Seductions Studies In Reading And Culture:

Seductions Jane Miller, 1991 One of the deadliest of seductions for feminists is their seduction by theorists by theories With this boldly polemical stroke Jane Miller begins her exploration stealthily cumulatively and with a deft and compelling intelligence In looking at the complex relation of women to culture and literature and to theory and politics and in recalling her own coming to feminism she asks how women experience themselves within ideas and traditions which simultaneously include and exclude them take their presence for granted and deny it Seduction as a category binds together the ambivalence the pleasure and the invisible coercions of male female relations while at the same time transgressing the implicit imperative in patriarchal societies to confine eroticism and its politics to the closet Seductions consists of five loosely connected almost autonomous chapters which nevertheless trace a historical progression from the eighteenth century to the present Miller borrows Antonio Gramsci's idea of hegemony using it to contextualize her readings of two famous literary seductions as told through Richardson's Clarissa and Jane Austen's Sense and Sensibility The second chapter focuses on Raymond Williams novels and criticism using them to chart the larger exclusions of feminism by Marxism The author enlists Carolyn Steedman's Landscape for a Good Woman in an attempt to survey Williams telling silences The third chapter reconstructs and analyzes the life and career of Clara Collet Miller's great aunt close friend of George Gissing civil servant and expert on women's education and work Through Collet Miller bestows individual color on the pressures inflicted on professional women to assume male perspectives and procedures The fourth chapter is superb Bracketed by discussions of Charlotte Brontë's Villette and Toni Morrison's Beloved it questions influential treatments of colonialism and orientalism which use women as a metaphor without listening for the testimony of real women It is a moving plea to set the category of women alongside more privileged categories of class and race The final chapter counterpoints the internal contradictions in the polyphonic theories of Bakhtin and Volosinov with an account of women's distrust of other women in Margaret Atwood's Cat's Eye By ending with an evocation of women's self dislike Miller emphasizes the chilling ways in which cultural exclusions and degradations of women are internalized and replicated by complicitous victims Reading Into Cultural Studies Martin Barker, Anne Beezer, 2003-09-02 Reading Into Cultural Studies revisits a selection of key texts central to the formation of cultural studies as a discipline and as a project These texts address questions of power ideology and the possibilities and limits of resistance Each of the eleven essays in the collection renews an early study in one area of cultural investigation bringing such seminal texts as Subculture by Dick Hebdige Loving With a Vengeance by Tania Modleski and Bond and Beyond by Tony Bennett back to the centre of attention However the essays are not purely celebratory Each study is critically examined in a number of ways for its research strategy its implicit theories of power and ideology for the empirical evidence it draws on and its conceptual framework Together the essays provide an introduction to some of the central debates and issues in cultural studies Edward Said Adel Iskandar, Adel Iskander, Hakem Rustom, 2010 This indispensable volume a comprehensive and wide ranging resource on Edward Said's life and work spans his broad legacy both within and beyond the academy The book brings together contributions from 31 luminaries to engage Said's provocative ideas
