Low City, High City Edward Seidensticker, 1985 Low City, High City Edward Seidensticker, 1983 Embassies in the East J E Hoare, J. E. Hoare, 2013-10-31 This text traces the history of three Far Eastern embassies through the vicissitudes of war and revolution against the background of an apparent steady decline of Western influence in Asia Dr Hoare tracks the key events and people shaping the British view of Asia Key dramatis personae are Sir Harry Parkes British Minister to Japan China and Korea Sir Ernest Satow the student interpreter who became Minister in Tokyo and Peking and in more recent years Sir Charles Eliot lover of big cars and scholar of Buddhism This book will interest those wishing to know more about all aspects of Britain in East Asia whether in the tense years of the Boxer troubles in China during the wartime repatriation of Britons from Japan and the Japanese Empire in the traumas of the Korean War or during the excess of China's Cultural Revolution The Socius of Architecture Ad Graafland, 2000 Tri part investigation of architecture urbanism and design proposals Critical analysis sociological research and architectural projects Critical position regarding the possibility of architecture to engage in the current socio political discourse Analysis of the Kunsthal in Rotterdam and IJ Bank and Westerdok projects of the Dutch architect Rem Koolhaas Description of the cities of Amsterdam Rotterdam and Tokyo Design proposal for architectural projects and urban research The Resilient City Lawrence J. Vale, 2005 Revealing how traumatized city dwellers consistently develop narratives of resilience and how the pragmatic process of urban recovery is always fueled by highly symbolic actions The resilient city offers an informative tribute to the persistence of the city and indeed of the human spirit book cover Second Metropolis Blair A. Ruble, 2001-05-28 By exploring and comparing North America's Russia's and Japan's second cities Chicago Moscow and Osaka Second Metropolis discloses the extent to which social fragmentation frequently viewed as an obstacle to democratic development actually fostered a pragmatic pluralism that nurtured pluralistic public policies Such policies are explored through six case studies the politics of street railways and charter reform in Chicago adult education and housing in Moscow and harbor revitalization and poverty alleviation in Osaka that illustrate how even those with massive political and economic power were stymied by the complexity of their communities Chicago Moscow and Osaka though the products of very different nations and cultures nonetheless shared an important experience of inclusive politics during an era of extraordinary growth and social diversity The success of all three cities which went well beyond mere survival rested on a distinctive political resource pragmatic pluralism Hegel's Philosophy of Reality, Freedom, and God Robert M. Wallace, 2005-04-04 Showing the relevance of Hegel's arguments this book discusses both original texts and their interpretations Urban Forests, Trees, and Greenspace L. Anders Sandberg, Adrina Bardekjian, Sadia Butt, 2014-07-25 Urban forests trees and greenspace are critical in contemporary planning and development of the city Their study is not only a question of the growth and conservation of green spaces but also has social cultural and psychological dimensions This book brings a perspective of political ecology to the complexities of urban trees and forests through three themes human agency in urban forests and greenspace arboreal and greenspace agency in the urban landscape and actions and interventions in the urban forest Contributors include leading authorities from North America and Europe from a range of disciplines including forestry ecology geography landscape design municipal planning environmental policy and environmental history

Planning Asian Cities Stephen Hamnett, Dean Forbes, 2012-03-29 In Planning Asian Cities Risks and Resilience Stephen Hamnett and Dean Forbes have brought together some of the region's most distinguished urbanists to explore the planning history and recent development of Pacific Asia's major cities They show how globalization and the competition to achieve global city status has had a profound effect on all these cities Tokyo is an archetypal world city Singapore Hong Kong and Seoul have acquired world city characteristics Taipei and Kuala Lumpur have been at the centre of expanding economies in which nationalism and global aspirations have been intertwined and expressed in the built environment Beijing Hong Kong and Shanghai have played key sometimes competing roles in China's rapid economic growth Bangkok's amenity economy is currently threatened by political instability while Jakarta and Manila are the core city regions of less developed countries with sluggish economies and significant unrealized potential But how resilient are these cities to the risks that they face How can they manage continuing pressures for development and growth while reducing their vulnerability to a range of potential crises How well prepared are they for climate change How can they build social capital so important to a city's recovery from shocks and disasters What forms of governance and planning are appropriate for the vast mega regions that are emerging And given the tradition of top down centralized state directed planning which drove the economic growth of many of these cities in the last century what prospects are there of them becoming more inclusive and sensitive to the diverse needs of their populations and to the importance of culture heritage and local places in creating liveable cities
