When the Last Lion Roars Sara Evans, 2018-06-14 The illegal killing of Cecil a famous and magnificent black maned Zimbabwean lion by an American big game hunter in 2015 sparked international outrage More significantly it drew the world s attention to the devastating plight of Africa s lions A century ago there were more than 200 000 wild lions living in Africa Today with that population reduced by more than 90 per cent many experts believe that without effective conservation plans Africa s remaining wild lions could be completely wiped out by the mid half of this century When the Last Lion Roars explores the historic rise and fall of the lion as a global species and examines the reasons behind its catastrophic decline Interwoven with vivid personal encounters of Africa s last lions Sara Evans questions what is being done to reverse or at least stem this population collapse and she considers the importance of human responsibility in this decline and more crucially in their conservation From the Lion Guardians in Kenya to the Living Walls of Tanzania and the Hwange Lion Research Project in Zimbabwe Sara meets both lions and their champions people who are fighting to bring this iconic species back from the brink of extinction     Lion Ruby Daniels,2025-08-01 Readers will encounter a pride of lions while on safari They will learn facts about this mammal such as size special features habitat mating and threats to its survival They will discover why lions are important to their ecosystem and how conservationists are working to protect them Readers will also be introduced to why lions are so popular to see on guided safaris and places in Africa where that may happen Aligned to Common Core Standards and correlated to state standards A D Xtreme is an imprint of Abdo Publishing a division of ABDO     My Lion's Heart Gareth Patterson,2014-09-15 Environmentalist independent researcher and author Gareth Patterson has spent his entire adult life working tirelessly for the greater protection of African wildlife and more particularly for that of the lion Born in England in 1963 Gareth grew up in Nigeria and Malawi From an early age he knew where his life s path would take him it would be in Africa and his life s work would be for the cause of the African wilderness and its wild inhabitants His is an all encompassing African story From his childhood in West and East Africa to his study of a threatened lion population in a private reserve in Botswana to his work with George Adamson celebrated as the Lion Man of Africa we witness Gareth s growing commitment to his life s mission This is nowhere more evident than in his account of his life as a human member of a lion pride experiencing life and death through its eyes as he successfully rehabilitated three famous orphaned lion cubs back into a life in the wilds At considerable risk to his own personal safety he exposed the sordid canned lion industry in South Africa bringing this shameful practice to international attention After moving to the Western Cape he took up the fight for the African elephant notably the unique endangered Knysna population and published his astonishing findings in his 2009 book The Secret Elephants Perhaps unsurprisingly given the stressful nature of his work Gareth suffered a massive physical and mental breakdown in his forties which he discusses here for the first time with an openness that underlines his courage Lesser men might have been broken but his lion s heart fought back and he ultimately overcame his illness Gareth Patterson s long awaited autobiography is a moving account of one man s single minded dedication to the preservation of Africa s wildlife It is also a stark reminder that if the human race does not want to lose Africa s priceless wild heritage there is no time to waste The lion is my totem animal and this is the story of my life in Africa for the lion     The Tribe of Tiger Elizabeth Marshall Thomas,2015-07-14 From the majestic Bengal tiger to the domesticated Siamese comes a meditation on cats from the bestselling author of The Hidden Life of Dogs and The Social Lives of Dogs From as far back in time as the disappearance of the dinosaurs cats have occupied an important place in our evolutionary social and cultural history The family of the cat is as diverse as it is widespread ranging from the lions tigers and pumas of the African and Asian wilds to the domesticated cats of our homes zoos and circuses When she witnesses her housecat Rajah effortlessly scare off two fully grown deer acclaimed anthropologist Elizabeth Marshall Thomas starts studying the links that bind the feline family

INTO THE EYES OF LIONS Graham Mercer, 2019-12-03 The adventures described in this book represent the realisation of a dream that in the author's boyhood seemed unthinkable His first safari in Kenya in 1962 was certainly low budget 12 for 2 days Later when working as a teacher in Dar es Salaam Tanzania he often spent weeks in some of the world's most celebrated national parks and reserves camping in tiny tents in the middle of the African bush The sometimes hazardous adventures and the good humoured camaraderie of those with whom the author travelled make this book an entertaining as well as interesting read Incidents with lions elephants rhinos buffaloes and other big game abound but safaris are not just about wild animals The author also describes the landscape of Africa as well as many of the other adventures that occurred to him during this time The general tone of the book is far from gung ho male chauvinism Like the bush itself it is predominantly one of tranquillity of being at one with the moment enhanced by the author's obvious love for life on safari and for wild life wild places and their conservation enlightened by a self deprecating sense of humour and sensitive deeply felt and lyrically expressed reflections      Ballou's Monthly Magazine ,1881
