Marie Griffith, 2004-10-04 Fat People Don't Go to Heaven screamed a headline in the tabloid Globe in November 2000 The story recounted the success of the Weigh Down Workshop the nation's largest Christian diet corporation and the subject of extensive press coverage from Larry King Live to the New Yorker In the United States today hundreds of thousands of people are making diet a religious duty by enrolling in Christian diet programs and reading Christian diet literature like What Would Jesus Eat and Fit for God Written with style and wit far ranging in its implications and rich with the stories of real people Born Again Bodies launches a provocative yet sensitive investigation into Christian fitness and diet culture Looking closely at both the religious roots of this movement and its present day incarnations R Marie

Griffith vividly analyzes Christianity's intricate role in America's obsession with the body diet and fitness. As she traces the underpinning of modern day beauty and slimness ideals as well as the bigotry against people who are overweight, Griffith links seemingly disparate groups in American history including seventeenth century New England Puritans, Progressive Era New Thought adherents, and late twentieth century evangelical diet preachers. Manuscript Verse Collectors and the Politics of Anti-Courtly Love Poetry Joshua Eckhardt, 2009-05-21. This book analyzes the distinctive contribution to literary history of early seventeenth century hand-written English poetry anthologies. Compiled by manuscript verse collectors, these anthologies preserved a number of pieces by major authors of the English Renaissance, yet they tended to surround them with unprintable verses on sex and politics. Size Matters: Why We Love to Hate Big Food Charlie Arnot, 2018-07-16. Despite food being safer, more affordable, and more available than at any time in human history, consumers are increasingly skeptical and critical of today's food system. In Size Matters, Charlie Arnot provides thought-provoking insight into how the food system lost consumer trust, what can be done to restore it, and the remarkable changes taking place on farms and in food companies, supermarkets, and restaurants every day as technology and consumer demand drive radical change. The very systems and technologies that are mistrusted by consumers are driving a revolution that empowers individual consumers to find the perfect recipe of taste and nutrition to meet their specific needs and desires. Size Matters pulls back the curtain to examine the irony, competing priorities, and new realities that shape today's food system.

When a Black Man Loves Wine Zachary Marcus Cesare Harris, 2025-04-01. This all basically started as a response to someone who was frustrated at certain repeating scenarios combined with the frustrations I see not only in the world of wine but the U.S. wine market specifically. So what happens when you take an unapologetic Black guy from West Philly, West Philadelphia, born and raised with a diverse background, whose been in many places and spaces that most folks would never imagine, who falls in love with wine and learns it from a different perspective from how many are traditionally taught? Throw him in a scenario where he then puts a wine deal together and sees both the lies and the truths and realizes he could do it better, he just needs the money. Then set him on a course that would introduce him to thousands of wines and winemakers, taking him to portfolio tastings, trade shows, and lunches, hosted tours, and B2B experiences from NY to DC in the United States as well as Italy, Portugal, and Spain, making tons of friends and associates along the way And also uncovering more lies that most people never see That s one way of looking at what has transpired since I first had some wonderful wines that fateful Friday night in 2006 when I went into Panorama Restaurant for a glass of wine not knowing where that would lead me And before I had gotten the idea and inspiration to jump into the industry I could see so many issues within it and so many missed opportunities So these are my thoughts musings analysis critiques experiences and revelations If you want to know about my journey so far this is for you If you look like me and are considering jumping into the wine industry you want to read this one If you are trying to sell wines in the US market or are doing it and could be selling more give this a read You might agree you might disagree you might laugh and you might get pissed off at various parts of this book Honestly you should But let me tell you one very important thing I don t hold back and so you might come away with some different ways of looking at things that you might not have ever considered before

Lost for Love M. Braddon,2023-05-16 Reprint of the original first published in 1874 Love's Shadow Paul A. Bové,2021-01-12 A case for literary critics and other humanists to stop wallowing in their aestheticized helplessness and instead turn to poetry comedy and love Literary criticism is an agent of despair and its poster child is Walter Benjamin Critics have spent decades stewing in his melancholy What if instead we dared to love poetry to choose comedy over Hamlet s tragedy or to pursue romance over Benjamin s suicide on the edge of France of Europe and of civilization itself Paul A Bov challenges young lit critters to throw away their shades and let the sun shine in Love s Shadow is his three step manifesto for a new literary criticism that risks sentimentality and melodrama and eschews self consciousness The first step is to choose poetry There has been since the time of Plato a battle between philosophy and poetry Philosophy has championed misogyny while poetry has championed women like Shakespeare's Rosalind Philosophy is ever so stringent try instead the sober cheerfulness of Wallace Stevens Bov's second step is to choose the essay He praises Benjamin's great friend and sometime antagonist Theodor Adorno who gloried in writing essays not dissertations and treatises The third step is to choose love If you want a Baroque hero make that hero Rembrandt who brought lovers to life in his paintings Putting aside passivity and cynicism would amount to a revolution in literary studies Bov seeks nothing less and he has a program for achieving it

Evanescent Love Ion Manta, 2014-10-10 Evanescence Love is the latest English language literary attempt by Ion Manta a Romanian American author The story evokes the illicit love between a couple of middle aged immigrants and its unraveling during a back and forth journey across The United States At another level the story tries to be also a comment on some seemingly paradoxical intersections of the American societal cultural philosophic and urban landscape in the 1990s as these transpire diametrically opposed through the interplay of the main characters Didonna and Dorel both naturalized Americans and members of the Romanian community settled around Washington DC The affair comes alive as a direct confession of the main male character thus the author takes pains for staying impartial by limiting his role simply to that of the storys recorder stage setter and puppet master ruling over only the moves frames and sequencing of episodes but intent on withholding his personal opinions as much as possible in a most relativistic post modern fashion
