Sedad Eldem Architect In Turkey:

Sedad Eldem Sibel Bozdoğan, Suha Özkan, Engin Yenal, 1987      Sedad Eldem Sibel Bozdoğan, Suha Özkan, Engin Yenal, 2005      Sedad Eldem Sibel Bozdoğan, 1987      Modernism and Nation Building Sibel Bozdoğan, 2001 A cultural history of modern Turkish architecture and its connections to European modernism      Turkey Sibel Bozdoğan, Esra Akcan, 2013-02-15 Turkey Modern Architectures in History offers a journey through the iconic buildings of Turkey that begins with the end of World War I when the new Turkish Republic was born out of the disintegration of the Ottoman Empire includes its democratization in the midst of the Cold War's competing ideologies and concludes with the present day in which Turkey continues to be dramatically transformed through globalization economic integration and a renewed appreciation for its Islamic and Ottoman heritage Sibel Bozdoğan and Esra Akcan explore modern institutional masterpieces and architect designed buildings through the decades Their focus includes informal residential plans and they discuss how these have evolved from small settlements to colossal urban quarters that exist at a slippery threshold of legality This richly informative history of Turkey's built environment goes beyond typical surveys of Western modern architecture and is unique in tackling the issue of the modern and contemporary periods that are often omitted in studies of Islamic art and architecture Offering a perceptive overview of modern Turkish architecture this book places it within the larger social political and cultural context of the country's development as a modern nation in the twentieth century      Mid-Century Modernism in Turkey Meltem Ö Gürel, 2018-02-05 Mid Century Modernism in Turkey studies the unfolding of modern architecture in Turkey during the 1950s and 1960s The book brings together scholars who have carried out extensive research on post WWII modernism in a global context The authors situate Turkish architectural case studies within an international framework during this period providing a close reading of how architectural culture responded to ubiquitous post war ideas and ideals and how it became intertwined with politics of modernization and urbanization This book contributes to contemporary scholarship to reconsider post war architecture beyond canonical explanations      Imagining the Turkish House Carel Bertram, 2013-05-01 Houses can become poetic expressions of longing for a lost past voices of a lived present and dreams of an ideal future Carel Bertram discovered this truth when she went to Turkey in the 1990s and began asking people about their memories of the Turkish house The fondness and nostalgia with which people recalled the distinctive wooden houses that were once ubiquitous throughout the Ottoman Empire made her realize that the Turkish house carries rich symbolic meaning In this delightfully readable book Bertram considers representations of the Turkish house in literature art and architecture to understand why the idea of the house has become such a potent signifier of Turkish identity Bertram's exploration of the Turkish house shows how this feature of Ottoman culture took on symbolic meaning in the Turkish imagination as Turkey became more Westernized and secular in the early decades of the twentieth century She shows how artists writers and architects all drew on the memory of the Turkish house as a space where changing notions of spirituality modernity and identity as well as the social roles of women and the family could be approached contested revised or embraced during this period of tumultuous change      Turkey's Engagement with Modernity C. Kerslake, K. Öktem, P. Robins, 2010-02-25 Turkey's Engagement with Modernity explores how the country has been shaped in the image of the Kemalist project of nationalist modernity and how it has transformed if erratically into a democratic society where tensions between religion state and society continue unabated

Travel, Space, Architecture Miodrag Mitrasinovic, 2016-02-17 Travel Space Architecture defines a new theoretical territory in architectural and urban scholarship that frames the processes of spatial production through the notion of travel By aligning architectural thinking with current critical theory debates this book explores whether dissociating culture from place and identity and detaching the idea of architecture from both can reframe our understanding of spatial and architectural practices The book presents seventeen key case studies from a diverse range of perspectives including historical theoretical and praxis based and range from interrogations of architectural travel and notions of belonging and nationhood to challenging established geopolitical hierarchies      Architecture in Translation Esra Akcan, 2012-07-12 Esra Akcan describes the introduction of modern architecture into Turkey after the Kemalist political elite took power in 1923 and invited German architects to redesign the new capital of Ankara      The Cambridge History of Turkey Kate Fleet, Suraiya Faruqi, Reşat Kasaba, 2006 Publisher Description      Ways to Modernity in Greece and Turkey Anna Frangoudaki, Caglar Keyder, 2007-04-27 This is a clear and original examination of the impact of modernity on Greece and Turkey and the influence of the West on these former states of the Ottoman Empire during the crucial hundred years between 1850 and 1950 Ways to Modernity in Greece and Turkey explores the reactions and coping mechanisms displayed in both societies in reaction to Europe's all pervasive influence Elites in both societies engaged in defensive modernization culminating in parallel attempts to mould their nations in line with the western blueprint The authors examine reforms in the legal regime the changing nature of family and gender relations and re engineered conceptions of space and the built environment They describe and analyse different aspects of the changes in the two societies over this period as they defined their practices and identities against Europe and often against each other      Rethinking Modernity and National Identity in Turkey Sibel Bozdoğan, Reşat Kasaba, 2011-11-15 In the first two decades after W W II social scientist heralded Turkey as an exemplar of a modernizing nation in the Western mold Images of unveiled women working next to clean shaven men healthy children in school uniforms and downtown Ankara's modern architecture all proclaimed the country's success Although Turkey's modernization began in the late Ottoman era the establishment of the secular nation state by Kemal Atatürk in 1923 marked the crystallization of an explicit elite driven project of modernity that took its inspiration exclusively from the West The essays in this book are the first attempt to examine the Turkish experiment with modernity from a broad interdisciplinary perspective encompassing the fields of history the social sciences the humanities architecture and urban planning As they examine both the Turkish project of modernity and its critics the contributors offer a fresh balanced understanding of dilemmas now facing not only Turkey but also many other parts of the Middle East and the world at large

Building the Cold War Annabel Jane Wharton, 2001 In postwar Europe and the Middle East Hilton hotels were quite literally little Americas For American businessmen and tourists a Hilton Hotel with the comfortable familiarity of an English speaking staff a restaurant that served cheeseburgers and milkshakes trans Atlantic telephone lines and most important air conditioned modernity offered a respite from the disturbingly alien For impoverished local populations these same features lent the Hilton a utopian aura The Hilton was a space of luxury and desire a space that realized permanently and prominently the new and powerful presence of the United States Building the Cold War examines the architectural means by which the Hilton was written into the urban topographies of the major cities of Europe and the Middle East as an effective representation of the United States Between 1953 and 1966 Hilton International built sixteen luxury hotels abroad Often the Hilton was the first significant modern structure in the host city as well as its finest hotel The Hiltons introduced a striking visual contrast to the traditional architectural forms of such cities as Istanbul Cairo Athens and Jerusalem where the impact of its new architecture was amplified by the hotel s unprecedented siting and scale Even in cities familiar with the Modern the new Hilton often dominated the urban landscape with its height changing the look of the city The London Hilton on Park Lane for example was the first structure in London that was higher than St Paul s cathedral In his autobiography Conrad N Hilton claimed that these hotels were constructed for profit and for political impact an integral part of my dream was to show the countries most exposed to Communism the other side of the coin the fruits of the free world Exploring everything the carefully drafted contracts for the buildings to the remarkable visual and social impact on their host cities Wharton offers a theoretically sophisticated critique of one of the Cold War s first international businesses and demonstrates that the Hilton s role in the struggle against Communism was as Conrad Hilton declared significant though in ways that he could not have imagined Many of these postwar Hiltons still flourish Those who stay in them will learn a great deal about their experience from this new assessment of hotel space

Istanbul, Open City Ipek Türeli, 2017-07-28 Urban theory traditionally links modernity to the city to the historical emergence of certain forms of subjectivity and the rise of important developments in culture arts and architecture This is often in response to technological economic and societal transformations in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries in select Euro American metropolises In contrast non Western cities in the modern period are often considered through the lens of Westernization and development How do we account for urban modernity in other cities This book seeks to highlight cultural creativity by examining the diverse and shifting ways Istanbulites have defined themselves while they debate imagine build and consume their city It focuses on a series of exhibitionary sites from print press photography cinema films exhibitions of architectural heritage theme parks and museums and explores the links between these popular depictions through shared practices of representation In doing so it argues that understanding how the future is imagined through images and interpretations of the past can broaden current theoretical thinking about Istanbul and other cities In line with postcolonial calls for a comparative urbanism that decouples understanding of the modern from its privileged association with Western cities this book offers a new perspective on the lens of urban modernity It will appeal to urban geographers and historians cultural studies scholars art historians and anthropologists as well as planners architects and artists

Le Corbusier, the Noble Savage Adolf Max Vogt,Le Corbusier,1998

Vogt s investigation of LC s early life and education not only reveals important previously unacknowledged influences on specific projects such as the League of Nations headquarters and the Villa Savoye but also suggests why LC throughout his career preferred to lift buildings above the ground to give them the appearance of floating This tendency had decisive consequences for buildings associated with the modern movement and continues to influence architecture today
