Immigration and Canada provides readers with a vital introduction to the field of international migration studies This original book presents an integrated critical perspective on Canadian immigration policies main trends and social economic and cultural impacts It offers up to date information on migration patterns and examines Canada in an evolving global transnational system that gives rise to imagined futures and contrasting real outcomes Key issues and debates include nation building and the historical roots of Canadian immigration contemporary global migration the changing national and ethnic origins of immigrants immigrants jobs wages and the economy designer immigrants and the brain gain the business of migration demographic impacts of immigration racism and prejudice facing excluded and marginalized populations transnational citizens diasporas emerging identities and struggles to belong refugees temporary workers and foreign visa workers undocumented migration and migrant trafficking the baby bust and the future of international migration Perspectives on

Racism and the Human Services Sector Carl E. James, 1996-01-01 Today's social services agencies are faced with the challenge of responding to the diverse needs and expectations of a growing multicultural population. This volume examines race and racism in Canada from historical and contemporary perspectives and explores the extent to which these factors operate within social services systems related to immigration, settlement, the justice system, health, and education. The contributors, including practitioners, educators, and policy makers, argue for specific changes in current approaches to service delivery and provide practical suggestions for services that make it possible for various communities to be served more effectively. The collection also proposes an anti-racism approach to service provision to produce a system that is beneficial to all Canadians, particularly Aboriginals and racial and ethnic minorities.

Race and Sport in Canada Janelle Joseph, Simon Darnell, Yuka Nakamura, 2012 Race and Sport in Canada: Intersecting Inequalities is the first anthology to explore intersections of race with the constructions of gender, sexuality, class, and ability within the context of Canadian sport settings. Written by a collection of emerging and established scholars, this book is broadly organized around three interrelated areas: historical approaches to the study of race and sport in Canada; Canadian immigration and the study of race and sport; and the study of race and sport beyond Canada's borders. Within these themes, a variety of relevant topics are discussed, including black football players in twentieth-century Canada, the structural barriers to sports participation faced by immigrants arriving in Atlantic Canada, and NCAA scholarships and Canadian athletes. Race and Sport in Canada will be of interest to the general reader as well as to instructors and students in the fields of sport studies, sociology, critical race studies, cultural studies, and education.

Christianities in Migration Peter C. Phan, Elaine Padilla, 2016-04-29 This book migrates through continents, regions, nations, and villages in order to tell the stories of diverse kinds of nomadic dwellers. It departs from Africa en route itself toward Asia, Oceania, Europe, and culminates in the Americas with the territories of Latin America, Canada, and the United States. The volume travels through worn-out pathways of migration that continue to be threaded upon today and theologically reflects on a wide range of migratory aims that result also in diverse forms of indigenization of Christianity. Among the main issues being considered are: How have globalization and migration affected the theological self-understanding of Christianity? In light of globalization and migration, how is the evangelizing mission of Christianity to be understood and carried out? What ecclesiastical reforms, if any, are required to enable the church to meet present-day challenges?

The Politics of Ontario Cheryl N. Collier, Jonathan Malloy, 2024-06-03 Ontario is the most populous province in Canada and perhaps the most complex. It encompasses a range of regions, cities, and local cultures while also claiming a long-standing pre-eminence in Canadian federalism. The second edition of The Politics of Ontario aims to understand this unique and ever-changing province. The new edition captures the growing diversity of Ontario with new chapters on race and Ontario politics, Black Ontarians, and the relationship of Indigenous Peoples and Ontario. With contributors from across the province, the book analyses the political institutions of Ontario, key areas such as gender, Northern Ontario, the intricate

Ontario political economy and public policy challenges with the environment labour relations governing the GTA and health care Completely refreshed from the earlier edition it emphasizes the evolution of Ontario and key public policy challenges facing the province In doing so The Politics of Ontario provides readers with a thorough understanding of this complicated province

Criminal Injustice Robynne Neugebauer,2000-01-01 This volume examines racism within the process of criminal justice In every society criminal justice plays a key role establishing social control and maintaining the hegemony of the dominant economic classes The contributors to this anthology argue that the differential treatment of people of colour and First Nations peoples is due to systemic racism within all levels of the criminal justice system which serves these dominant classes Ideological and cultural changes are preconditions for the success of anti racist policies and practices within the criminal justice system and within other state institutions Recommendations for transformations in justice policy and practice are provided

Identity and Belonging among Chinese Canadian Youth Dan Cui,2023-10-31 Identity and Belonging among Chinese Canadian Youth unveils how Chinese immigrant youth struggle as racialized minorities at school in their family and through their formative interactions with Canadian mainstream media Utilizing rich interview data the author explores how the contemporary forms of racism multiculturalism immigration and transnationalism affect the identity construction of second generation Chinese immigrant youth in Canada as well as their negotiation of belonging at social institutions through schools and mainstream media in Canada The text systematically examines the lived experiences and perceptions of Chinese immigrant youth in relation to race ethnicity and class Uniquely extending Bourdieu s concept of habitus to race and ethnicity the author traces issues of racism and model minority discourses not only to systemic and institutional origins but also to internalized individual ways of thinking doing and being This book will appeal to academics and scholars tracing racial inequality through the multiplicity of Asian diasporas in Western societies as well as researchers seeking new understandings of modern day school and media and with interests in multicultural education sociology of education and theories of race and ethnicity

Navigating Multiculturalism Dawn Zinga,2021-04-16 This provocative volume explores multiculturalism from different disciplinary perspectives as well as examining the associated issues from the perspectives of various countries It considers how multiculturalism has been defined and the various meanings that the term holds while also focusing on the realities faced in different societal contexts The authors address difficult and at times divisive questions about race ethnicity and identity This collection challenges readers to examine their own perceptions of multiculturalism and to consider how the perspectives in this volume can inform their thinking By examining the issues from different perspectives the authors have encouraged individuals to consider how to navigate multiculturalism and negotiate change

Building Mennonite Belonging Hyung Jin (Pablo) Kim Sun,2025-02-18 Hyung Jin Kim Sun is a Mennonite He was born in Paraguay and raised by a Korean immigrant family before attending an evangelical seminary in the United States There he joined a Mennonite church though he often returned from gatherings feeling uneasy Most Mennonites he met were white with European heritage and their faith community was often their ethnic community as well As a Korean Paraguayan Kim Sun felt that he would never be Mennonite enough This crisis of religious identity prompted him to work towards an intercultural Mennonite church where all people could experience full belonging Building Mennonite Belonging explores the interplay between ethnicity culture race and faith in Canada and other multicultural societies Using three Mennonite theologies messianic community missional church and shalom church Kim Sun navigates the intersection of identity and belief to broaden the vision of Mennonite peoplehood These theologies show that Mennonites aspire to engage with the world dialogue with those from diverse backgrounds seek peace and strive for reconciliation The materials to build an intercultural church can be found within existing Mennonite teachings and traditions Though centred on Mennonites Kim Sun s insights resonate with any faith community grappling with ethnocultural and racial diversity Envisioning new possibilities for faith communities in the twenty first century Building Mennonite Belonging advocates for a church that reflects and responds to the diverse society it inhabits Kim Sun s work is not only a call to action but a guide to fostering a more inclusive church and society

Whiteness Fractured Cynthia Levine-Rasky,2016-02-11 Whiteness Fractured examines the many ways in which whiteness is conceptualized today and how it is understood to operate and to effect social relationships Exploring the intersections between whiteness social class ethnicity and psychosocial phenomena this book is framed by the question of how whiteness works and what it does With attention to central concepts and the history of whiteness it explains the four ways in which whiteness works In its examination of the outward and inward fractures of whiteness the book sheds light on both its connections with social class and ethnicity and with the epistemology of ignorance and the psychoanalytic Representing the long career of whiteness on the one hand and investigating its expansion into new areas on the other Whiteness Fractured reflects the growing maturity of critical whiteness studies It undertakes a critical analysis of approaches to whiteness and proposes new directions for future action and enquiry As such it will appeal to scholars across the social sciences with interests in race and ethnicity intersectionality colonialism and post colonialism and cultural studies

Racism and Anti-Racism in Canada David Este,2020-07-10T00:00:00Z Multiculturalism is regarded as a key feature of Canada s national identity Yet despite an increasingly diverse population racialized Canadians are systematically excluded from full participation in society through personal and structural forms of racism and discrimination Race and Anti Racism in Canada provides readers with a critical examination of how racism permeates Canadian society and articulates the complex ways to bring about equity and inclusion both individual and systemically

Compulsory Schooling in Australia Carol Reid,Katherine Watson,2016-01-26 In an examination of the impact of education policy on Australia s diverse student population this book asks if increasing the years of compulsory schooling can make the positive social impact its proponents claim The authors analysis reveals a policy disjuncture wrought by competing agendas of increased school leaving age and school choice

The Fire Now Azeezat Johnson,Remi Joseph-Salisbury,Beth Kamunge,2018-11-15 Not so long ago many

spoke of a post racial era claiming that advances made by people of colour showed that racial divisions were becoming a thing of the past But the hollowness of such claims has been exposed by the rise of Trump and Brexit both of which have revealed deep seated white resentment and have been attended by a resurgence in hate crime and overt racial hatred on both sides of the Atlantic At a time when progress towards equality is not only stalling but being actively reversed how should anti racist scholars respond This collection carries on James Baldwin s legacy of bearing witness to racial violence in its many forms Its authors address how we got to this particular moment arguing that it can only be truly understood by placing it within the wider historical and structural contexts that normalise racism and white supremacy Its chapters engage with a wide range of contemporary issues and debates from the whiteness of the recent women s marches to anti racist education to the question of Black resistance and intersectionality Mapping out the problems we face and the solutions we need the book considers how anti racist scholarship and activism can overcome the setbacks posed by the resurgence of white supremacy

African Canadian Leadership Erica S. Lawson, Philip S.S. Howard, 2019-08-25 Challenging the myth of African Canadian leadership in crisis this book opens a broad vista of inquiry into the many and dynamic ways leadership practices occur in Black Canadian communities Exploring topics including Black women s contributions to African Canadian communities the Black Lives Matter movement Black LGBTQ HIV AIDS advocacy motherhood and grieving mentoring and anti racism contributors appraise the complex history and contemporary reality of blackness and leadership in Canada With Canada as a complex site of Black diasporas contributors offer an account of multiple forms of leadership and suggest that through surveillance and disruption practices of self determined Black leadership are incompatible with and threatening to White structures of power in Canada As a whole African Canadian Leadership offers perspectives that are complex non aligned and in critical conversation about class gender sexuality and the politics of African Canadian communities
