

A close-up photograph of two hands, one from a darker-skinned person and one from a lighter-skinned person, with their fingers interlaced to form a heart shape. The hands are positioned at the top of the frame, with the heart shape opening towards the center.

“Love is patient and kind;
love does not envy or boast; it is not arrogant or rude. It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful;
it does not rejoice at wrongdoing, but rejoices with the truth.”

Graham, 2024-03-07 The nature and availability of spiritual gifts can be confusing Often new believers study signs wonders and miracles without knowing their purpose Steven D Graham a veteran pastor and Bible teacher wrote this book for those who earnestly want all God truly has to offer In it he establishes a biblical basis for understanding the reason for spiritual gifts and in the process explores what many find to be three of the most confusing chapters of the Bible 1 Corinthians 12 13 and 14 He answers questions about the signs wonders and miracles of the Bible and how they fit into God's plan and therefore His plan for you and me By drawing on a sound study of God's Word he leads new believers on the right path toward growth in Christ and away from the misguided approach that so many have taken God is the creator of language and as such He is consistent noncontradictory and purposeful in all that He does That purpose involves you and me and is revealed to those willing to search out these things diligently and skillfully International Handbook of Love Claude-Hélène Mayer, Elisabeth Vanderheiden, 2021-05-04 This handbook is the winner of the William B Gudykunst Award for Outstanding Book in 2023 given by the International Academy of Intercultural Research This handbook includes state of the art research on love in classical modern and postmodern perspectives It expands on previous literature and explores topics around love from new cultural intercultural and transcultural approaches and across disciplines It provides insights into various love concepts like romantic love agape and eros in their cultural embeddedness and their changes and developments in specific cultural contexts It also includes discussions on postmodern aspects with regard to love and love relationships such as digitalisation globalisation and the fourth industrial revolution The handbook covers a vast range of topics in relation to love aging health special needs sexual preferences spiritual practice subcultures family and other relationships and so on The chapters look at love not only in terms of the universal concept and in private intimate relationships but apply a broad concept of love which can also for example be referred to in postmodern workplaces This volume is of interest to a wide readership including researchers practitioners and students of the social sciences humanities and behavioural sciences In the 1970s through the 90s I was told that globalization was homogenizing cultures into a worldwide monoculture This volume as risky and profound as the many adventures of love across our multiplying cultures are proves otherwise The authors revolutionary and courageous work will challenge our sensibilities and expand the boundaries of what we understand what love is But that's
