Music for the Common Man Elizabeth B. Crist, 2009-01-12 In the 1930s Aaron Copland began to write in an accessible style he described as imposed simplicity Works like El Sal n M xico Billy the Kid Lincoln Portrait and Appalachian Spring feature a tuneful idiom that brought the composer unprecedented popular success and came to define an American sound Yet the cultural substance of that sound the social and political perspective that might be heard within these familiar pieces has until now been largely overlooked While it has long been acknowledged that Copland subscribed to leftwing ideals Music for the Common Man is the first sustained attempt to understand some of Copland's best known music in the context of leftwing social political and cultural currents of the Great Depression and Second World War Musicologist Elizabeth Crist argues that Copland's politics never merely accorded with mainstream New Deal liberalism wartime patriotism and Communist Party aesthetic policy but advanced a progressive vision of American society and culture Copland's music can be heard to accord with the political tenets of progressivism in the 1930s and 40s including a fundamental sensitivity toward those less fortunate support of multiethnic pluralism belief in social democracy and faith that America's past could be put in service of a better future Crist explores how his works wrestle with the political complexities and cultural contradictions of the era by investing symbols of America the West folk song patriotism or the people with progressive social ideals Much as been written on the relationship between politics and art in the 1930s and 40s but very little on concert music of the era Music for the Common Man offers fresh insights on familiar pieces and the political context in which they emerged

Being in Time to the Music David Ross, 2008-12-18 Being in time to the music from the ground up is a work in phenomenology where this term is broadly defined comprehending Plato Heidegger Hegel and Marx The most direct referent is Hegel together with the theoretical revolution that he initiated with Phenomenology of Mind This text's more general purpose is to set the tone for a 21st communism based upon the idea of dancing with death assuming full responsibility for one's mortality and abandoning the self to love as the meaning of existence This dance is choreographed through my conversations with the above mentioned writers In conversing with them I aim to displace if not usurp them from the throne of honour which is nothing more than the authority borrowed from me By this I do not intend to deny completely their other to me character However they exist or even figure for me both in the sense of of count having importance as those that I read and by which I read myself They have borrowed my authority namely my own potential to be an author So reading them is to re-assume that borrowed authority The life of the reader to paraphrase Barthes begins with the death of the author
