Selected And Collected Poems:

The Collected Poetry of Robinson Jeffers Tim Hunt, 1988 Robinson Jeffers 1887-1962 is not only the greatest poet that California and indeed the American West has produced but a major poet of the twentieth century who occupies a prominent place in the tradition of American prophetic poetry. Jeffers consciously set himself apart from the poetry of his generation by physical isolation at his home in Carmel by his unusual poetic form and by his stance as an anti-modernist. Yet his work represents a profound and profoundly original artistic response to problems that shaped modernist poetry and that still perplex poets today: how to reconcile scientific and artistic discourses and modes of vision; how to connect present-day experience to myths perceived as lying at the origins of human culture; how to renew the poetic language and how or whether to present art's claim to moral, spiritual or epistemological seriousness within representations of modern phenomena. For Jeffers as for no other important modern American poet there has never been a collected poems not even a truly representative selected poems. The current Selected Poetry first published in 1938 contains no work from the last three volumes published during Jeffers' lifetime or from his posthumous volume. Now for the first time all of Jeffers' completed poems both published and unpublished are presented in a single comprehensive and textually authoritative edition. The first three volumes of this four-volume work will present chronologically all of Jeffers' published work from 1920 to 1963. The present volume consists of poems published between 1920 and 1928 and includes some of his greatest and best-known poems: Tamar, Roan, Stallion, The Women at Point Sur and Cawdor as well as a recently discovered long poem Home. There is also an Editorial Note and a General Introduction.

The Selected Poems of Ted Berrigan Ted Berrigan, 2011-02-07 Following the highly acclaimed Collected Poems of Ted Berrigan poets Alice Notley, Anselm Berrigan and Edmund Berrigan have collaborated again on this new selection of poems by one of the most influential and admired poets of his generation. Reflecting a new editorial approach, this volume demonstrates the breadth of Ted Berrigan's poetic accomplishments by presenting his most celebrated, interesting and important work. This major second-wave New York School poet is often identified with his early poems, especially The Sonnets, but this selection encompasses his full poetic output, including the later sequences Easter Monday and A Certain Slant of Sunlight as well as many of his uncollected poems. The Selected Poems of Ted Berrigan provides a new perspective for those already familiar with his remarkable wit and invention and introduces new readers to what John Ashbery called the crazy energy of this iconoclastic, funny, brilliant and highly innovative writer. Praise for The Collected Poems of Ted Berrigan: This is a great, great book for all seasons of the mind and heart. Robert Creeley: Thanks to this invaluable Collected Poems one can hear as never before Ted Berrigan dreaming his dream. The Nation: The Collected Poems of Ted Berrigan is not only one of the most strikingly attractive books recently published but is also a major work of 20th-century poetry. It is a book that will darken with the grease of my hands. There is
