Secret Gerard Tylor, 2017-07-04 It began around the age of thirty when I noticed an almost constant dissatisfaction arising within I had at that point a loving family friends home health an occupation and all the requirements of living the so called good life Why I asked myself besides the rare flashes of momentary relief and satisfaction am I basically unhappy and experiencing some form of suffering most of the time As I observed and questioned others around me they too privately admitted to be unhappy and dissatisfied which brought up a most important question What is It that prevents the state of happiness from being self realized Over the years I came to understand that it is indeed possible to free and liberate yourself from what is commonly unnoticed by most and that is your own falsely created identity that you call self I came to realize that you are always already established in unity with Being itself and can never possibly be separated from its source Your part Apply the way of self realizing this eternal and ever present relationship of Oneness with Reality itself and surrender to its self existing and self radiant nature of blissful happiness as your own real and true self state The Secret of Life Wellness

Public Library Catalog Juliette Yaakov, 2004 More than 8 000 books in the main volume More than 2 400 new titles in annual paperbound supplements More than 2 000 analytic entries for items in collections and anthologies Cold Intimacies Eva Illouz, 2013-04-23 It is commonly assumed that capitalism has created an emotional world dominated by bureaucratic rationality that economic behavior conflicts with intimate authentic relationships that the public and private spheres are irremediably opposed to each other and that true love is opposed to calculation and self interest Eva Illouz rejects these conventional ideas and argues that the culture of capitalism has fostered an intensely emotional culture in the workplace in the family and in our own relationship to ourselves She argues that economic relations have become deeply emotional while close intimate relationships have become increasingly defined by economic and political models of bargaining exchange and equity This dual process by which emotional and economic relationships come to define and shape each other is called emotional capitalism Illouz finds evidence of this process of emotional capitalism in various social sites self help literature women s magazines talk shows support groups and the Internet dating sites How did this happen What are the social consequences of the current preoccupation with emotions How did the public sphere become saturated with the exposure of private life Why does suffering occupy a central place in contemporary identity How has emotional capitalism transformed our romantic choices and experiences Building on and revising the intellectual legacy of critical theory this book addresses these questions and offers a new interpretation of the reasons why the public and the private the economic and the emotional spheres have become inextricably intertwined
