birthplace Washington s Mount Vernon artwork houses national identity as specially visible in house design style and technique e g Frank Lloyd Wright houses Modernist houses collectors houses a microcosm of collecting in situ domesticu subsequently presented to the nation as the exemplars of taste e g Sir John Soane s Museum Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum English country houses the palaces of the aristocracy maintained thanks to primogeniture but threatened with redundancy and rescued as museums to be touted as the peak of English national culture English country houses the palaces of the aristocracy maintained for centuries thanks to primogeniture but threatened by redundancy and strangely rescued as museums now touted as the peak of English national culture Everyman woman s social history houses the modern demotic response to elite houses presented as social history but tinged with generic ancestor veneration e g tenement house museums in Glasgow and New York

Ocmulgee Archaeology,

1936-1986 David J. Hally, 2009-11-01 From 1933 to 1941 Macon was the site of the largest archaeological excavation ever undertaken in Georgia and one of the most significant archaeological projects to be initiated by the federal government during the depression The project was administered by the National Park Service and funded at times by such government programs as the Works Progress Administration Civilian Conservation Corps and Civil Works Administration At its peak in 1955 more than eight hundred laborers were employed in more than a dozen separate excavations of prehistoric mounds and villages The best known excavations were conducted at the Macon Plateau site the area President Franklin D Roosevelt proclaimed as the Ocmulgee National Monument in 1936 Although a wealth of material was recovered from the site in the 1930s little provision was made for analyzing and reporting it Consequently much information is still unpublished The sixteen essays in this volume were presented at a symposium to commemorate the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the Ocmulgee National Monument The symposium provided archaeologists with an opportunity to update the work begun a half century before and to bring it into the larger context of southeastern history and general advances in archaeological research and methodology Among the topics discussed are platform mounds settlement patterns agronomic practices earth lodges human skeletal remains Macon Plateau culture origins relations of site inhabitants with other aboriginal societies and Europeans and the challenges of administering excavations and park development
