Shareholding System Reform in China Shuyun Ma,2010-01-01 This insightful book demonstrates how China has emerged as one of the world s largest privatizing countries within a decade Since the 1980s there has been a global wave of transfer of state assets to private hands China is a relatively late participant in this worldwide trend yet in the last decade it has emerged as one of the largest privatizing countries Shu Yun Ma argues that China s privatization is not based on any grand blueprint rather it is privatization by groping for stones to cross the river a well known metaphor often attributed to Deng Xiaoping meaning that the reform simply proceeds on a trial and error basis without being guided by any theory With original case studies including one on China s first industrial shareholding enterprise this informative book will be of great interest to the academic community China observers and policymakers as well as financial analysts Living with Environmental Change W.
