See Ouarzazate And Die Travels Through Morocco:

See Ouarzazate and Die Sylvia Kennedy, 1995-04-01 This is an eccentric Englishwoman's first hand view of life in Morocco Sylvia Kennedy has travelled by local bus and mule through the country from the developed imperial cities such as Casablanca to the desolation of the Spanish Sahara and the remoteness of High Atlas She has mingled and participated in Moroccan life rather than merely observing it from the outside such as bathing with women while they discussed tricking their husbands over the use of birth control Taking in the politics including the Moroccan attitude towards the Gulf War religion archaeology history and contemporary life the author has written a very personal view of a remarkable and fascinating country From <http://www.amazon.co.uk> Nov 7 2014

The Rough Guide to Morocco Mark Ellingham, 2001 Practical tips on everything from the best value hotels and restaurants to transport and roads Lively accounts of the monuments and sites with informed treatment of Moroccan culture past and present Evocative descriptions of the routes and landscapes from mountain pistes to age old caravan trails across the desert Comprehensive coverage of trekking in the high Atlas windsurfing on the Atlantic coast and bird watching in the lakes and estuaries Full colour photos and more than 70 maps

Notes from Elsewhere Monique Layton, 2011-11-22 Notes from Elsewhere Travel and Other Matters follows author Monique Layton a trained anthropologist through some of life's familiar experiences introduction to new cultures the pitfalls of language regret for the past and various types of travel She shares her experiences and adventures in some of the planet's most interesting places in colorful detail From her childhood in Morocco to a time tinged with loneliness and isolation as she worked in mental hospitals and prisons she kept an open mind and heart She survived both the artificial ephemeral culture of international conferences and attempts to create a semblance of a normal life while living abroad As an academic Layton confronts the problems of cultural disconnection as they occur in life and travel and briefly considers what the future might hold for the elderly As an anthropologist she is able to provide context and insight into everyday occurrences As an immigrant she draws on her own experience to describe the staggered stages of assimilation Common to all travels journeys voyages and sojourns is the search for the familiar This search is Monique Layton's major contribution Elsewhere for her is caught in a web of memory a rich mélange of philosophical musings and literary allusions Her text is part ethnography and part gentle mockery as if surprised by her own presence in her varying realities All this adds up to considerable reading pleasure Elvi Whittaker PhD LLD professor emerita University of British Columbia author of A Baltic Odyssey The Mainland Haole and The Silent Dialogue
