Seeds Supporting Women's Work In The Third World:

Femmes, Féminisme Et Développement Huguette Dagenais, Denise Piché, 1994 For the past twenty years feminist grass root movements professionals and researchers have shown how the social construction of gender relations interacts with all forms of imperialism to mould the dominant ideologies of development Based on a constant dialogue between theory and practice research and action their analyses of society and international development begin with women's experience and aim at policies and actions directed toward social change and the empowerment of women Chicano Culture, Ecology, Politics Devon G. Peña, 1999-01-01 Until recently mainstream American environmentalism has been a predominantly white middle class movement essentially ignoring the class race and gender dimensions of environmental politics In this provocative collection of original essays the environmental dimensions of the Chicana/o experience are explicitly expressed and debated Employing a variety of genres ranging from poetry to autobiography to theoretical and empirical essays the voices in this collection speak to the most significant issues of environmentalism and social justice recognizing throughout the need for a pluralism of Chicana/o philosophies The contributors provide an excellent basis for understanding how multiple Chicana/o views on the environment play out in the context of dominant social political and economic views Chicano Culture Ecology Politics examines a number of Chicana/o ecological perspectives How can the ethics of reciprocity present in Chicana/o agropastoral life be protected and applied on a broader scale How can the dominant society whose economic structure is invested in placeless mobility take note of the harm caused to land based cultures take responsibility for it and take heed before it is too late Will the larger society be ecologically housebroken before it destroys its home Grounded in actual political struggles waged by Chicana/o communities over issues of environmental destruction cultural genocide and socioeconomic domination this volume provides an important series of snapshots of Chicana/o history Chicano Culture Ecology Politics illuminates the bridges that exist and must be understood between race ethnicity class gender politics and ecology CONTENTS Part 1 IndoHispano Land Ethics Los Animalitos Culture Ecology and the Politics of Place in the Upper Rio Grande Devon G Peña Social Action Research Bioregionalism and the Upper Rio Grande Rubén O Martínez Notes on Home Land Ethics Ideas Values and the Land Reyes García Part 2 Environmental History and Ecological Politics Ecological Legitimacy and Cultural Essentialism Hispano Grazing in Northern New Mexico Laura Pulido The Capitalist Tool the Lawless and the Violent A Critique of Recent Southwestern Environmental History Devon G Peña and Rubén O Martínez Ecofeminism and Chicano Environmental Struggles Bridges across Gender and Race Gwyn Kirk Philosophy Meets Practice A Critique of Ecofeminism through the Voices of Three Chicana Activists Malia Davis Part 3 Alternatives to Destruction The Pasture Poacher a poem Joseph C Gallegos Acequia Tales Stories from a Chicano Centennial Farm Joseph C Gallegos A Gold Mine an Orchard and an Eleventh Commandment Devon G Peña Managing Development Kathleen Staudt, 1991-04 Roger Ebert is the gold standard for movie critics And his Movie Yearbook has been the go to source for movie lovers for more than 25 years Roger Ebert's criticism shows a nearly unequaled grasp of film history and technique and formidable intellectual range New York Times Pulitzer Prize winning film critic Roger Ebert presents more than 600 full length critical movie reviews along with interviews tributes and journal entries inside Roger Ebert's Movie Yearbook 2013 It includes every movie review Ebert has written from January 2010 to July 2012 Also included in the Yearbook In depth interviews with newsmakers and celebrities Tributes to those in the film industry who have passed away recently Essays on the Oscars reports from the Toronto Film Festival and entries into Ebert's Little Movie Glossary Street Foods Irene Tinker,1997-03-27 Street foods are sold in almost every country in the world Many urban and rural people depend on them for one or more meals each day This book explores this world of entrepreneurs in developing countries When all of the participants in the delivery are counted including local farmers food processors and street vendors one realizes the enormous size of this industry Research conducted by the authors with vendors local community leaders and public health officials worked not only to collect data but to raise the hygiene of the food that is sold Building Sustainable Societies Dennis Pirages,1996 A collection of articles addressing the issue of whether the industrial model of human progress can be sustained in the long term It asks what the social political economic and environmental implications as well as potential solutions to the problem of resource intensive growth are Africa Contemporary Record ,1995 Transformations Torry D. Dickinson,Robert K. Schaeffer,2015-12-03 Bringing feminist and world systems theories together this analytic anthology examines the rise of intersecting women centered movements that contribute to alternative development and the rise of new societies The authors consider feminist movements and humanistic transformations that create new work and market relations promote democracy and equality redefine gender and sexuality regenerate the environment and construct nonviolent and peaceful relations At the end of each chapter articles by feminist theorists and practitioners on these topics are included to illustrate the analysis Using a global historical framework the book shows how diverse multicultural and international feminist ideas can be brought together to provide a comprehensive and differentiated understanding of change Women's Studies Index ,1991 New Books on Women and Feminism ,1994 Science, Crafts and Knowledge Gauhar Raza,Hester Du Plessis,2002 Feminist Bookstore News ,1989 Women's Lives Gwyn Kirk,Margo Okazawa-Rey,2007 This interdisciplinary multicultural text reader provides an introduction to women's studies by examining U S women's lives in a global context and across categories of race ethnicity class sexuality disability and age Substantial chapter introductions provide updated statistical information and explanations of key concepts and ideas as a context for the readings Each chapter includes Questions to Frame Your Reading and Suggestions for Taking Action to help students link their knowledge and understanding to their own lives and apply it to the world around them Participatory Development Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development.

 Development Centre,1995 Describes participatory approaches and instruments of participation Suggests that local community based organizations should be treated as partners or integrated into projects by NGOs and aid agencies Considers democracy and building up of confidence as necessary conditions for popular participation in development A War on Global Poverty Joanne Meyerowitz, 2023-06-13 When the United States joined the war on global poverty economists policymakers and activists asked how to change a world in which millions lived in need Moved to the left by socialists social democrats and religious humanists they rejected the notion that economic growth would trickle down to the poor and they proposed programs to redress inequities between and within nations In an emerging women in development movement they positioned women as economic actors who could help lift families and nations out of destitution Back cover

Empowerment and Women's Health Jane Stein, 1997-04 A comprehensive analysis of the links between women s empowerment and health this work looks at what determines success in the fight for better conditions the redistribution of power and control of resources Linking international development policies with women s situations the theories of women s health with the lives of individuals the author reveals the complex connections associations and interactions in the web of factors relevant to health This study should be of value to anyone interested in health care issues and states the case for an international feminist agenda attentive to local cultural idioms Self Help Group and Women Empowerment Swapan Shaw, Debotosh Sinha, 2021-01-01 Women constitute half of our population and play a vital role in the development of family the community and the nation It has been widely recognized that unless women s potential is properly developed no transformation and economic development is possible Therefore to accelerate the growth and prosperity of the nation it is very important to create opportunities for socio economic development of women In fact since independence it has been felt that women experience poverty to a great extent than men do The benefits of poverty eradication programmes targeted towards the head of the households have failed to trickle down and reached the women Since then The Government of India GOI has been emphasizing the need for designing separate development programmes for women and to earmark a specific percentage for women beneficiaries in other rural development programmes Self Help Group and microfinance are the tools for women empowerment The above terms are interwoven The book entitled Self Help Group and Women Empowerment A discourse has thrown light on the concept of women empowerment microfinance and Self Help Group and how they are interlinked based on available review of literature And lastly the inferences drawn from the study following a definite methodological aspect

Save the Womanhood! Samantha Caslin, 2018-04-16 The history of the women who travelled through Liverpool in search of work and adventure and the women who tried to stop them Save the Womanhood is a fascinating new history about promiscuity prostitution and the efforts of local social purists to save working class women from themselves

The One-Sex Body on Trial: The Classical and Early Modern Evidence Helen King, 2016-02-17 By far the most influential work on the history of the body across a wide range of academic disciplines remains that of Thomas Laqueur This book puts on trial the one sex two sex model of Laqueur s Making Sex Body and Gender from the Greeks to Freud through a detailed exploration of the ways in which two classical stories of sexual difference were told retold and remade from the mid sixteenth to the nineteenth century Agnodike the first midwife who disguises herself as a man and then exposes herself to her potential patients and Phaethousa who grows a beard after her husband leaves her are stories from the ancient world that resonated in the early modern period in particular Tracing the reception of these tales shows how they provided continuity despite considerable change in medicine being the common property of those on different sides of professional disputes about women's roles in both medicine and midwifery The study reveals how different genres used these stories changing their characters and plots but always invoking the authority of the classics in discussions of sexual identity The study raises important questions about the nature of medical knowledge the relationship between texts and observation and the understanding of sexual difference in the early modern world beyond the one sex model Sources Rita I.
