Seeing Through The Heart Expressions In Image And Poetry:

Through a Speculum That Shines Elliot R. Wolfson, 2020-06-30 A comprehensive treatment of visionary experience in some of the main texts of Jewish mysticism this book reveals the overwhelmingly visual nature of religious experience in Jewish spirituality from antiquity through the late Middle Ages Using phenomenological and critical historical tools Wolfson examines Jewish mystical texts from late antiquity pre kabbalistic sources from the tenth to the twelfth centuries and twelfth and thirteenth century kabbalistic literature His work demonstrates that the sense of sight assumes an epistemic priority in these writings reflecting and building upon those scriptural passages that affirm the visual nature of revelatory experience Moreover the author reveals an androcentric eroticism in the scopic mentality of Jewish mystics which placed the externalized and representable form the phallus at the center of the visual encounter In the visionary experience as Wolfson describes it imagination serves a primary function transmuting sensory data and rational concepts into symbols of those things beyond sense and reason In this view the experience of a vision is inseparable from the process of interpretation Fundamentally challenging the conventional distinction between experience and exegesis revelation and interpretation Wolfson argues that for the mystics themselves the study of texts occasioned a visual experience of the divine located in the imagination of the mystical interpreter Thus he shows how Jewish mystics preserved the invisible transcendence of God without doing away with the visual dimension of belief

Picturing the Language of Images Laurence Petit, 2014-04-11 Picturing the Language of Images is a collection of thirty three previously unpublished essays that explore the complex and ever evolving interaction between the verbal and the visual The uniqueness of this volume lies in its bringing together scholars from around the world to provide a broad synchronic and diachronic exploration of the relationship between text and image as well as a reflection on the limits of representation through a re thinking of the very acts of reading and viewing While covering a variety of media such as literature painting photography film and comics across time from the 18th century to the 21st century this collection also provides a special focus on the work of particular authors such as A S Byatt W G Sebald and Art Spiegelman

The Encyclopaedia Britannica: Payn-Polka ,1911 The last great work of the age of reason the final instance when all human knowledge could be presented with a single point of view Unabashed optimism and unabashed racism pervades many entries in the 11th and provide its defining characteristics Despite its occasional ugliness the reputation of the 11th persists today because of the staggering depth of knowledge contained with its volumes It is especially strong in its biographical entries These delve deeply into the history of men and women prominent in their eras who have since been largely forgotten except by the historians scholars The Guardian <https://www.theguardian.com/books/booksblog> 2012 apr 10 encyclopedia britannica 11th edition Popular Educator ,1914 The Encyclopædia Britannica ,1911 Isaac Watts Graham Beynon,2016-10-20 Isaac Watts was an important but relatively unexamined figure and this volume offers a description of his theology specifically identifying his position on reason and passion as foundational The book shows how Watts modified a Puritan inherence on both topics in the light of the thought of his day In particular there is an examination of how he both took on board and reacted against aspects of Enlightenment and sentimentalist thought Watts position on these foundational issues of reason and passion are then shown to lie behind his more practical works to revive the church Graham Beynon examines the motivation for Watts work in writing hymns and the way in which he wrote them and discusses his preaching and prayer In each of these practical topics Watts s position is compared to earlier Puritans to show the difference his thinking on reason and passion makes in practice Isaac Watts is shown to have a coherent position on the foundational issues of reason and passion which drove his view of revival of religion Modern Tibetan Literature and Social Change Luran R. Bailey lived and these are places that he has been As much as possible the writing has been kept in its original condition as Shane like to stretch the boundaries of poetic license His excessive use of capitalization ellipses and an occasional made up word add interest and intrigue to what is often an unconventional writing style Book News Monthly ,1904 Musical Record and Review Dexter Smith,Lorin Fuller Deland,Philip Hale,Thomas Tapper,1897
