Looking At Pictures In The Tate Gallery:

Looking at Pictures in the Tate Gallery Michael Compton, 1979-01-01 How to Look at Pictures Sir Robert Clermont Witt, 1905 Why We Look at Pictures Carl Hammond Philander Thurston, 1926 The Art of Looking at Pictures Carl Hammond Philander Thurston, 1916 The Bloomsbury Look Wendy Hitchmough, 2020-10-02 An in depth study of how the famed Bloomsbury Group expressed their liberal philosophies and collective identity in visual form Fascinating and wide ranging Will be enjoyed by both Bloomsbury aficionados and newcomers alike Lucinda Willan V A Magazine The Bloomsbury Group was a loose collective of forward thinking writers artists and intellectuals in London with Virginia Woolf John Maynard Keynes and E M Forster among its esteemed members The group s works and radical beliefs spanning literature economics politics and non normative relationships changed the course of 20th century culture and society Although its members resisted definition their art and dress imparted a coherent distinctive group identity Drawing on unpublished photographs and extensive new research The Bloomsbury Look is the first in depth analysis of how the Bloomsbury Group generated and broadcast its self fashioned aesthetic One chapter is dedicated to photography which was essential to the group s visual narrative from casual snapshots to amateur studio portraits to family albums Others examine the Omega Workshops as a design center and the evidence for its dress collections spreading the Bloomsbury aesthetic to the general public Finally the book considers the group s extensive participation in 20th century modernism as artists models curators critics and collectors Looking at Picture in the Tate Gallery Michael Compton, Tate gallery, 1979 Data Practices Evelyn Ruppert, Stephan Scheel, 2021-11-02 How EU data practices establish and assign people to categories and how this matters in enacting making up Europe as a population and people What is Europe and who are Europeans Data Practices approaches this contemporary political and theoretical question by treating it as a practical problem of counting Only through the myriad data practices that make up methods such as censuses can EU member states know their national populations and this in turn is utilized by the EU to understand the population of Europe But this volume approaches data practices not simply as reflecting populations but as performative in two senses they simultaneously enact that is make up a European population and by so doing intentionally or otherwise also contribute to making up a European people The book develops a conception of data practices to analyze and interpret findings from collaborative ethnographic multisite fieldwork conducted by an interdisciplinary team of social science researchers as part of a five year project Peopling Europe How Data Make a People The book focuses on data practices that involve establishing and assigning people to categories and how this matters in enacting Europe as a population and people Five core chapters explore key categories of people usual residents refugees homeless people migrants and ethnic minorities and how they come into being through specific data practices such as defining estimating recalibrating and inferring Two additional chapters address two key subject positions that data practices produce and require the data subject and the statistician subject The Academy and Literature , 1903

Learning to Look at Paintings Mary Acton, 1997 Mary Acton shows how you can learn to look at and understand an image by analysing how it works what its pictorial elements are and how they relate to each other She describes the ingredients of composition space form tone and colour which make up a picture and discusses the importance of subject matter and the original function and setting of a picture in appreciating its visual meanings

Images of the Art Museum Eva-Maria Troelenberg, Melania Savino, 2017-02-06 In recent years the emerging field of museum studies has seen rapid expansion in the critical study of museums and scholars started to question the institution and its functions To contribute differentiated viewpoints to the currently evolving meta discourse on the museum this volume aims to investigate how the institution of the museum has been visualized and translated into different kinds of images and how these images have affected our perception of these institutions In this interdisciplinary collection scholars from a variety of academic backgrounds including art history heritage museums studies and architectural history explore a broad range of case studies stretching across the globe The volume opens up debate about the epistemological and historiographical significance of a variety of different images and representations of the Art Museum including the transformation or adaptation of the image of the art museum across periods and cultures In this context this volume aims to develop a new theoretical framework while proposing new methodological tools and resources for the analysis of museological representations on a global scale
